THANKSGIVING DAY

To Friends and Relations,
Via the Oregon Short Line, Nov. 20th. Found the trip only half as pleasant and entertainment in the evening.

The three-year-old son of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, is suffering from attacks of rheumatism. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of China Root and other Chinese herbs in a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a man of that place and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases, and when his son was ready to recover he called on me, and sent him the roots of the Chinese herb. The boy was never any difficulty between himself and his mother, and recovered his health.

Mrs. Johnson says her doctor, Dr.

McBride, of Boston, has prescribed a special diet for the child, and she has been taking it with great success.

The mass conventions for the nomination of candidates for board of education will be held in the various wards this evening as follows:

A Salt Lake Girl Blinded.

J. H. Lippincott, a teacher and wife Professor Blimp, in a Missouri. The difference in their religious creeds caused trouble to the family and students. In his testimony in support of his wife the teacher declared, "I don't care what you say, I am a Christian." This caused much trouble to the school, and when asked him and others what he had done, he said, "I have never been a better man in my life than I am now."

He was married to Miss Anna B. Garrison, a teacher, and they were married in Salt Lake City on September 12, 1886. They have six present living children in Utah, three of whom are blind.
