

ODGEN IS GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE

"Pa" Gimlin is Apparently Out of The Game Now.

MEETING CALLED FOR TODAY

Junction City Fans Announced That
They Had the $500 Forfeit
Ready to Deposit.

"Baseball or no baseball?" That is the question being decided at Odgen today and many fans in both cities are extremely anxious as to the outcome of the meeting which was called for today at the Junction City. Some of the local directors met last evening in this city to discuss ways and means of having baseball here without Odgen in it at all, and during the discussion the Odgen magnates telephoned down that they had the necessary $500 up and willing to go ahead with arrangements looking to the organization of the much talked of two-club league. The meeting here was called when it became known that in all probability "Pa" Gimlin would not give up his road job to play ball and he was apparently out of the game for the present at least. After the meeting was called by President Rogers, Odgen was notified of the proposed action and they immediately began to get busy in the cut off town. Gus Becker and Max Brown were the ones who stated that they were ready to talk business. President Rogers then called a meeting for today at Odgen and if nothing comes of it another meeting will be held and arrangements for leaving Odgen out will be made. At last accounts there was some talk of an effort to secure a lay off for Gimlin.

Winter Months.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Spring Blood Purifier, Nerve Bracer, and Health Builder.

Paine's Celery Compound is the wonder of the age. Its marvelous virtues are discussed amongst interested medical men, and its cures are talked of at every fireside.

As a spring health giver, Paine's Celery Compound stands far ahead of all other health remedies; it has no worthy competitor in the vast field of medicine.

To a large extent, the present popularity of Paine's Celery Compound is due to the fact that it has accomplished some of its most astonishing cures in the spring season—a time when men and women usually complain of ill health, loss of vitality, tired feelings—a time when people feel dull, listless, dependent, and ambitious.

Today, there are thousands of business men, mechanics, farmers, and dear wives and mothers, too, who, though able to walk around, are, nevertheless, sadly "out of health."

At this season, Paine's Celery Compound is the great health restorer and strength giver for the "out of health" people—for those who are perilously nearing some organic disease. Paine's Celery Compound used at once, will quickly remove every trace of poison from the blood, brace up the weak nerves, build up the tissues, and tone the digestive organism.

If you, dear reader, feel that your health is not as robust and vigorous as it should be, let us honestly suggest the use of Paine's Celery Compound, which has so wonderfully blessed your neighbors and friends. Be assured, "it makes sick people well."

GOVERNMENT CHEERS ARIZONA!

Plans for Irrigation Announced at Phoenix—First Reservoir Will be Located in Salt River Valley—Great Rejoicing Over the Official Statement of Director Walcott.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 18.—This is the proudest day in the history of Phoenix, the most important in the development of the agricultural resources of the Salt River valley, and momentous to the whole country, in that it has given to the world the decision of the secretary of the interior that the location of the first site upon which is to be constructed a storage reservoir under the Hanks-brough-Newlands Irrigation law has been decided upon.

Its special importance to Arizona lies in the fact that the site selected is that known as the Tonto site, on Salt River, above this city. It has been approved by the secretary as one of the largest enterprises of the kind, one offering the best advantages from an engineering standpoint, and one on which preliminary work is much further advanced than upon any other.

It is unique in that it is the only one under which there is a vast area of land already in private ownership from which a return to the government of the lands loaned for the construction of the reservoir is the most nearly assured, thus making an important experiment, and it is prophetically believed, a successful one of the new law.

For months the landowners and waterusers' association, in which is to be merged every private interest dependent upon the reservoir and which association is to deal with the government on the one hand in guaranteeing by lien on the land the payment for construction, and with the people on the other for the distribution of the water, has been busy. This association is incorporated and the laws received today include the approval by the secretary of the articles of incorporation. [The latter part of this statement is incorrect—Ed. "News."] The date for beginning construction depends entirely upon the completing of the minor details between the people of the association and the acquiescence of these hitherto in the minority, thus positively insuring harmony.

The message of the secretary was made known today through Director Walcott, the geological survey, under whose bureau all preliminary work has been done, and who has been in this valley for three weeks past making final investigations. Walcott said the secretary of the interior had officially authorized him to convey to the citizens of Salt River valley the following:

First: That the secretary of the interior had granted authority to the director of the geological survey for acquisition of the necessary property, rights of way, etc., preliminary to the construction of the irrigation works on Salt River, Arizona, under authority of the reclamation act, approved June 17, 1902. The construction is subject to the feasibility of obtaining necessary rights and adjustment of private claims in such a manner as to comply with the provisions of the act.

Second: In response to inquiries from a citizen of Salt River valley, the secretary of the interior has decided (a) that the secretary, under the law, can deal with an organization in receiving payment from individuals who have contracted for water rights under the terms of the reclamation; (b) it is not necessary or advisable at the present time to determine upon a general form of organization to be taken as a basis in organizing every reservoir district; (c) the particular form of organization for Salt River valley may be modified in the future as necessities may require, but for the present the form already adopted by the Salt River Valley Waterusers' association is considered sufficient.

It is possible in completing the details of distribution to make arrangements whereby owners of vested rights may be benefited. Such details, however, are not essential for the present consideration and may safely be left for initiation by the local organization of water users. Their united opinion upon the matter should have weight in the final determination.

In regard to the case of the Salt River valley, where there are several thousand owners of small tracts who desire to be supplied with water under the terms of the law, and in other similar cases, it is clearly essential to insure unity of purpose and action. The results that such owners unite in an organization which will act as agent for the individuals. It is also essential that such organizations, as a whole, guarantee that the payments be made, and that the strongest possible security be given the government for the faithful performance of contracts which may be made.—San Francisco Call, April 19, 1903.

PRESIDENTIAL PARADE.

Committee Holds a Preliminary Meeting—Another on Thursday.

The committee on parade that has in hand the marshalling of the clans on the occasion of the visit of President Roosevelt to Salt Lake next month met at the Commercial club last evening with United States Marshal Ben Heywood in the chair. The meeting was a brief one, and finally adjourned until 8 p. m. Thursday at the Commercial club, where it is expected that important business will be transacted.

On the motion of Ben Nevins Maj. Richard W. Young, Capt. J. Wash Young and Col. Benner K. Smith were added to the committee.

It was the sense of the meeting last evening that the chairman appoint subcommittees of the parade committee in order to insure a perfect organization. It was also suggested that a committee on forage be added so that the horses of the rough riders could be taken care of without expense to the owners. It was suggested that Agricultural park, with its numerous stalls
