OPPOSITION TO THE TRUTH

Remarks Made at the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, Sunday Afternoon, January 28, 1900, by PRESIDENT GEORGE Q. CANNON.

Happiness Enjoyed by the Saints-The Sacrifices They Made for the Sake of Truth-Principles that Have Provoked Hostility-Higher Truths to be Revealed-Necessity of Caution in Presenting Them-Obedience to Law are Essential to Exaltation.

Brother Talmage has stated that he believes the Latter-day Saints are a very happy people-probably the happlest in the world. There is no doubt in my mind concerning this. I believe we are the happlest people in the world. And from our organization, seventy years ago, we have been distinguished for our love for truth. If the pursuit of truth and the obedience of truth will make a people happy, then certainly we ought to be a very happy people. All our sufferings, all our trials, all the obloquy that has been heaped upon us, have had their origin in our determined pursuit of truth and our love for it. I all other people for this characteristic. We have differed from our fellow beings to a very great extent, because we had higher conceptions of truth than those which prevailed. If we had been con-tent to go along the beaten path traveled by the world at large, have escaped a great many things that we have had to contend with. Our existence in these valleys, our organization throughout these mountains, is entirely due to our love for truth and our determination to obey truth as fast as we could comprehend it. We have been in advance of the world in this respect. A great many truths that are now accapted by the world were taught by us and derided by the world in the first I have had occasion to call your at tention to the grand truth connected with the eternal character of matter. Joseph Smith revealed the truth that matter is indestructible; that world Was out of nothing, as was taught generally by the religious world, but that it was made out of pre-existent matter; that it could not be destroyed, but it was not unchangeable. That truth is now believed generally. Joseph Smith also re-vealed the truth that we are not all consigned after death to one heaven or to one hell, but that there are different deone hell, but that there are different de-grees of punishment and different de-grees of glory. This has been revealed with exceeding plainness to the world, and I am happy to believe that the world is gradually accepting this truth. Our Temples are built for a definite purpose. In the past the world has believed that when men died they were consigned to one of two places—they either went to heaven or to hell. The Lord has revealed to us, as we testify that this is not true; but that His children in the children is not true; but that His children is not true; dren, after they leave here, are still His children, and they can repent of their sins, and he relieved thereby from the punishment that follows disobedience. Having this knowledge, we build temples, wherein we baptize for the dead, believing that they are preached to by the servants of God in the spirit world In that state they have the opportunity for repentance, and are prepared to re-ceive the benefits of baptism, and the laying on of hands for the reception of the Holy Ghost. These are truths that the world does not believe. They are nevertheless true, and they will yet prove themselves to be true to the ac-ceptance of many thousands of people. What is there connected with baptism for the dead that should cause feelings of opposition? All the Christian world believe that Jesus died for us, and that through His vicarious atonement and sufferings we are redeemed. This prin-ciple of vicarious action lies at the very foundation of the whole Christian re-

Another principle that we believe by it having been revealed to s, is the pre-existence of spirits. The religious world believe that man's first existence commences at his birth in mortality. The idea that man lived before he came here is not seriously entertained by them. But Joseph Smith elved light from the Lord on this which has made it plain to us, and we as a people firmly believe it. This is a grand truth, and we have accepted it and incorporated it in our faith. that and other truths we have been willing to endure persecution. What is there unreasonable about it? Is there a Christian in the world who does not believe that the Savior existed before He came and took upon Himself mor-tality? Was He not God manifested in the flesh. Yet the Christian world are not prepared to receive the beautiful and grand truth that we all existed be fore we came here. Such a thought never entered their minds until the Prophet Joseph Smith received it as a truth from heaven. What is there inbefore we came here, any more than it is inconsistent to believe that Jesus existed before He came here? The Scriptures substantiate this truth. The Lord said to the Prophet Jeremiah, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

Then comes the doctrine of marriage. We have had revelations from God concerning marriage. We have been taught of the Lord that marriage can demnized on the earth for and for all eternity; and that when men and women receive their highest they will be joined together a husbands and wives. I need not dwell on all the features connected with this principle; you are familiar with them. I need not say to you how extensive our belief is in relation to this mat-ter; for it is a matter that has been agitated and talked about until it has become at least partially understood. I need only say that Latter-day Saints believe, because God has revealed it to them, that when wives and husbands are united. is an authority and a power that can unite them together for time and for all eternity. This is in line with the remark of Paul, where he says, 'neith is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord." They are united together; the posterity will be theirs, and they w elgn over them in eternity. One of the glories of eternity will consist of the fact that the family organization will be complete, and will be of such a char spread abroad until they shall become innumerable. This is another principle for which we have suffered.

I mention these to bring to your mind, my brethren and sisters, how much we have loved the truth, and how desirous we have been to obtain a knowledge of the truth. We have been willing to make sacrifices for the truth's sake. have not only prayed and talked with our lips concerning truth, but we have actually obeyed the truth as far as we have known it. For this reason we have been persecuted. The world seems to be anxious the we should confine ourselves to the truths already revealed But that is not our desire. progressing; we are seeking to compre-hend more truth. We are earnestly seeking to understand the laws that govern truth, and through continued obedience to those laws we hope after while to get back into the presence of our Father and God. We therefore love the truth, and we expect to suffer for the truth. All truth has not been revealed. Paul said once he knew a man who had as-cended into the third heaven, and he had heard things that were not awful for man to utter. That has been a good deal the case with us. Many things have been re-vealed to us which, if we had taught, men would have sought to kill us, so entirely opposed would they have been to the prevailing religious sentiment. This has been the case even with the small amount of truth which we have taught. We dare not tell all the truth we know, because it would not be lawthink we have been distinguished above | ful to utter some things that God has which has enabled us to progress to our present condition, sometimes gets us into trouble when we attempt to tell it. It arouses hatred and prejudice and the class that manifest this spirit of hatred are, strange to say, those who profess to be the followers of Jesus Christ and ministers of His word. They annot bear it. I do not know what they would have done with Paul if the had lived in his day and he had told them some of the truths which were "not lawful to utter." No doubt, they would have done with him as they did with the Prophet Joseph Smith. It was the truth he told that caused them to im. From the chapter read by Brother Calmage we learn that the people in that day sought to kill the Savior be-cause He told the truth; and they killed seph Smith because he told the world traths they would not receive. E ders, in going out to preach the Gos-pel, have to be exceedingly cautious lest they shall give strong meat to people who are only prepared to receive the milk of the word. If they give strong meat, persecution is raised immediate-serve eternal truths with which they are familiar, or the people would do with them as they did with Jesus and as they have done with all the Prophets who have declared truths which the people would not receive. The Savior had to caution His disciples on this very point, in the following language:

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Math. vii, 6.

New truths are unwelcome, and you have to lead mankind along by degrees to comprehend truth I feel to say again that there are no people upon the face of the earth that made so many sacrifices for the truth as they have done. God e truths to us, and the best test we have been able to give of the verity of these things has been to say to the people, "If you do not be-lieve what we say to you, if you have any doubt concerning it, go to the Father, in the name of Jesus, and ask Him, and we piedge you our word that if you will do this in sincerity and in the proper spirit, God will reveal it to you, and you will not be dependent our testimony alone.'

My brethren and sisters, we ought to prepare our hearts to receive the truth. Will there be more truth re-Why, yes, the heavens are full of truth, and the Lord desires to communicate it is to His children when we are ready to receive it. Things which, as I have said, are not lawful for man to utter at the present time will be revealed, and God will continue will be revealed, and God will continue giving revelation, if we will prepare our hearts for it. The Latter-day Saints obey law, and through their obedience to law they are rusing higher and higher. They occupy a higher plane today than any people I know of on the earth, because they obey higher law; and through a continued obedience to law they will continue to ascent until they will get hear futs the presence. they will get back into the presence of cur Father and God. What is it that makes angels pure and holy? What is it that makes heaven so glorious a place? What is it that a place? What is it that clothes the inhabitants of heaven with everything that the heart can imagine? It is obedience to law. They have obeyed one law after another, and will continue to obey law, until they shall have reached the highest glory of the Eternal. So it will be with us. If we reach that blest abode, it will e through obedience to the laws which pertain to exaltation and eternal glory one after another. The man who obeys law most perfectly, the woman who obeys law must perfectly, is near-

The Lord bless you, my brethren and sisters, and may He prepare us for everything that awaits us. Above all things, let our hearts be prepared to receive the truth and to live it. I always admired the remark of President Young when he sald, "I will give nine errors any time for one truth." I think we can all say this. We will give all our errors, all our mistaken notions and ideas, for the truth; and that is quite a life's labor, because we have many false ideas and traditions. God bless you, in the name of Jesus. THE POLL TAX QUESTION.

Ex-Street Supervisor Seddon Recommends Its

Annual Report of Street and Irrigation Department Filed with Mayor Thompson.

Ex-Supervisor of Streets and Irrigation S. M. T. Seddon, has submitted his report for last year to Mayor Thompson. The statement shows the total expenditures in street grading and sidewalk repairs, etc., to have been $59,311 .-68. The income was as follows: Reguhave done so much for truth as the Latter-day Saints have; who have lar allowance, twelve months at $2,000 a month, $24,000; special allowance, $11,-603.80; receipts from poll tax collections, $13,591.05 miscellaneous receipts $1,124.82; total 50.219.67: deficit, $8.992.01. The consolidation of the street and irrigation departments, which was effected two years ago, Mr. Seddon says, saved

Poli tax, Mr. Seddon says, is an unsatisfactory way of raising revenue for the street department and he recommends a repeal of the law providing for a collection of the same. He figures that it cost the city as much to collect the tax as is derived from it. Judgments were obtained in 2,000 cases, but it has been found impossible to collect any-thing on them. Mr. Seddon suggests that the expense of maintaining the streets be met by using the full pro-portion of taxes levied for only street purposes. He believes this plan would accomplish more than the same amount of poil tax labor, and give much better satisfaction.

COST OF STREET SPRINKLING. Street sprinkling is treated on in a separate article of the report. vice last year cost the city $17,397.15, exclusive of the twenty-six new sprinkling carts bought of Studebaker Bros. for $8,657.50. The saving over the preceeding year was $4,966.93, and the num ber of blocks sprinkled was $29, or 189 more than in 1898, under the contract

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Mr. Seddon concludes by making a number of recommendations. He recommends that the poll tax law be re-pealed; that South Temple, First South and Second South streets from Main street to the depots be macadamized that the Jordan and Salt Lake canal be widened in places; that the surplus canal be extended through Cohn's field the shores of the Great Salt Lake: that the City Creek flume from Fifth o Ninth West streets be repaired.

MILITARY ESCORT ON TRAIN

Lawton's Trumpeter Came from Manila to Sound "Taps" Over the Grave of the General.

A dispatch from San Francisco today (Feb. 1) says the remains of Major General H. W. Lawton, Major John A. Logan and Dr. J. L. COMMENCED TODAY.

Ticket Agents' Commissions Cut Off. Beginning With Today.

From this day henceforth railroad ticket agents in all parts of the United States must depend on their salaries for support, for the railroads have cut off all commissions which heretofore they have enjoyed. It is said there will be an immediate readjustment of the salaries of the agents to meet this new condition; but in most instances it is claimed by the traffic managers that the present salaries are sufficient. One of the members of the trunk line associa-tion was asked if any agents had re-signed in consequence of the sweeping order of January 1st. "Not one," he said, "and there won't be one resignation. The agents get good salaries and these commissions merely were extra compensation. In fact, many of them constituted an underhanded system of rate discrimination. The poorest companies, in order to get business, allowed agents the heaviest commissions and many agents would di-vide the commissions with the passengers and send them over an inferior and circuitous route, to their own discomfort and detriment."

"The agents have no one but themselves to blame for this." said a New York manager today. "They abused their opportunities. Commissions ranged from 5 to 15 per cent. Such comranged from 8 to 1s per cent. Such com-missions were a drain on the treasuries of the companies. They amounted to millions of Jollars in a year. Western roads alone will save $500,000 a year."

Decision Came After Death.

An interesting circumstance connected with the verdict, rendered by the United States circuit court of appeals in the case of Colonel Albert H. King, of Brooklyn, against the Pullman Palace Car Co., was that he did not live to learn of his victory, news of the deciston reaching the family last Tues day, one hour before his burial. Col King came of good lighting stock, being a lineal descendant of Governor Bradford of Massachusetts. The decision in question establishes an important point. It affirms the liability of a sleeping car company for ejecting a passen-ger who, while entitled to ride on the car, carries a ticket issued by a railroad other than the one on which he is trav-

Contest to Take Place Tonight at Chicago-McGovern the Pavorite

Not Much Betting.

Chicago, Feb. 1 .- Terry McGovern of Brooklyn and Eddie Santry of Chicago, rival claimants of the title of featherweight champion of the world, will struggle for supremacy in a six-round contest in this city tonight. The championship can hardly hinge upon the resuit of the short battle, but a knockout inside the limit would demonstrate superiority. Certainly if McGovern should stop Santry the local man would be placed along with the Easterner's other

As fur as condition is concerned, Santry may have an advantage over the Brooklynite. No fighter ever trained more carefully than the local man. He has worked steadily for almost two months to fit himself for tonight's struggle. McGovern, a model athlete in his habits, is always in good condition, but he has had twenty-four hours of railroad travel after a ring contest Monday night at Baltimore.
The arrival of McGovern in this city last evening increased the interest in the big battle to be fought tonight. With both parties confident, the con-test of tonight should result in some brisk betting. Many of the local betters are a trifle at a loss as to how to place their money. Bets have been made at 2 to 1 that McGovern will get the decision, while one sporting man has $5,000 to bet at odds of 2 to 3 that Santry will stay the limit. A number of smaller bets at evens on the same proposition have been registered and it seems likely that many wagers of dif-ferent characters will be made at the ringside.

At Tattersalls, where the fight will take place, the management has made thorough preparations for the comfort of the crowd, which will undoubtedly be a record-breaking one. Special trains have been chartered from nearby towns, while a contingent of St. Louis sporting men will leave this morning. Other parties are coming from Elkhart, Springfield, Des Moines, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Muscatine, Davenport and a number of other points.

The Best Way

To judge of the merits of an wticle is by the sale it has. If gives satisfaction you come! again for it. We believed we had a good thing in our Witch. hazel Cream, for chapped hank or rough skin, but we know it now, and we judge solely by the number of bottles you take from here. One great point in its favor is, you can put on your gloves immediately after using it, as it does not leave the hands sticky like most preparation. Then we put it up in extra large
