ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

To the Presidents, Councils and Saints in the various Stakes of Zion:

It is thought advisable to hold our next Annual Conference in the city of President Cleveland a document re-Logan, Cache County. Meetings will commence on Saturday April 4th, 1885, at 10 o'clock a. m.* Very respectfully, Your Brethren,

Of the First Presidency of the Church ecture with the public. of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

RELIGIOUS AS WELL AS POLITICAL.

ALL attempts to cover up the fact that the bitter and persistent attack upon the Latter-day Saints and their institutions is a religious as well as a "political crusade are abortive. The character of the persecution is so clear that one would suppose that the circumstances constantly arising indelibly stamping it with its true nature would stlence all disclaimers to the contrary. The hireling clergy of the country have worked upon the prejudices of the masses, and with the latter have goaded the lawmaking power to enact cruel special legislation as a means by which "Mormonism" should be, in the languare of the Ogden, Methodist conference resolutions "stamped out." The laws thus far obtained for the purpose of accomplishing that pet object have not met the wishes of those who have incited their enactment. Notwithstanding their outrageous and unconstitutional character, they are not sufficiently ultra to suit the lamblike 'astes of the religious wing of the holy crusaders-professed followers of the meek and lowly Jesus. They still "Stand at the door and knock," not to bring peace to an oppressed people, nor to lift up those that are "bowed down." Finding those who are despised of the world, in harmony with the spirit of their real master, the Devil - not Him whom they profess to serve-they urge. with characteristic vindictiveness, the disruption of the families, the breaking up of the homes, and thrusting into prison of those who differ from them in their religious views and practices. All this and more is expressed in the recent presentation to President Cleveland, of a request, signed by over a thousand Christian (Heaven save the mark) ministers, to enforce the Edmunds Act. Probably not one of these harmless doves of a spurious Christianity have investigated the claims of so-called "Mormonism" to being the cenuine Christian religion. All they appear to care to know is that there are a people and religion who are preeminently successful in the reformatory work they have undertaken, while they themselves are connected with a powerless formality whose influence is on the wane. "Mormonism," being the fulness of the Gospel, lays the ave at the root of the religious tree; their crafts are in danger, and the successful system of theology must be destroyed, even if it involves the destruction of the liberties and lives of its devotees.

It is a repetition of a peculiar historical phase. The clergymen, as a body, are the scribes and pharisces of the present age. And like those of olden times, whose prototypes they are, they are instrumental in having the Elders and Saints taken before "rulers and judges," and harrassed and perplexed by public prosecutors who pervert their official functions. It is the same old spirit that caused the Redeemer to be dragged before the tribunals of Judea, resulting in his being ignominiously slain. It is the same fiendish genius that caused those who desired the death of the "Lamb of God," to shout-"Away with him; ernelify him. His blood be upon us and our children." There are professed Christian ministers dwelling here who are so deeply dyed in the same persecutive spirit that led to the shedding of the blood of the ancient martyrs, that circumstantial evidence points clearly to them as the inciting cause of the inurder of some of the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Salates The mobocratic spirit which resulted in the assassination of Joseph Standing, in Georgia, was due, according to evidence which has come to us, to better and unchristian-like anti-"Mormon" publications from the penof the Rev. Coyner. They were referred to and endorsed by Georgian priests who inflamed the prejudices of the murderers.

Christ said-"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." His professed followers, in their expressed and cager anxiety to have the "Mormons" broken up, say in effect-"Saffer little children to be remorselessly dragged before grand juries and courts, and compel them to testify against their parents; harrow up their tender feelings and fill their minds with ideas that tend_to demoralize them by plying them with vulgar and indecent questions regarding the conjugal relations of their fathers and mothers.
