ODGEN SOCIAL NEWS.

The most elaborate banquet and reception that has taken place in Ogden for some time past occurred last Tuesday evening, when the Hon. David Eccles was banqueted at the parlors of the Weber club. The affair was arranged in honor of Mr. Eccles by a number of his business associates, who have been connected with him in his business deals in this city, which have been of a vast benefit to the public in general.

The most important event of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Eccles of an elaborate French clock, in mahogany case with cathedral chiming, which cost $400. Hon. Fred J. Kiesel made the presentation speech, which was responded to very feelingly by Mr. Eccles. After the presentation the club adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous menu was served, which lasted over two hours. During the serving of the repast toasts were given by a number of the gentlemen present. The remainder of the evening was very delightfully spent at music and dancing.

The club parlors and dining room were elaborately decorated for the occasion by Florist F. J. Henderson, with cut flowers, evergreens, potted plants, palms, etc., making a most beautiful effect. The guests departed at an early morning hour, wishing Mr. Eccles every success in life.

One of the leading social events of the week took place Wednesday, when Miss Cecilia Halgren was married to Mr. Parley M. Parry, at the Salt Lake Temple. The happy young couple returned to Ogden Thursday, and during the evening they were given a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Parley T. Wright, where were present only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends. A sumptuous wedding supper was served, and the evening was spent with music.

The bride and groom are both very popular and highly esteemed in the city. The bride is the daughter of the late A. A. Holgren and well known in musical and society circles. The groom is the son of Hon. Caleb Parry, of Maryland, and has been in the insurance business in this city for some time past. Mr. and Mrs. Parry will make their home in Ogden for the present, but may remove to Salt Lake City to reside.

Mrs. W. H. West celebrated her birthday Thursday, Oct. 9. During the evening a number of her friends called at the residence on Grant avenue, and spent a few enjoyable hours at cards, music and other pleasures, after which a bounteous repast was served, and the guests departed wishing the estimable lady many happy returns of the day. The invited guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Riser, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bevel, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Corry, Mr. and Mrs. Castello, Mesdames Laughrey, Hayt, Trousdale, Horsh, Misses David Laughrey, Lois Wright, Messrs. Joseph Horsh, James Brewington, Van Waters, Winters, and Carter.

Mrs. J. P. Kullid, of Fort Bridger, Wyoming, is visiting in Ogden with friends.

John A. G. Horn has gone to California on an extended pleasure and business trip.

The entertainment given in the Fifth ward amusement hall Wednesday evening by the Primary department of the Sunday school, was a grand success. The little folks took their parts well and are deserving of much credit.

Miss Gertrude Biddle, one of Ogden's charming young ladies, and Mr. Warren S. Williams, a promising young merchant of Rock Springs, Wyoming, were married last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, No. 122 West Thirtieth street, Patriarch George W. Larkin Sr., officiating in the marriage ceremony.

There were present the relatives of the contracting parties, and a number of friends. After the wedding, guests extended congratulations, then were ushered into the dining room, where a bounteous spread was served.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of William A. Biddle, the popular Southern Pacific engineer. She wore a beautiful wedding gown. The groom is one of Rock Springs's most highly esteemed young men. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will go to Rock Springs in a few days, where they will make their future home.

The Ogden tabernacle choir is making preparations for a grand concert and ball to be given in the latter part of the month. The choir has prepared a number of very pleasing musical numbers that will be rendered the early part of the evening after which the remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing. The choir is in need of funds with which to pay for some new music, and the concert and ball should draw a large crowd. The admission to both will be 50 cents per couple.

The formal opening of Prof. Couley's dancing academy took place Tuesday evening, when the Elks' lodge had their grand ball at the most beautiful hall in the city. The affair was a grand social success. Many beautiful new costumes were worn by the ladies present and Ford's enlarged orchestra furnished some very sweet music, to which

CLUB CHAT

The Utah Society Daughters of the Revolution held their regular meeting on Thursday, the regent presiding. Twenty-one members and several guests were present. They were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Myra Y. Rosenthal, 25 North State street. The rooms were decorated with flags, and the color scheme of the society was carried out in huge yellow chrysanthemums and marguerites in blue vases. Mrs. Caroline Y. Cannon's excellent patriotic paper was read by her daughter, Mrs. Carol Cannon, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Clara Benedict and Mesdames Dougall, Beattie and Spencer. The next meeting will be held on Nov. 16, at Mrs. C. Y. Cannon's home, Cannon ward.

The Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet next Friday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Emily Y. Clawson on Fifth East street.

The Reviewers will meet next Monday, and the session will deal with federation topics.

At next Tuesday's meeting of the Woman's club, the subject will be the Pepin Dynasty and the Decay of the Carolingians by Mrs. Keimley.

The ninth annual convention of the Utah Federation of Women's clubs will be held at the Methodist church, Ogden, on Oct. 23, 30 and 31. There will be eight regular sessions supplemented by two receptions and a drive and visit to the School for the Deaf and Blind. The local committee, the committee on program, and the executive board of the U. F. W. C. have spared no effort to make this convention the best in the history of club endeavor. The transportation committee has secured a general rate of one and one-fifth fare on all railway lines within the state. Moreover, the hospitable women of Ogden are steadily working to perfect every detail that will add to the pleasure of the occasion. The program is running over with good things. The topics for discussion along educational, industrial, art and literary lines are of exceeding interest not only to club women, but to men and women generally. The musical program in charge of Mrs. George C. Bout and special music session under the supervision of Mrs. William A. Nelson should of themselves insure your presence. There will be no admission asked for the evening, nor for any session, and none can afford to miss the brilliant evenings scheduled on the program. Clubs desiring membership and representation will make written application, accompanied by their constitution, to the state organizer, Mrs. R. T. Hillard, 567 Twenty-sixth street, Ogden. The courtesies of the floor will be extended to both home and visiting club members and it is hoped thereby to insure a full and free discussion upon all questions presented. The success of the local club movement, as well as the trend of society and all that makes for social uplift, rests upon the personal effort of the women of Utah. Since fellowship, inspiration, and corps d'esprit depend so largely upon members and interest, we earnestly request that club presidents urge all members to attend this convention. Let every club woman consider herself a committee of one to interest the representative citizens of her community in the work of our clubs and the coming convention. Let it be understood that the open sesame is extended to all persons, regardless of club affiliation. With such a union of individual effort it will be
