

DESIRABLE FARM SITES.

People Contrasting their own tiny, one-acre and flimsy lot with the spacious and fertile farms of the West, find it a matter of course to wonder why they do not own a large tract of land. A large percentage of the farms of the country are for sale.

are shown to the public, often in the form of a book, for the purpose of showing the people of the country the value of a large tract of land.

It is unfortunate that so many people are content with a tiny lot, when they are in the position to build a large one. The people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The first generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The second generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The third generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The fourth generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The fifth generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The sixth generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The seventh generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The eighth generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.

The ninth generation of people who are in the position to build a large one are the people who are in the position to build a large one.
