

A STREET FIGHT WITH REVOLVERS.

The Result is that Two Men Are Dead and Two Are Seriously Wounded.

HARVEST HANDS HAD QUARREL

George P. Cole, a Deserter from Army, First Shot Wm. Hammond Without Word of Warning.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 25.—Two men were killed and two seriously wounded today in a street fight with revolvers, the result of a quarrel between two harvest hands.

DEAD.
William Hammond, farm hand, George P. Cole, army deserter,
WOUNDED.
Charles F. Seeley, newspaper man, Minneapolis.

Joseph Deser, a deserter from the Twentieth infantry, who had been employed on a farm near this city, got into a quarrel with William Hammond, another farm hand, and without a word of warning, shot him through the heart.

Cole, with the revolver in his hand, passed through the main business streets of the city, which were crowded with women and children shoppers, warning everyone to keep away from him.

A posse of police officers in charge of Chief of Police Taylor hurried to the scene, and about 40 shots were exchanged. Charles F. Seeley, a newspaper man of Minneapolis, Minn., who happened to be in the crowd following the man, was shot down with a bullet through the left groin. Joseph Deser, a former Twentieth Kansas, was also shot in the left groin by the murderer.

Cole took refuge in a private dwelling, and when Capt. Taylor entered and called upon him to surrender he shot twice at the officer, who returned the fire, laying Cole low with a bullet through the right temple. He died within two hours.

DOWIE ON DECK.

Attacks King Edward and Denounces Reporters.

New York, June 26.—On his first public appearance after his trip around the world John Alexander Dowie today attacked the character of King Edward, declared that he loved President Roosevelt and denounced reporters.
He spoke in Carnegie hall in the morning and in the afternoon making two addresses at each session.

After much bitter reference to King Edward he said:
"Two weeks ago he went to see the Duke of Devonshire to see some horses and get points about a coming race.
The prophet is a misleader than the king, and what the prophet said has made his throne totter. I love Theodore Roosevelt, but if he does a great wrong I shall not be afraid to tell him of it, and believe he is too good a man to be afraid to hear of it." To the reporters he shouted:
"But I say to each one of you follows, beware."
"You will each have to stand before God for your sins."
"Touch not mine anointed and do my prophets no harm," God declares, and He will protect His prophets. All kings have their portion in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone.
You can laugh; you can laugh yourselves out of hell, but you cannot laugh yourself out of a Methodist minister once scoffed at me and was put out for disturbing a service. I told him to beware and my words rang in his ears.
Three days later his body was found in a pool of water. I cannot tell how it got there, but I warned him. God will stop your mouths. I brand you scoundrels and you dogs as a pack of unmitigated liars. Yet I pray God to bless you."

Wakeful?

Sleeplessness Is a Sign of Nerve Trouble and Should Be Looked To.

There are three different manifestations of sleeplessness.
First, hardly to sleep a wink all night, second, to lie awake a long time before falling asleep, third, to fall asleep soon, waking up after several hours and then find it hard to sleep again.

They mean that somewhere in the nerve fibres, somewhere in the brain cells, somewhere in the blood vessels that carry blood to the brain, something is radically wrong, and must be righted, or the end may be worse than death.
To right it, take Dr. Miles' Nerve Some other symptoms of nerve trouble are: Dizziness, Headache, Backache, Worry, Irritability, Irritability, Melancholy, Lack of Ambition.
They indicate diseases which may lead to Epilepsy, Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, Nervous Prostration, Paralysis, Insanity.
Nothing will give such quick and lasting relief as Dr. Miles' Nerve.

"My husband had been sick for weeks, could not sit up to have his bed made.
While the medical help we could get he continued to grow worse. He could neither sleep or eat. Our baby girl was sent away, and all others barred, because he could not stand a bit of talking. I read of a case of nervous prostration cured by Dr. Miles' Nerve, and in a few days he was able to be

Santos Dumont's airship No. 7 arrived on the grounds today in three boxes. It was on hand to superintend the unpacking, but owing to some misunderstanding the work was delayed, and after waiting for some time Santos Dumont left the grounds. He expressed doubt that he would be able to unpack the airship and have all the parts assembled in time to make an ascension on July 4, but said he would make every effort toward that end.

pressed himself as highly pleased with the very cordial reception given in the United States to Cardinal Satolli.
Speaking of Cardinal Merry Del Val, the papal secretary of state, his holiness said he was glad to hear of it.

EXPERIENCES OF PERDICARIS.

Attitude of His Captors Was Soon Changed from Insult to Fair Treatment.

RAISULI SAW HIM EVERY DAY.

Bore No Ill Will to Europeans, but Had to Do Something to Bring Sultan to His Senses.

Tangier, June 26.—Ion Perdicaris, the American who last week was released by the brigand Raisuli, was much better today and gave the Associated Press an interview descriptive of the circumstances of his capture and of his experiences while a prisoner in Raisuli's camp.

He says that on the night of May 18 he had just entered the dining room, and hearing a noise among the servants, he and Cromwell Varley, the British subject, who was also captured by Raisuli, went out to investigate the cause.
They were immediately surrounded by armed Moors, who bound and am-treated them. Varley resisted and was struck on the head with the butt of a rifle, and a knife was slashed across his hands, making serious wounds.

At first, as was thought, Varley's skull had been fractured. Perdicaris and Varley were then carried away on horsesback. They were bound with ropes, and roundabout roads were taken in order to avoid the garrisons.
The bandits stopped at Tarradent, 24 hours from Tangier, and Raisuli allowed Per-dicaris to write to his wife the next morning, and also to the sheriff of Wazan, asking them to intervene for himself and Varley.
At Tarradent the captives lived in a filthy hut. They were not allowed to go 100 yards away from it, and were strongly guarded. When the sheriff of Wazan arrived a big tent was placed at the disposal of the prisoners, and in other ways the sheriff was the means of alleviating their condition to a considerable extent. The attitude of the Moors changed from insult to fair treatment.

Spies of the pretender, who were in the camp all the time, tried to induce Varley to accept a post under the pre-tender.
Raisuli daily called and held long conversations with the prisoners. He said that he was reigning in the country. The animosity of the people, he said, was not directed against the sultan, but against his governors.

Aaisuli's father, Perdicaris said, left him much property and cattle, which he induced the bashaw by presents to rob Raisuli of his belongings and finally to imprison him for four years at Mogador.

On his release Raisuli interviewed Mohammed el Torra, representative of the sultan at Tangier, concerning the restitution of his property, and this without avail. Raisuli swore to take the law in his own hands, with the results already known. Raisuli said that he bore no ill-will toward the Europeans, but stated that the only way to bring the Moorish government to its senses was by capturing them until the foreign powers were awakened to a realization of the existing conditions.

Mr. Perdicaris said that Raisuli is posing as a patriot who wants to see the country happy and peaceful, and he is offering to accept the responsibility for maintaining the country from Tangier to Fez and clear it of robbery and crime, if he is backed up by the powers. He found in Raisuli an educated and intellectual man.

The only time the prisoners were anxious was during the last two days, when they were at Barabin, the village of Zelal, the governor of the Beni M'Sara tribe. When the exchange occurred over three hours were lost in the exchange of compliments, Raisuli refusing to talk business until the last moment, being apparently very suspicious of an attempt to capture him.
When he received the money and the armaments were returned by him to the ransom party, he hurried away toward his village.

Perdicaris and Varley immediately mounted horses and proceeded to Tangier, a journey of 10 hours.

During the interview Perdicaris expressed gratitude to the English speaking people for their sympathy during his captivity.
Describing Raisuli further, he said he did not get the impression that he was a sordid man, but one who favored the maintenance of law and order. He exercised a great control over the people and his followers, who display remarkable devotion to him. His followers are increasing continually. Raisuli organized the confederation of the Track Velocipedist Killed.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 27.—While riding on a track velocipede through Chatsworth park tunnel, Charles W.
Sell, assistant engineer of construction of the Southern Pacific company, has been run down and instantly killed by a light engine running extra. Sell, who lives near the western entrance of the tunnel, was returning from a trip to Chatsworth on his velocipede when he was caught and downed. Sell has the honorary citizenship of the city of Denver, where his father is president of the George Sell Baking Powder company. He was 24 years of age.

Killed for an Insult.

San Francisco, June 26.—Harry Radcliffe, freight clerk of the California & St. Francis hotels, shot and killed Andrew Reilly, a hodcarrier, this morning on the corner of Ninth and Folsom streets. The shooting was the climax to a fight between the men over an insult to Radcliffe's wife by Reilly.

To Punish African Natives.

London, June 26.—A dispatch to the Central News from Lisbon says that a punitive expedition is about to be dispatched to Portuguese West Africa in consequence of the threatening attitude of the natives there. Since the revolt of the Hereros tribe the natives of both East and West Africa have been showing signs of insubordination which have caused the government much uneasiness.

Porto Rican Teachers Coming.

San Juan, P. R., June 26.—The transport Kilpatrick, having on board 400 Porto Ricans, sailed today for Boston and the Summer, with 200 teachers, sailed for New York. The teachers will spend two months in educational institutions in the United States.

Garment Workers' Strike.

New York, June 25.—Leaders in the strike of garment workers declare the tie-up to be complete and estimate the number of persons out at 35,000 to 40,000.
In a day or two 10,000 finishers, mostly Italian women who take the work home, will be added to the ranks of the idle.
In whatever way the trouble may end it is the biggest clothing strike that New York has seen for at least six years. Since the last big clothing strike the population and the business have increased enormously and it is estimated that there are at least 20,000 more clothing workers in the city than there were six years ago. No wage demand has been made, the strike being merely against the open shop.

Big Fire in Sission, Cal.

Sission, Cal., June 27.—A small blaze which started in a jewelry store, resulted in a general conflagration which destroyed the main portion of the town.
This is said to be the most destructive conflagration in the history of northern California, the loss reaching $300,- 000, with very little insurance. The heaviest individual losses are Schul-er & Knox, $65,000, and the Shasta Box & Mercantile company, $60,000. The other losses are from $500 to $100,000.

Can't Locate Miles.

New York, June 27.—In connection with dispatches from Indianapolis to the effect that the leaders of the Prohibition party, whose national convention meets tomorrow, had been unable to locate Gen. Nelson A. Miles (spoken of as a possible nominee of the party), it is learned that the general was in this city Sunday and intended leaving at once for Washington on his way to the west.

MOB DELIBERATELY HANGS A NEGRO.

Little Girl Whom He Had Assaulted Placed the Noose Around His Neck.

SHE ALSO PULLED THE DROP.

The Culprit Had Been Placed on a Black Horse Which She Led Away.

Europe, Miss., June 26.—Stirling Dunham, a negro, charged with criminally assaulting the 14-year-old daughter of John Wilson, a white man, near Belmontaine, two weeks ago, and attempting to criminally assault three young ladies named Dunn near this city, all during the course of the same day, was hanged in the public square here today by a mob. The noose was placed about the negro's neck by the little Wilson girl, who positively identified him as her assailant. The negro was then placed on the back of a black horse and at a signal from the leader of the mob the little Wilson girl led the horse from under him.

Over 3,000 persons, white and black, witnessed the hanging. The lynching was as orderly as a legal execution.
After being assured that the negro was dead the mob cut down the body and turned it over to relatives for burial.
Dunham was captured Friday near Vienna, Ala., after a running chase, during which he was twice wounded.
He was brought here last night by the sheriff of this (Wilson) county. A large mob met the train at the railroad station and an effort was made to get the negro, but the officers spirited him away and carried him to jail at Wait-hall, six miles from here, where the party was again met by a mob of determined men, who said their intention was to burn Dunham. The officers in charge of the negro succeeded in preventing upon the mob to give up this intention, but only after promising to deliver the negro to the mob this morning for execution. There was a strong sentiment for burning, but this was overcome, and the lynching took the form of a hanging. Dunham stoutly maintained his innocence to the last, and denied that he had ever seen the Wilson girl. He admitted having visited Dunn's place, but denied any bad motive. His last remarks were made to 200 negroes, who were assembled about the place of execution, Dunham telling them never to go about a white man's house when women were at home alone.

The three Dunn sisters, the eldest of whom is less than 18 years, witnessed the lynching from a distance.

Dragnet for Smith and Wife.

New York, June 27.—A dragnet has been spread for J. Morgan Smith and his wife and their capture is only a question of time, according to an American dispatch from Philadelphia. The Smiths disappeared from New York during the investigation into the shooting of Bookmaker Frank T. Young a few weeks ago and, as they are considered important witnesses, detectives have searched constantly for them. Mrs.
Smith is the sister of Nan Patterson, new under indictment in connection with the shooting. It is said the couple were traced to Washington and thence to Philadelphia where they escaped through the back window of a boarding house to the roof of an adjoining building as the detectives entered the front door. They were located in another boarding house and again fled only a few minutes ahead of their pursuers.
Should they be arrested it is not known upon what charge the couple could be held as they are wanted only as witnesses in the Patterson case.

Victory for Insurgents.

New York, June 27.—According to the Uruguayan revolutionist junta, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina, the battle fought near Tuhamaboa last Friday was a great victory for the insurgents. It is asserted that the revolutionists captured the government's artillery and that Col.
Galarza, in command of the government troops was seriously wounded while the government's army lost several men.
The Uruguayan government emphatically denies this report. It declares that Gen. Saravia, the head of the revolutionists, was severely wounded, and that Col. Lamas and other high officials of the insurgents were killed.

Destroyed by Lightning.

Eureka, Cal., June 27.—The plant of the Eureka Lighting company was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000.

938 BODIES HAVE BEEN RECOVERED.

That More Than a Thousand Persons Perished on the General Slocum Quite Certain.

MANY PEOPLE STILL MISSING.

Coroner's Inquest to be Continued Tuesday—Federal Grand Jury Will Also Investigate.

New York, June 26.—That more than 1,000 persons perished in the burning of the excursion steamer General Slocum is now practically certain. According to an exhaustive report made by Police Inspector Schmittberger on the number of dead, missing, injured and uninjured in the disaster, it appears that 938 bodies have been recovered and that 93 persons absolutely known to have been on board the vessel are still unaccounted for, bringing the total mortality of the disaster up to 1,031.
These injured number 178, and of the throng of fully 1,500 who embarked on the excursion of St. Mark's church but 236 escaped without injury. The report is the result of a minute inquiry made by a corps of 100 patrolmen under the direction of the inspector.

In the course of the inquiry much valuable information was secured from survivors which will be used in the investigation by the district attorney to fix the responsibility for the disaster.
A thorough examination today of the hull of the Slocum by Coroner O'Gorman and Barry and Inspector Albertson resulted in the discovery in the locker in which the fire started of a number of barrels which contained kerosene and lubricating oil. The coroner's inquest will be continued on Tuesday and on Thursday the hearing by the federal grand jury will be opened.

In the death today at Watchung, N.
J., of Rev. Dr. Edward Frederick Mol-denke, one of the best known Lutheran clergymen in the United States, another name was added to the list of victims of the Slocum disaster. Dr. Moldenke was pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church in this city. Grief for 20 members of his flock who went on the excursion and never returned, and his compassion for the bereft families of St. Mark's church so affected him that he became ill. For years he had suffered from heart disease and last Sunday he broke down while holding a monial service for the Slocum dead. He was taken to his country home where death occurred. Dr. Moldenke was president general of the council of the Lutheran church of America from 1895 to 1899. He was born in Prussia, Aug.
10, 1828.

A SUGGESTIVE TIMEPIECE.

The quaint hourglass shown in the cut hangs before the pulpit in the parish church of Compton Bassett, in Wilshire, England. It was put in this conspicuous place in order to remind the preacher that time has its limitations even for sermonizing. It is constructed of wrought iron and is a good example of the handiwork of some consen-tious smith of the olden time. It is so arranged that at the expiration of the hour it may be inverted with a touch.

It is preserved only as a relic.

It is hoped that the new Berlin cathedral, on which the builders have been at work since 1892, will be completed next January.
