

Kaighn Case Again in Court.

Judge Morse Heats Arguments Today On Motion For New Trial—Contention That Verdict Was Contrary To Law and Evidence—Taken Under Adversement Till Monday at 2 O'clock.

Judge Morse today heard the arguments of counsel for the defense and state on the motion for a new trial in the case of the State of Utah vs. Merrill M. Kaighn, who was convicted of voluntary manslaughter on Sept. 27, 1902, for the killing of Willard S. Haynes in the Knutsford hotel on Nov. 26, 1901, and took the matter under advisement until Monday, Nov. 10, at 2 o'clock p. m. He also continued the time for passing sentence to the same date.

Boy Kaighn was brought into court by Deputy Sheriff Raleigh and appeared about the same as usual with the exception that he was rather pale. His father, step-mother and Miss Coates were present at the proceedings today, and during the arguments, the women gave vent to their feelings by shedding tears at frequent intervals.

GROUNDS FOR TRIAL.

The grounds for a new trial urged by the defense are: that the verdict was contrary to law; that it was contrary to the evidence introduced at the trial; and that the verdict was rendered by the jury in violation of the law. The state, on the other hand, contends that the verdict was rendered by the jury in accordance with the law and the evidence.

The principal contention of the attorneys for the defense is that the verdict was rendered by the jury in violation of the law. They contend that the jury was not properly instructed by the court, and that the verdict was rendered in violation of the law. The state, on the other hand, contends that the verdict was rendered by the jury in accordance with the law and the evidence.

AFTERMATH IN COLORADO.

Grand Jury May Investigate Election Frauds in Arapahoe Co.

Denver, Nov. 8.—Attorney John D. Fleming is preparing a petition today to be presented to Judge Samuel L. Campbell of the district court, asking for a grand jury to investigate the alleged frauds in Arapahoe county. Mr. Fleming is acting for the grand jury committee, which is gathering evidence to be used in pushing contests and contempt proceedings and in presenting cases before the grand jury.

The Republican candidates for the legislature from Arapahoe county and the district of which Arapahoe county is a part have decided to file the election of the 15 representatives and four senators who will get the certificates of election. In a statement signed by all the candidates it was stated that they believed the election of the Democratic members was obtained by means of great frauds and crimes, and that it was their duty to expose such crimes and secure the punishment of the guilty parties. They declare they have no disposition to disfranchise any voter, but seek to have the will of the people as expressed at the last election prevail.

FATHER AUGUSTINE'S CASE.

Investigation Proved He Died from Effects of War Cure.

Washington, Nov. 8.—An investigation that has been made by the war department into the alleged death of Father Augustine, a Catholic priest, who died in the Philippines, has apparently confirmed the main fact, that the man died as the result of the administration of the war cure, but it also has been reported that the persons who administered the cure to secure insurgent funds of which he was the custodian, were volunteers from Vermont and are now beyond the reach of military justice, having been mustered out of the service.

SCHOOL ELECTION WILL BE NEXT.

Time for Holding It Is First Wednesday in December.

CHANGES ARE SCHEDULED.

Much Complaint Over Holding Board of Education Meetings in Different Parts of the City.

Now that the regular election with all of its clutter and din is out of the way, the people of this city will soon be turning their attention to the school election, which under the law, will be held on the first Wednesday of December. There are 10 members of the board of education, two from each of the five municipal wards, and one member retires from each, having served his full term, thus making five regular vacancies to fill. But there is or will be one additional vacancy to fill, occasioned by the resignation of Mr. George Hagan. The members whose terms expire are, E. B. Critchlow from the First; M. H. Walker from the Second; W. J. Newman from the Third; B. S. Young from the Fourth and Simon Bamberger from the Fifth. Little or nothing has been heard up to the present regarding candidates.

It is certain, however, that Mr. Critchlow will not be a candidate as he has tendered his resignation, although the same has not yet been accepted. Mr. Walker will be ineligible as he is soon to change his residence to the Second ward to the Fifth. Mr. Newman of the Third has not been heard from. Whether Mr. Young will make the race again in the Fourth is not known. As to Mr. Bamberger of the Fifth will be elected to the State Senate and has so many other duties that he feels obliged to step from the board. So there will be a vacancy which will be caused by Mr. George Hagan's resignation, will mean the election of at least six new members. There will be an effort to get Mr. George Hagan to finish out his term as it is conceded that he has been a very useful member. There is a general feeling on the part of his constituents that he remains in the office for the full period for which he was chosen.

MEETING COMPLAINTS.

It is not often that boards of education in Salt Lake City have been subjected to severe criticism. But there has been a good deal of talk of late of the board of education, and the present board's business in the various offices of the board members around town, instead of in the regular meeting place of the board in the city and county building. All previous boards up to the present one, had regular weekly meetings. That is, they always met on a specified night, just as does the board of health. The result was, the public always knew that at a particular night it could attend these meetings to present any matter that it desired, and to the proceedings. But the present board appears to have been permanently abandoned, and it is the exception and not the rule when committee meetings are held. The result is that the public does not know of them. It even keeps the reporters busy trying to find out about them, and sometimes they find out of them until after they are over. There are teachers, too, who complain at the new order of things. In the old days they often attended board meetings, but since the present board's business is in different places, they are no longer practicable or possible with them. There is a rapidly growing belief that the place to hold the board meetings is at the board's office, which are commodious, comfortable and adequate to the smallest detail, besides being the proper place for them.

SHOUP A CANDIDATE.

Ex-Senator So States in a Letter to the Legislature.

Ex-Senator George L. Shoup of Idaho has addressed a letter to the members of the legislature in which he announces his candidacy for the senate. His letter is as follows:

"To the citizens of Idaho, but more especially to the honorable members of the legislature: On numerous occasions since my retirement from the United States senate, March 3, 1901, I have been appealed to by many prominent Republicans and personal friends throughout the state to announce my candidacy for re-election to the senate in January next. For many reasons, I deemed it wise, in the interest of harmony and the success of the party, to make no announcement until the legislature was elected."

"Now that we have achieved the victory so much hoped for, I have the honor to announce my candidacy, accompanied by the promise that if elected I will devote my time and energy in the future, as in the past, toward promoting the welfare of the people in our young and growing commonwealth in everything that will enhance their happiness and material interest and in the development of the state's resources and industries."

"If my devotion to the Republican party of my beloved state, Idaho, and the nation, my record in the senate from 1890 to 1901, shall be deemed worthy of recognition by my re-election, I shall greatly appreciate the high honor conferred upon me. I am content to leave my aspiration in the hands of the people and that honorable body whose duty it shall be to elect a United States senator to fill the vacancy which will occur on the 3rd of March next. I am, very respectfully, "GEORGE L. SHOUP."

The trainmen think the child was put aboard at a nearby Indiana station, as it had not been crying and showed no evidences of having been distressed. A small hole had been cut in the bag to admit air.

The Kaiser In England.

His Arrival Made Occasion For an Impassioned Naval Display—War Ships Dressed—Emperor Wore Undress Uniform of a British Admiral—Will Review First Royal Dragoons, of Which He is Honorary Colonel.

London, Nov. 8.—The German imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William on board, accompanied by the escorting German cruisers and a flotilla of British torpedo boats, reached Port Victoria at 8 o'clock this morning.

The arrival of the German emperor was made the occasion of an imposing naval display. All the warships at Sheerness were dressed, their crews manned the decks and the usual salutes welcomed the imperial visitor.

The emperor wore the undress uniform of a British admiral. The German ambassador, Count Wolff-Meternich, soon joined his majesty, who subsequently received the British court officials sent to attend him and the other members of the German embassy.

After breakfast Emperor William landed, the crew of the Hohenzollern manning the ship and cheering lustily and the British warships firing another salute. The emperor boarded a train for Dover, on his way to Shortcliffe cliff, where he will review the First Royal dragoons, of which regiment he is honorary colonel in chief. Unusual precautions were taken by the railroad officials. All traffic was stopped along the route for over half an hour before the imperial special train was due. Large British and German detective staffs were on duty and the junctions and approaches to the stations were closely watched and cleared of spectators during the passage of the train.

It was raining heavily when Emperor William left the train at Dover, whence, mounted on one of his own chargers, he rode to Shortcliffe cliff, accompanied by Lord Roberts and other brilliant staff.

Prior to starting for the camp, Emperor William received three addresses from representatives of local bodies, to all of whom he replied simply: "I thank you very much for coming to see me."

His majesty arrived at the review ground at the head of the cavalcade with Lord Roberts at his side, and reviewed some 600 men of his regiment. The inspection lasted only 10 minutes, the emperor passing down the line while torrents of rain were falling and in the teeth of a gale of wind.

His majesty, however, keenly scrutinized the ranks and horses. He then proceeded to the saluting base. After the march past, the dragoons formed a hollow square and Emperor William briefly addressed the regiment as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure for the first time since the death of your late queen, my beloved grandmother, to have the honor of being able to inspect you."

A PUBLIC NEWS "CENSORSHIP."

One Was Established at Police Headquarters Today, and Woe Betide the Officer Who Dares Break it—Reporters Ruled Out and Shut Out.

A news censorship was established at police headquarters today. The matter has been under contemplation and partial enforcement for some time. Today it was made complete. The word was given by Chief of Police Paul that reporters are to be hereafter entirely barred out of the sergeant's office where news items were once obtained, and that "they are not only ruled out but shut out."

The only fair thing about it is the fact that all of the newspapers are equally barred from the office. The censorship for the new rule is, that the newspapers have been publishing too much about the operations of criminals and compromises that have been brought about between them and the police. The news, it appears, must now be suppressed at all hazards. The officer who is found giving information to the reporters is from this time forth to be summarily dealt with. It is said to mean suspension without pay for the first offense and permanent dismissal for the second. But the probabilities

ENGLISH LIBERALS ARE JUBILANT.

London, Nov. 8.—The Liberals are jubilant and the Unionists are proportionately disgruntled over the results of the by elections in the Cleveland and East Toxteth divisions. The large increase in the Liberal majority in the Cleveland division is generally admitted even by the Conservative organs to be due to dissatisfaction with the education bill, which is still wending its way through the house of commons. In the East Toxteth division the reduction of the Unionist majority by over 1,500, was greatly due to a curious feature unassociated with public political controversies. Austin Taylor who just managed to win the seat, had taken a prominent part in Liverpool, to which the division belongs, against the "vitalists," whose practices caused the crusade which recently ended in the tragic death of John Kennet, the anti-ritualist leader. In fact Mr. Taylor had gone as far as to support a Liberal in a neighboring constituency against a Conservative high churchman. This stirred up the ritualists of East Toxteth to such an extent that they entered upon a vigorous campaign against Mr. Taylor and prominent Unionists issued an appeal for aid for the Liberal candidate. Premier Balfour and Colonial Secy. Chamberlain intervened but were unable to restore harmony. The curious spectacle was presented of a Liberal, backed up by Non-Conformists, daily denouncing the clerical tendencies of the education bill, while yet having the support of the fatalists and their congregations.

Both by elections, taken in conjunction with other Liberal successes, are interpreted by the organs of the party as favoring, as being sure signs that the government will be defeated should a general election be held. This, however, is quite unlikely and it would take a good many such defeats to disturb the equanimity of Mr. Balfour's large majority in the house of commons. A rumor is current that Mr. Sneyd, brother-in-law of Mr. Balfour, is so much disgusted with the Liberal cause that he is about to be graciously retired with a peerage or some office. There seems but slight ground to believe it is founded on fact.
