

CARNEGIE MAKES
GREAT WITNESSPraises Schwab and Suggests Congress Should Give Him Vote of Thanks.

HITS JUDGE GARY VERY HARD.

Should Not Place Any Real Value On Testimony of Interested Parties.Says Judge Is Like Monkey Who Desired Chestnuts, but Wanted Cat to Pull Them Out of Fire.Washington, Dec. 21.—Andrew Carnegie, whose published views on the tariff question caused considerable comment, took the stand before the house ways and means committee today.The laird of Skibo castle testified in support of the statements that he made in his magazine article declaring that the facts show that the steel industry needs no protection. Mr. Carnegie proved the most interesting witness who has appeared before the committee, interspersing his testimony with humorous and epigrammatic remarks.Praising the genius of Charles M.
Schwab, Mr. Carnegie suggested that Congress should extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Schwab for his work in improving the methods of steel making in this country."I never met his equal," said Mr.
Carnegie in speaking of Mr. Schwab, and when we were partners we were a great team."That is very apparent," remarked Chairman Payne.
Speaking of the testimony of Judge Gary before the committee, Carnegie said:"You should not place any real value on the testimony of interested parties.
Judge Gary said that the United States Steel corporation could stand for reduction in the tariff on steel, but that the smaller steel manufacturers could not survive with lowered duties. That is like one of Esop's fables. Judge Gary is like the monkey who desired chestnuts, but wanted the cat to pull them out of the fire."The crowded room frequently rang with peals of laughter at the quips of Mr. Carnegie, who seemed to be in splendid shape for the questions asked by Representatives Dalzell and Payne.Mr. Carnegie was not willing to deal in figures. "The more figures you get, the more you will be befogged. I don't care by figures given by interested parties," he said at another point in his testimony. "I judge by results." The former steel magnate said that Judge Gary had issued an annual statement showing that the United States Steel corporation had made a profit of $158,000,000, which he said equaled a profit of $15.50 a ton on all steel produced.Mr. Carnegie avoided direct replies to questions to whether the cost of producing steel at the present time as given by Judge Gary and Mr.
Schwab was correct. Mr. Carnegie estimated that the present cost is based on entirely different ideals than his estimate on the cost in 1899.He also said that if the figures given by former witnesses were absolutely correct, steel stock would be selling below par.

NEGRO ROBBER GOT AWAY.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—A negro robber thrust his hand through an opening in a South Side station this morning, snatched about $30 in money and fled. The agent sounded a burglar alarm, which was promptly answered by a policeman who roused the neighborhood by a volley of shots but failed to stop the fugitive.

EDWARD HINES

PREDICTS CHEAPER LUMBER

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Edward Hines, newly elected president of the Virginia & Rainy Lake Lumber company, the largest combine in the world of its kind, predicts cheaper lumber in a new era in its production as a result of the new organization."It is our intention to cheapen the cost of manufacturing and, of course, to cheapen the cost to consumers proportionately," says Mr. Hines. "We will not do this, however, at the expense of the country by reckless or wasteful lumbering methods."
"We will work in harmony with the forestry departments of the United States and Canada, and we hope to make money out of the things that they will ask us to do. For instance, we will utilize all the timber on our ground we can cut over. We will not simply pick out the choice trees, leaving dead wood and brush to feed forest fires. We will clear the land so that instead of being a worthless wilderness it will be a valuable place for raising farm products.""We are also hoping that a further reduction may be made in the cost of lumber to American consumers by the taking off of the state duty on the greater part of our land in Canada and this would enable us to bring the Canadian lumber into the United States, a thing that the tariff practically prohibits now."

THE STAGE DOOR "JOHNNY"

N. Y. Legislature to Be Urged to Legislate Against Him.New York, Dec. 21.—Suppression by state legislation of the stage door "johnny" so familiar in this city, will be urged again in the New York legislature this year by a local assemblyman who is prepared to bring it up before the state lawmakers for passage.
"All made patrons of a theater, according to the bill, must register if they desire to communicate with an actress. In doing so they must give their full name and address and state whether married or single. False registration is to be made punishable by fine or imprisonment."XMAS NEWS RUSH UNPRECEDENTEDUsual Lively Scenes Among the "News" Boys on the Streets.

THE EDITION SCORES HEAVILY

Graceful Words of Commendation From "News" Contemporaries.Only once a year does Salt Lake see such street scenes as these which mark the appearance of the Christmas News, and the usual sights were in evidence Saturday.For several hours prior to the appearance of the paper at noon, the alley at the entrance to the circulation department of the "News" was filled by a mob of youngsters, crowding, pushing and yelling in an endeavor to get first to the serving counter of the big annual number. It became necessary to place several large men among the crowd in order to prevent accidents to the little shavers, and when finally the doors opened and the rush for papers took place, the jam was handled without casualty.The sale of the holiday number of the "News" was unprecedented this year.
A force of 15 men was kept busy as they could be from 12 o'clock noon until 5 o'clock in the evening wrapping up copies of the paper to be sold in form ready to mail. The city circulator had 10 men helping him in supplying the newsboys and carriers all the afternoon and a big mob sled went down toward the guards to supply the Murray demand. When evening came it was found that the sales of all former years had been far exceeded by the run on this year's Christmas News.In the process of the production of the big paper there was not an accident or untoward incident to record.
Every department engaged in its production, from the mechanical on the fourth floor to the editorial on the first floor, worked smoothly during the whole time, and the issue was printed and delivered to the thousand of buyers in a manner highly satisfactory to the managers of the paper and the people who produced it. This unprecedented demand for the Chris-mas News continued all through today, and the entire issue will be exhausted before the end of the week. The second edition of the paper is being printed and the mail are unprecedently heavy.
Complimentary notices of appreciation of the Christmas number of the Deseret News have appeared in all the morning papers of this city. Of this issue the Tribune has the following to say in its Sunday issue:Last evening the Deseret News came out with its usual big Christmas edition, this issue numbering 96 pages, with handsome colored cover, and being presented in the most excellent artistic style of the "News." It embraces a very large collection of good material, presenting a comprehensive record of the progress of this state and of Idaho in various directions. The issue is a creditable one to that paper, and will be of much usefulness to the public.
The "News" has made many announcements of what this Christmas issue will contain, and so far as we can see it has fairly fulfilled them all.

The Herald says:

The annual Christmas number of the Deseret News, published Saturday, is one of the best anniversary numbers of a daily paper ever published in Salt Lake. It contains eighty pages of features, nearly all of which are of high quality, and which are written in readable style.The cover page of the paper is representative of the annual G. A. R. encampment to be held in Salt Lake next summer. The design is drawn by Ellis and ranks with his best work.
The mechanical detail of the paper is almost perfect. The composition, presswork and engravings are excellent. The paper is illustrated with views taken in different parts of Utah and Idaho, and with portraits of the leading men of the two states.From the Republican of Sunday, the following is taken:Beautifully printed, profusely illustrated and with a mechanical make-up of a high standard of excellence, the Christmas number of the Deseret News yesterday made its appearance on the streets of the city.The edition is fully up to that of previous years, and in some respects it is better. Its cuts and half-tones are splendidly reproduced and contained in its reading matter are many interesting and timely articles on the state and city and the development of each.Salt Lake's mining exchange is well handled by W. H. Tibbals, Mayor John S. Bransford writes entertainingly of Salt Lake's destiny, while the many reviews of the city's growth in various lines are all well written and of well worth reading. All in all the number is a credit to its publishers and a benefit and a boost to Salt Lake.

GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

BEFORE MODERN JEWS

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Three great opportunities are before the modern Jews, according to Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, the obtaining of international peace, the settlement of the questions between labor and capital, and the re-adapting of religion to the needs of the times."If all the Jews of all nations should be treated as Jews for international peace, how far away would it be?" he asked.
Regarding the labor question, he says:"The Jew is the barometer of civilization. Show me how the Jew is treated in any community and I will tell you the state of civilization of that community. If it could be said there is no Jewish house of commerce wherever, in excess of the economic demands of the day, our influence would be materially felt in settling the controversy between labor and capital. Some Jews already take this advanced ground, let others follow."

EVA FAY'S HUSBAND

COMMITTS SUICIDE

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 21.—John T. Fay, husband of Eva Fay, a "wonder worker," who has been appearing at a local theater, committed suicide at his hotel yesterday by shooting himself in the mouth, when they were next to play. Fay had just completed her engagement in this city and the luggage of husband and wife was checked to Detroit, where they were next to play. Fay had made no mention of feelings that might lead him to suicide, but after eating dinner with his wife went to his room and fired the shot that ended his life.

CHAS. P. TAIT'S CAMPAIGN.

He Goes to Columbus, O., to Open

Headquarters in Sensational Fight.
Cincinnati, Dec. 21.—Charles P. Tait left today for Columbus to open headquarters for Columbus to open headquarters for the office of United States senator in succession to Senator For-estor. Mr. Tait declared that there is no truth in the stories that President Roosevelt is opposed to his candidacy and that the latter's denial of taking part in the contest should be accepted as final.
He would not speak about the reported opposition of the United States government to his candidacy, but said that also a candidate for the United States senatorship.State and County Officers Declare

In the Cause of Civic Morality.The proposed stockade for the red assumed such important proportions respecting the dignity and well being of the people, in general, that Gov-for a meeting in his office for the discussion of the matter, with the result that the opposition to the plan to officially recognize the shameful traffic of fallen women, received more serious opposition in an official, concerted expression than has hitherto prevailed.Those present at the meeting were Governor Cutler, Governor-elect Spry, County Commissioners Mackey, Cosgriff and Clinton, and Commissioner-elect Burton, Sheriff Emery and Sheriff-elect Sharp. Assistant County Attorney Farnsworth and County Attorney-elect Lyon, A. G. Glaue, of the board of education, Judge Gowans of the juvenile court, Chief Probation Officer Brown and Dr. Buxton of the Christian church.Without exception the sense of the meeting as expressed by all those present, during the discussion of the subject, and in the unanimous adoption of the following resolution, was against the establishment of the red light district on the west side, or anywhere else, without compromise.

Last About Five Days

Flushing, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Evidence that Thornton J. Hains had expressed regret for the act of Capt. Hains in shooting William E. Annis, and that he had been endeavoring for some time to prevent the killing was drawn on cross-examination from Charles Roberts, a member of the Buyside yacht club, called to the witness stand as one of the principal witnesses for the state in the trial of Hains as a participant. Capt. Peter Hains, Jr., his brother, in the slaying of Annis."No one is more sorry than I am. I have been trying to prevent this thing for some time," was the statement developed from Mr. Roberts, upon which Hains' counsel will rely to a large measure in the defense of the story written. The witness told a clear story of the shooting, supplying many of the details of the killing not testified to by previous witnesses. Roberts said that Thornton Hains had pointed his revolver at him while the shooting was in progress and threatened his life. The revolver of the Hains brothers were placed in evidence today.That Thornton Hains was armed in
