

MORTENSEN WILL NOT DIE OCT. 17

Another Long Delay in Famous Murder Case—Order Made In Judge Morse's Court This Morning Staying Prisoner's Execution for Several Months.

According to an order made by Judge Morse this morning Peter Mortensen will not be shot on October 17, the date heretofore set by the court for the convicted man to pay the penalty of death for the murder of James R. Hay, which occurred on the night of December 16, 1901. The date of execution is postponed until after the case has been passed upon by the supreme court.

Attorney Bernard Stewart appeared before the court this morning and asked Judge Morse to sign a certificate of probable cause for appeal to the supreme court, which he did. The certificate relates in substance that as it appears that there is probable cause for an appeal to the supreme court in the case of the State of Utah vs. Peter Mortensen, that the date of execution of defendant, heretofore fixed as

THE TELEPHONE STRIKE.

Federation of Labor Attempting to Adjust the Matter.

The arbitration committee of the Utah Federation of Labor waited on General Manager D. S. Murray of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company yesterday afternoon, with a view to bringing about a restoration of amicable relations between the company and the striking linemen. The committee recommended granting the men the raise in wages asked for, viz., $3.25 per day for the men, and $3.00 per day for the sub-bosses, recognition of the union, and restoration of the strikers. Mr. Murray declined to grant the request, and the matter ended there, for the present at least. It is claimed that there will be a strike of the linemen along the system, and that men are out at Shoshone, Mt. Pleasant, Afton, Wyo., and Great Falls, Mont. But the company officials say that the few men who went out at Shoshone have already been replaced and the new gang will complete the remaining five miles yet unfinished. Also, at Afton, it is stated that the foreman was the only one to go out, and the work at Mt. Pleasant was finished a few days ago, and that at Great Falls, only one or two out. The company claims to have no difficulty in replacing the men who have left. But the men who are out claim that they will have their fellow workmen with them all along the line at an early date.

The effort was futile, however, as the registration books were brought in and none were allowed to participate save those who were duly enrolled on said books.

PARTY EMBLEM ADOPTED.

Republicans Will Don the Eagle and the Beehive as of Yore.

Chairman Anderson of the Republican state committee announced this afternoon that the committee had agreed upon a party emblem, the eagle and the beehive, the same as that used during the last campaign. With the eagle screaming for victory, and the bees within the beehive working for it, the committee thinks there is no reason why such should not be achieved. Meanwhile the Democratic rooster grows.

MRS. SHOUSE

QUITE WILLING.

Glad to be Rid of Her Erring Husband, John.

JUDGE GRANTS DIVORCE.

Rose Boyles Gets a Decree of Separation—Suit to Quiet Title Decided in Court Matters.

John Shouse, the coachman who several months ago figured in a sensational episode in which he induced a young lady in this city to marry him, he at the time having a wife and two children residing in Omaha, was today granted a divorce from Jennie R. Shouse, his Omaha wife, by Judge Hall, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Plaintiff alleged that his wife called him vile names and abused him in such a manner that he was unable to live with her longer.

At the hearing of the case Attorney Will F. Wanless made the following statement on behalf of Mrs. Shouse: "The defendant in this case desired me to state that she is unwilling to live with the plaintiff John Shouse any longer, that she wishes to have the care of the two children which she now has, and she has written that she would be glad to be rid of the plaintiff."

The court awarded Mrs. Shouse the custody of the two children and ordered plaintiff to pay her $20 per month for their support.

DECREE FOR PLAINTIFF.

Quiet Title to 21 Pieces of Valuable Real Estate.

Judge Hall today rendered a decree, in favor of plaintiff in the case of Eugene Palmer et al vs Ida M. Palmer, quieting plaintiff's title to about 21 pieces of real estate in this city valued at $35,000.

Plaintiff is the heirs to the estate of W. D. Palmer, deceased, who claims the property in litigation by right of such heirship. Defendant is a former wife of defendant residing in Georgia. It appeared from the evidence that Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, a number of years before the former's death, signed an agreement of separation wherein she waived all of her dower rights whatever.

After Mr. Palmer's death she put in a claim for one-third of the estate by reason of being the alleged lawful widow of the deceased. The court decided against her and rendered judgment quieting the title of plaintiffs to the property in controversy.

THESE CASES DISMISSED.

In Judge Stewart's court the following cases were dismissed this morning upon motion of the attorneys in the same.

Heaman Loggert vs N. M. Erickson; E. W. Wilson et al vs D. A. Holmes; and F. C. Standfast vs G. E. Garrett.

Max Peters' Estate.

Mrs. Anna Peters was today appointed administratrix of the estate of Max A. Peters, deceased, who was shot and killed by J. W. McCullin recently. Judge Hall fixed her bond at $5,000.

Wife Gets Divorce.

Judge Hall today granted Rose Boyles a divorce from her husband, Frank Boyles, on the ground of failure to support. Plaintiff was restored to her maiden name, that of Rose Griffiths.

COURT NOTES.

Judge Stewart yesterday afternoon submitted a motion to strike out certain parts of defendant's answer in the case of D. A. Lindsay vs St. Mark's hospital and Drs. Pinkerton and Worthington. The parts stricken related to the plaintiff's alleged desire to prosecute the case and had ordered the attorney to dismiss it but he refused to do so and continued to prosecute the case for his own private interests.

During the arguments on the motion two weeks ago Judge Higgins, attorney for plaintiff, referred to the defendants, came very near having a personal encounter, the lie being passed and order restored only by the court ordering both attorneys to retract their statements.

INTERESTING RELICS.

Phenecr Clawson has two valuable historical reminiscences of President William Young. One is the following order in President Young's own handwriting: "G. S. L. City, Sept. 3, 1855. 'Br. W. Wilcox, let Joseph W. Young have 2 cords of slabs, taken as they come from the saw mill, I want them myself.' BIGHAM YOUNG."

Mr. Clawson has this order framed and under glass, to preserve it. The other relic is a L. D. S. hymn, dated 1851, and with President Young's autograph written on the fly leaf. The ink is fading, but as yet the signature is distinct, and the bold, free hand of the writer is readily recognized.

DAMAGE SUIT FILED.

INSURANCE CHANGE.

Agency Transferred From E. H. Peirce to Ensign, Elder and Cartwright.

Local insurance circles are interested in learning of the transfer of agency of the Williamsburg City and the Westchester Fire Insurance companies from E. H. Peirce to Ensign, Elder & Cartwright of this city. Mr. Peirce, when asked today relative to the change, stated he had nothing to say beyond that it was a business affair, and he had virtually quit the two companies six weeks ago. The new agents also declined to say anything for publication, but it is understood in insurance circles that differences with Mr. Peirce as to business methods was the occasion of the transfer.

Official notice of the transfer appears in the advertising columns of this issue.

AMUSEMENTS.

The biggest crowd which the Grand theater has had in attendance since the opening of the present season assembled last night to greet Richards and Pringle's Minstrels. The show is one that has been given many times in Salt Lake and as far as its merits go it remains somewhat about the status quo. The chorus of organization in the first part is good, the hoop rolling excellent (charring the final feat which was a complete "fall down"), the musical team strong, and other features were up to the mark, but some of the solo singing was not specially brilliant and the work of the monologue artist was deadly. It cannot be too soon submitted to the axe.

The band and well themselves hoarse with enthusiasm and will without doubt be out in strong numbers for the remainder of the engagement.

The next attraction at the Theater will be West's Minstrels, headed by Billy Van.

PAYETTE VALLEY, IDAHO.

NEW WARDS ORGANIZED.

Special Correspondence.

Payette Valley, Idaho, Sept. 14.—We are having very much weather just now, caused by forest and prairie fires in Oregon. Threshing is in full blast and third crop of lucern will soon be ready for cutting.

On Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 13 and 14, we had the pleasure of a visit from Presidents F. S. Bramwell and L. J. Jordan, and other Union state officers of the various associations, who came for the purpose of organizing two new wards to be known as the Bramwell and Emmett wards, thus making 10 wards in the Union state of Zion.

BARMWELL WARD.

On Saturday a ballot was taken and the following brethren were chosen as the Bishopric of the Barmwell ward: Hans Jacob Jeppson as Bishop, William Joseph Orchard and William Joseph Hughes as counselors.

Wilford E. Anderson was chosen as Bishop, with David Nelson and George A. Smith as counselors.

John B. Randall as superintendent of Sunday school, E. D. Smith and Ephraim Sorenson assistants.

Rosa Nelson, president of Relief society with Mary Tucker and Martha Anderson as counselors.

John A. West, home missionary.

Margaret M. Casper, president of the primary association, with Mrs. D. D. Randall and Ida Marchant as counselors.

John A. West, home missionary.

With our organizations thus far completed we hope to press onward and upward, that our friends who are not of us seeing our good works may glorify our Father in heaven. We are hoping brethren and sisters gave us good instructions and a goodly spirit prevailed in all our meetings. Our visitors were much surprised at seeing our prospects valley and its facilities and predicted that we should become a mighty people in this part of the Lord's vineyard.

Indian Valley has had a ward organized recently, making three wards in western Idaho; and surely Zion is growing.

Bramwell ward has the first district school organized by our people in this valley. The school is a sturdy building as soon as our trustees are appointed by the county superintendent. The following gentlemen have been nominated as trustees: Wm. J. Hughes, Hans J. Jeppson and Edith Bishop.

DIFFICULTY IN CONCLUDING.

"Serious things make me want to laugh sometimes," remarked a genial elderly gentleman, and I simply cannot help the feeling, although, of course, I restrain the manifestation. Traveling in the country, many years ago, I was belated and had to ask to stay all night at a lowly farm house. Not wanting to impose any restraint on the good people, and wishing to be one of them in the true sense, I refrained from mentioning that I was a clergyman.

"After our good homely supper, the mother, daughter and 15-year-old boy grew sleepy almost immediately, and I suggested that we go to bed early as I was tired and weary. The good woman had previously explained that her husband had gone away for several days to see his mother, who was sick. My proposal to retire was well received, and the good woman said: "Stranger, we kind of plous out here in the country, and I always tell my people 'fore we go to bed. Sonny, as yer paw ain't here, I reckon you'll hev ter lead in prayer'."

"We had a most surprising prayer. It was so simple, so fervent and direct that it went to my heart. But he didn't stop; he prayed, and prayed, and prayed, and over and over again the earnest supplications which had so impressed me. Finally his mother murmured in an undertone: "Sonny, ain't y' prayed high long enough?"

"The boy's answer was as startling to me as his uncommon gift in prayer had been. "Maw, he said, 'I'm jes' ev'ry bit as tired as you are, but I don't know how ter bid 'em 'blessed thing up.'"

BUSINESS NOTES.

Dealers say the local meat situation could hardly be bettered, as the beef and mutton are in such fine shape that it is not necessary now to import any from the east.

A dozen men are digging on the enlarged foundation trenches of the Federal building, and the concrete will be poured in immediately. Contractor Canning has had trouble in getting all the cement he wants owing to the scarcity, but he has a good supply on hand.

Grain handlers report the Utah wheat crop as coming into the market in good quantity and in good condition and very little of it as going out of the country compared with the exports of previous years. The growers are disposing of their wheat as occasion calls for it, and selling the surplus remaining over and above their storage capacity.

The well known fur house of Mehehy has decided to open a branch store, and commencing Monday next the name of Mehehy will be placed over the building at 116 south Main street. The big store at the corner of Main and Second streets yesterday was crowded with visitors who came to inspect the handsome life of goods just brought from Paris and London by Mrs. Glos, the manager of the institution. Excessive enthusiasm was heard on all hands as the display is undoubtedly the handsomest ever exhibited here. Each lady who attended the opening yesterday received a beautiful souvenir in the shape of a hat pin.

After St. Louis Broomsticks.

St. Louis, Sept. 19.—At the instance of Circuit Attorney Folk, subpoenas have been issued for Delegate Charles L. Gheraty, who is wanted to give testimony as to the whereabouts of Speaker Charles F. Kelly of the house of delegates, indicted on several counts, charging bribery and perjury. Gheraty is one of Kelly's closest friends, and was speaker pro tem of the house in the brief period while Kelly was speaker. Like Kelly, he is under indictment for misconduct in office, the charge being that he received heavy bribes to the city in violation of charter provisions.

Delegate John J. Burke of the Sixteenth ward, is also subpoenaed to appear at today's session of the grand jury. He has seen Kelly several times since the authorities last saw the fugitive.

Gov. Dockery, in conversation with Mr. Folk today over the long distance telephone, authorized that official to offer rewards of $300 each for the arrest and return of Delegate Charles E. Kelly and former Delegates Emilio Hartman, Adolph Madera, "Kid" Sheridan and Louis Leach and John Lechmann, indicted for bribery and perjury.

In addition to the reward of $500 which had already been offered for Kelly, the governor's offer will make it worth $800 to anyone to catch the fugitive delegate from the Twentieth ward, whose testimony against the givers of the $47,500 lighting bribe is desired.
