THURMAN AT NEWARK.

He Speaks Before a Vast Audience.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 8.—The democracy of Newark, N. J., held a mass meeting tonight in Belle Avenue rink, in which Allan G. Thurman spoke. The building, which has a standing capacity of from 4,000 to 5,000 people, was packed to overflowing. On Judge Thurman's arrival on the platform, J. Watts Carney, chairman, called the meeting to order and introduced the democratic candidate for president. The heartiest applause greeted his appearance. He spoke as follows:

Friends and Fellow Citizens: When I was born I was duly baptized into the Christian faith by the name of Allen G. Thurman. Many years afterwards some enthusiastic democratic friends of mine gave me a new baptism and styled me "the old Roman," but in my republican friends of the New York press would improve on that name, and this morning gave me baptism as the "Egyptian Obelisk." I have seen in the Place de la Concorde in Paris, an obelisk said to be more than 4000 years old. If I can only live as long as one of these obelisks I shall surely see all the enemies of the democracy buried beneath centuries of dust. I am engaged in business too serious to be troubled by equips, however sharp, and witticisms, however pungent. I came here to speak to you, my friends, in New Jersey, in a serious, sober manner, as American citizens. This is a year of great moment to you and our country. I came here at the request of your central committee and I came willingly, because there is no part of this whole continent in which I would rather meet my democratic friends than in New Jersey. What was done by our forefathers in the war that achieved our independence at Trenton at Princeton and at Monmouth? Those things are fresh in my recollection, and as they made my youthful blood stir within me and thoroughly swell with devotion, today in this old obelisk the recollection of them sets my old heart in motion. I am, therefore, glad to be with you tonight. Now, there are not a few subjects upon which I might address you tonight. There are some in my heart that I would like to speak to you of the history of this great democratic party, to which I have belonged from my youth. I would like to speak to you of that party and consolidated and maintained by Andrew Jackson, and whose interest and welfare have been so much promoted by Grover Cleveland. I would like to remind you that there is not one acre of land in the United States, beyond the original thirteen colonists, that was not obtained by a democratic administration. I would like to remind you that the thirteen colonies which achieved their independence were comparatively a narrow strip of land along the Atlantic shore, and that now this republic extends from ocean to ocean and is one of the largest, as it is the most intelligent and powerful, of all nations on earth. I would like to recall to your recollection the fact that whenever the contest has been between the rights of the people and those who would control their rights, the democratic party has stood by the people unflinchingly determined not to be moved. I would like to recall to your memory such facts as these that the removal of the property qualification and the religious test, and all that impaired the great right of the people to vote was the result of democratic legislation inaugurated by the democratic party. I would like to call your attention to the fact that when the spirit of Know Nothingism arose in this land and threatened to disfranchise every foreign-born citizen and to put down all people of a particular church, the democracy came to the rescue of liberty and religion, and said this thing shall not be. In the good old days of democratic ascendency we had an economical government economically administered. The expenses of General Jackson's administration for instance, in the course of a year did not exceed one-fourth of the expenses that have been entailed on this country one year since the rebellion. I would like to further state that this democratic party is the party that has never laid down to die, that it is naturally the party of free institutions and that just as long as freedom exists in America the democratic party will exist. There is no way of destroying it except by despotism and as long as it exists despotism is an impossibility for that party will not endure it.

FOUNDED BY JEFFERSON

Passing from general observations, allow me to come to some of the issues that are most sharply marked in this campaign. Let me say something to you on the tariff question, so called. Our opponents are endeavoring to alarm the country by the cry of "Free Trade." They must have

of the intelligence of what is free trade. Free trade is the unrestricted intercourse between nations in which there are no custom houses, no duties and no taxes paid on goods imported for sale. You have an illustration of free trade in the United States. There are thirty-eight states in the Union. Between these states there is free trade. When goods are taken from New Jersey, from this great manufacturing and flourishing city of Newark into New York, you pay no duties on them. If you take them to Maine or to California it is exactly the same thing. Between these thirty-eight states there is free trade, but there is no such thing as free trade between the United States and foreign countries and nobody in this country advocates such free trade. That is the only example of free trade we have here. When a man talks about the Mills bill as a free trade bill either he talks without wisdom or he talks with intent to deceive. Either he is an ignoramus or a rascal, one or the other. The present rate of duty under the existing tariff is 47 and a fraction per cent. This Mills bill reduces the rate of taxation to 42 per cent. The reduction is less than 6 per cent on this taxation and yet this reduction is called free trade. It still leaves the tariff at from 41 to 42 per cent, or more than twice as much as it was before the late civil war, and yet it is talked about as a free trade bill. Nearly all the articles consumed by the people of the United States that are imported into this country have to pay this tariff the average of which is 47 per cent. and upwards. Now who pays that tax? In the first place the importer of goods pays it when he lands them in New York at the custom house or at whatever other ports he brings his goods to. He must pay it before he takes his goods out of the custom house. Of course, when he sells them to the wholesale merchants he must add the amount of this tax to the original cost of the goods and sell them at a price just so much increased. Accordingly, he adds the duty to the original cost when he sells them to the wholesale merchant. The wholesale merchant must sell them at the same price, with his figures added, to the retail merchant. The retail merchant must keep the tariff charge in his price with his profit when he sells to the consumer. So it is the man who purchases the goods who eventually pays the tariffs. In all cases it is the man who uses the goods who pays this tariff. We have now in the Treasury over $13,000,000 drawn from the pockets of the people without the slightest necessity. It is admitted that this surplus should be reduced. There are three ways by which it can be reduced. One is a reduction of extravagant expenditures, another by a reduction of internal revenue, meaning free whisky and tobacco, and the third is by a reduction of the tariff on imported articles, and that is the doctrine which the democratic party advocates.

The Contract Labor Law.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept.—8.—An answer was today filed in behalf of Jas. Lees & Sons in the United States district court to two suits brought by the government against the firm for the recovery of a penalty for the alleged importation of contract labor. The complaint held that defendants violated the law in making contracts with workmen in England and bringing them into this county to fill positions in Lees' mills at Bridgeport, Pennsylvania. The answer of the defense states that the act of Congress of Feb. 26, 1885, exempts from its operation skilled workmen in any industry not then established in the United States, and that the occupation or employment mentioned in the contract to be performed by the alien named in the suit was skilled labor in the manufacture of fine cheviot clothes, which was an industry then commonly practiced in Great Britain but not then established or practiced in the United States, and for which skilled labor could not then be otherwise obtained. Much stress is laid on the important question of the constitutionality of the act of Congress under which the proceedings were brought.

Pope and Kaiser.

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—Friction has been caused between Rome and Berlin by the comments of the Italian press on the Emperor's visit. These comments have led to a request being sent to the Italian government to use its influence to prevent the newspapers misrepresenting the meaning of the visit. Prince Bismarck's telegram to the Pope intimating that the only object of the proposed visit was to make secure the alliance between Germany and Italy, and thereby the addition of a half million men to the German army, and that the Papal question was quite outside of it, was an outcome of the same difficulty. Preparations for the reception are going on in Rome on a large scale. The Pope has ordered all prelates and officers of the Papal household to be in readiness from October 19th, to carry out the programme with the greatest pomp and solemnity. Emperor William is displaying an energy that might have moved the admiration of Frederick the Great. On Thursday, after a hard day's work, he boarded a special train and proceeded to Dombrowskie, arriving at 4:30 Friday morning. After taking breakfast the Emperor drove ten miles and engaged in a review of a sham fight. The review ended at 9 o'clock, after which the Emperor drove back to Dombrowskie and returned to Potsdam, arriving at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Emperor will proceed to Bremerhaven on Monday and thence to Wilhelmhaven, where the military maneuvers will be concluded. The maneuvers will last from the 14th to the 18th, during which time the Emperor will live under canvass and be inured to campaigning.

The German press devotes much space to comments on the fisheries dispute between the United States and Canada. The majority of the papers conclude that the rejection of the treaty is merely a party move and will be without serious results.

The Cologne Gazette says, all discussion can but serve to foster both Canada and the United States in the belief that England has no business in North America.

The Hamburg correspondent, on the contrary, believes that the rejection of the fisheries treaty will lead the Canadians to seek closer contact with England.

At the closing sitting of the Catholic Diet at Frieberg, Windhorst devoted his speech to the argument that the restoration of the temporal power of the Pope would add to Bismarck's glorious achievements toward the maintenance of the world's peace.

Yellow Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—A Jacksonville special says: Nothing favorable was to be said today. It is the same old story of the fever spreading with amazing rapidity, more deaths and no outlook for the survivors. A heavy gale prevailed all night, the wind blowing a hurricane while torrents of rain added terror to the scene.

JACKSONVILLE, Florida, Sept. 8.—Forty-four new cases and six deaths are reported for the past twenty-four hours.

Destruction at Sea.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 8.—Capt. Ryan, of the schooner A. D. Story, which arrived from Ireland last night, reported great destruction among the French fishing fleet during August on the south coast of Ireland. As this is the coddishing ground for the French, the whole fleet was concentrated in this locality. A terrible storm came up and engulfed six vessels and crews. One other vessel was lost with its captain and three men. The number lost is 137. Many vessels were so badly damaged that they had to be abandoned. Three hundred men were destitute in Ireland until the steamer carried them away. They endured many hardship, the supply of food being limited.

Cyclone at Vera Cruz.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 8.—VeraCruz dispatches state that a cyclone struck there three days ago. The wind was from the north and continued until this morning, when it veered around to the southeast. Three large vessels were driven ashore and wrecked last night and several smaller craft were lost. As the morning grew the wind increased, and now shows no signs of abatement. All steamers are detained and work on all the wharves is suspended. A large freight bark has been wrecked just off the shore. The crew are still on board and are in a perilous situation. Assistance cannot be sent them.

PERSONAL.

Mr. N. H. Frohlichstein, of Mobile, Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, having used it for a severe attack of Bronchitis and Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been afflicted since. I also beg to state that I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters and Dr. King's New Life Pills, both of which I can recommend.

OPENED BUSINESS AGAIN.

The well known and popular Butcher, Wm. Under the name of Wood & Sons, they will carry on a wholesale and retail trade at 94 West First South St., having purchased the premises lately occupied by Cook & Glanfield. THE PATENT
Wire Gauze Oven Door
IS THE LATEST IMPROVEMENT ON THE

It Produces Practical Results in Baking and Roasting never before attained in any Cooking Apparatus, and will Revolutionize the Present Methods of Cooking
ITS THEORY
Is that all Food Baked or Cooked, should be cooked in fresh air freely admitted to the oven. This is done by discarding the close oven door heretofore used, and substituting for it a door containing a sheet of Wire Gauze nearly as large as the door itself.
Through this Steamed Dampness and odor freely circulates, facilitating the process of cooking, and producing food that is unequalled in flavor and nutrition, and actually cooked with less consumption of fuel than in an oven with a closed door.
It makes an enormous saving in the weight of meat.
It also produces Lighter Loaves of Bread, requires less attention from the cook, and promotes the health of the family by the SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE FOOD COOKED IN IT.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT.
MRS. MARY B. WELCH, Teacher Domestic Economy, Iowa State University, says: "My deliberate judgment is that the oven of the Range, as compared with others, is not only more equally heated in every part—front and rear—but as a result of its superior ventilation the food placed therein is better cooked, while retaining a sweeter flavor, and a larger proportion of its best juices. I find, also the consumption of fuel in this Range is much less than any other for same work.

Danger in Bread.

Alum and Ammonia are largely used in the manufacture of Baking Powders, and more than one-half the cans of baking powder on every grocer's shelves contain one or the other. The effect of these drugs when taken in small doses repeatedly is irritating to the coating of the stomach.

The safety of the family requires that baking powder should be made like Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, without the resort to Ammonia, Lime, Alum or any drug whatever. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Delicious Flavoring extracts are recommended by the heads of the great Universities and used by the United States Government. 3

IDEAL BROILING.
Broiling can be done in the oven of the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door, more perfectly than over the live coals.
Lay the steak, chops, ham or fish on a wire broiler or meat rack, placing it in an ordinary bake pan to catch the drippings.
Allow it to remain in the oven with the door closed 15 or 20 minutes. No turning is required. At the end of this time it will be found nicely cooked ready to serve.
THIS IS THE IDEAL WAY TO BROIL MEATS
There is no taint of coal-gas or smoke, and the meats are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals. The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every housekeeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.
