Young. It will be noted that the Women's Work department has the greatest number of exhibitors, 65. This is followed by department D, poultry bees, etc., with 53. The horses, cattle, sheep etc., with 53. The horses, cattle, sheep and swine divisions have combined 73 exhibitors while of live stock, from the powerful stallion to the honey bee, there are 126 exhibitors. The aggregate number of animals, fowls, etc., mounts into the thousands. In the agricultural machinery department there are but two entries, the machinery men claim-ing that it was too expensive. In the minerals department, for instance, there minerals department, for instance, there are but three exhibitors, but this does not indicate a small display. On the Empire Creamery Co., Hooper Dairy als makes an extensive showing. It Happened in a Drug Store "One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bot-ile of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use.

THE CLEMENT-STOCKWELL CO.

The vogue given to plays based on the novels of Charles Dickens will be no-centuated at the Sait Lake Theater during the engagement of Clay Cleme and L. R. Stockwell, who will press among other successes "A Great G stacle," an adaptation of Charles Di-ens and Wilkie Collins' "No Thoroug fare." This, one of the best of Dicke-plays, was first produced in this count a quarter of a century ago by the a inent tragedian. Charles Fechter a later by W. J. Florence. The play therefore be new to the present gene tion of theater-goers, it also offers ex-ceptional opportunities for scenic dis-play of which the management have taken advantage of. There are thousands of people, suffering untold torture from piles, because of the popular impression that they can-not be cured. TABLER'S BUCYEYE TABLER'S BUCYEYE PILE OINTMENT will cure them and the patient will remain cured. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents, Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.
