Chris Diehi has donated 50 volumes to the library of the Harmonie Singverein of this city. The donor sent a congratu-latory letter to the society with the gift. The dentists of this city will banquet at the Commercial club July 16 next, and effect an organization at that time. The idea is to run the fakirs and tooth carpenters who pose as dental artists, out of town, and conduct the business of the profession on a strictly ethical basis.

Last evening Officer Nick Gulbransen arrested a young man named Frank Bolles on the charge of forgery. It is aleged that on Wednesday evening the young man farged a check for fis and asked it at Shopiro's pawn shop on Second South street.

The refusal of a woman to ride to the county jail in the patrol wagon last night caused a little scene on the corner of Second South and East Temple streets. The woman, whose name is Mrs. S. Manstead, was arrested at Calder's Purk by Deputy sheriff Jake Hempel for creating a disturbance and was brought in on the car. When they alighted at the abovenamed corner, the officer wanted the woman to ride in the patrol wagon. She refused and commenced pleading with the officer to be allowed to walk. Quite a crowd was attracted and through interference from the crowd, the officer was prevailed upon to let the prisoner walk.

ARE YOU OPEN TO ARE YOU OPEN TO REASON?

If my former advertisements have not convinced you of the advantage of buying or selling real estate through my agency, then the fault lies in the advertising and not in my system of doing business. My lists are as complete as any in the city and my method of specializing residence property offered for sale on the installment plan, makes it easier for small capitalists to trade with me. Another feature of my business that has assisted many persons in securing homes that please them is my house building department. I constantly employ a trained architect and superintendent, not a man whose only quality is to draw pretty protures, but a practical building expert, who knows how to design a house combining elegance in exterior appearance, solidity of construction and absolute convenience in the interior. I am now building 9 built-to-order houses, which proves how successful the home-building feature of my business is. If you own a lot and want it improved with a home or rentable imprevements, I am the man to see. I'll make you a loan to build and you can pay the money back in small monthly payments.

If you own vacant city property come in If you own vacant city property come ir

If you own vacant city property come in and see me about improving it. Rents are high and vacant land when well improved, brings a splendid income. If you are baying rent, stop and reflect, "Whose Roof is Over Your Head?" If you are a man of action, you will not hesitate, but investigate my home-selling and home-building plans.
