HAWLEY IS GOING TO WASHINGTON

Prosecuting Attorney for the State of Idaho Leaves Boise On Tuesday.

TO ARGUE IN SUPREME COURT

Expects Meyer, Haywood and Pettibone Will Come up for Trial Next Month All Right.

Special Correspondence.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 27.—Att. Jas. B. Hawley, prosecuting attorney for the state of Idaho in the murder charges against Charles H. Meyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, has just completed his work upon the state's brief on the appeal taken to the United States supreme court by the defendants from the decision of Judge Beatty of the federal court denying writs of habeas corpus prayed for by them. It was because of a decision pending in the United States supreme court in this case that it was impossible to go on with the trial of defendants in the state district court.

The supreme court will convene next Monday in Washington, D. C., on which date Mr. Hawley will leave Boise for that city to be present on the 10th of October to argue his side of the question. It is understood that Mr. C. S. Darrow of Chicago and E. F. Richardson of Denver will represent the defense.

In speaking of the case, Mr. Hawley said: "I believe an opinion will be handed down within a few days after the trial, I expect to hear the result before the end of October, and I have in my own mind no doubt as to what the decision will be."

The state is ready for the trial and I am anxious to start the court proceedings as soon as possible."

STEVE ADAMS' CASE.

Mr. Hawley returned the first of his week from Wallace, whence Steve Adams has been taken to stand trial upon a murder charge, and to which Mr. Hawley was called on business connected with the case. Referring to the charge against Adams, Mr. Hawley stated that the facts are hanging very heavily and act around the prisoner and the authorities are confident of bringing him to trial. "His spirit seems far from broken," Mr. Hawley added.

After his trial, Adams and his wife are there looking after his interests. Adams' wife is also there.

NEW VOTERS.

The principal business done by the state court yesterday was the making of the near approach of elections was responsible for the rush of foreigners to their naturalization papers. The reason our leading men take an interest even in foreigners is that in every two years, and again in 1910, the state will elect members of the United States Congress. During the present term of the district court some of our sovereigns have shown allegiance to the United States. Within a few days four car loads of foreigners will arrive in the state capital to be naturalized. The work of the court will be very busy.

From the new factory in Nampan is an exhibit in some of the show windows of the city. The factory began operation Monday morning.

CANDIDATES ARE SCARC.

About 15 days ago the Democrats of the county adjourned after a futile attempt to secure candidates for their county clerk. Saturday they will reassemble, and it is stated that during their session of 15 days they will have secured persons who will make their names to be put on the ticket. Office holders, up to this date they are unwilling to find anyone who will be a candidate for the office.

In the Democratic politics of Idaho this year, the office hunters are the man, not the man of the office. One who might accept Fred T. Dubois in this instance. He had all the offices, both county and state, from a turnkey at the penitentiary up to a district judge.

Ray Johnson, traveling guard at the state penitentiary, has just returned from Pocatello with the convicted for that institution, and left again for his home for three more. The list of names now at the "pen" numbers

BATH, ACCIDENT AND FIRE AT MALAD.

Special Correspondence.

MALAD CITY, Sept. 27.—The concert given by the Toot family at the tabernacle last night was attended by a very large and appreciative audience. Malad people really enjoyed a great treat.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Mary Ann Bailey were held at her home Monday. She deceased was born March 22, 1821, and was the oldest woman living in Malad valley. Until her death she was in perfect health and attended to her household duties cheerfully. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Robert Bush, and several grandchildren to mourn her demise.

Monday William Thomas, son of John Thomas, was thrown from a load of hay, receiving serious internal injuries.

Thursday Hyrum Davis, while shoeing a horse, was kicked in the face by the animal. Several teeth were knocked out and his lips and face badly bruised.

Yesterday the threshing machine owned by the Williams brothers was burned entirely and the bushels of grain in the machine were destroyed.

It is thought that the rust in the grain was the cause of the fire.

The electric lights are on in full force, and the people of the city to have them on in full force, one of which is now on the corner of Main and Bank streets.

UTAH MAN PASSES AWAY AT RIGBY, IDA.

Special Correspondence.

RIGBY, Sept. 28.—Albert Coles is the latest victim in Rigby for typhoid to claim. The remains left here for Kaysville, Utah, accompanied by a number of friends and relatives of the deceased on Monday.

Albert Coles came here with his brother from Syracuse, Utah, two or three years ago and rented a farm. He was the son of John Coles and Elizabeth Beaumont Coles and was born 25 years ago at Centerville, Davis county, Utah. When attacked by the disease he was working for F. Olsen here. He continued to work as long as possible and then was taken to the home of F. A. Peterson and there carefully nursed. When the fever left him his heart's action was so weak that he could not recuperate and so sank into his long last sleep.

On Monday a very pleasant reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Peter Later on their return from Logan where they were married Sept. 18. Mrs. Later is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. J. Chandler, at whose home the reception was held, a large number of relatives being present. With good cheer and good wishes the evening quickly passed.

D. McCarthy's fine new business block is progressing the first story being completed. Its front pillars are made of fine pressed brick from Ogden. M. T. Peck's new brick residence is looming up.

Reet hauling has commenced with a good crop and good weather for gathering it.

Tomorrow the Fremont county convention of the Republicans will be held at Peck's hall, a large attendance is expected.

Several of Rigby's citizens are moving to work at the sugar factory during the season, run which is expected to be about 100 days.

FRIEND DIES.

A close friend of Mrs. Nelson was old lady Mrs. Marion Larsen Deutenbaur, the proprietress of the Manila rooming house opposite the Pocatello hotel. Mrs. Deutenbaur was the first woman resident in Pocatello, and a close friendship existed between the old folks, and a familiar greeting between them was the Danish term, "bestemmer," literally, "best mother," or the English grandam.

Only an evening or two before the accidental death of Mrs. Nelson anticipating her demise, had expressed a desire that if the Lord was willing she would desire to be the first of the two to pass away.

When the news reached Mrs. Deutenbaur, Friday afternoon she was strangely overcome with grief and sympathy. After a little while she grasped the hand of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Pit Larsen, and cried out, "Good-bye, I am going," and at 4:30 she passed peacefully away. Her remains were interred Monday afternoon. Pastor C. H. Bengtson, a Swedish Lutheran minister from Idaho Falls, conducted the services.

Mrs. Deutenbaur leaves a husband, one great grandchild and 41 grandchildren.

KILLED IN A BRAWL.

An Oregon Short Line brakeman named J. J. Clomas, residing at 403 north Cleveland avenue, the old residence of ex-mayor Dan Swincheart, was killed in a saloon brawl at Shoshone, about 6:45 Friday morning, by a man named Fred Regan, a carpenter, about town. The latter was arrested and also a boy who was a witness to the affair.

It appears that Clomas had gone to Boise on private business last Thursday, and had considerable money on him.

At Shoshone he visited several saloons, and was put out because he was quarrelsome.

Clomas and the boy, a newly made acquaintance, retired to the depot, but during the night Regan hunted him up, and despite the objections of the boy he induced Clomas to go with him to the Temple Bar saloon, operated by Sturgis, with night bartender Pat Morton in charge. It is probable that robbery was the motive, as a certain purse and money are missing. It is learned that Regan procured the pistol from the bartender, and shot Clomas five times, and he died on the spot.

The body was brought home Saturday, and was interred Monday. Mr. Clomas was 25 years of age, and leaves a wife and two small children, is a member of the order of Eagles, and the Brotherhood of Brakemen. He was formerly employed at Glenn's Ferry.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. John K. Pierpont entertained a surprise party this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Davidson, whose residence recently was damaged by fire.

Many old friends were present, and each one contributed a piece of table ware to partly replace the dishes destroyed in the fire.

A pleasant evening was spent in neighborly conversation, music and recitations, elegant refreshments were served. Mrs. Pierpont was assisted by Mrs. John A. Priest and Mrs. H. Kay.

The Davidson residence is being rapidly reconstructed, and the fire claim has been adjusted.

The district court concluded its business Saturday evening, and five state prisoners were to Boise yesterday. They were Al Robinson and Geo. Dover, both colored, five years each for grand larceny; William Clarendon, 15 months for burglary; John McClellan, 15 months, burglary. Wilbur Downs, 15 years, goes to the St. Anthony reform school, confessing to criminal assault. The two Indian squaws, Paul Stoner and Mamette, assault and battery on white women near McCammon, will serve 30 days in the county jail.
