At least a dozen shots were fired point blank at the strikers, and six point blank at the strikers, and six men fell. So far as is known, the strikers did not return the fire. Upon seeing their companions fall, the work-men turned and fied, leaving the wounded on the ground. Chief Burke had the injured men carried to a place of safety and later they were removed to the hereviel here There was only a lull in the rioting. The strikers soon returned to the factory. They kept at a distance, but it was, evident that they were angered by the shooting down of their comrades.

GREAT PARADE OF LONDON'S UNEMPLOYED

London, Nov. 25.—Thousands of the unemployed of London, carrying a larger banner with the words "Work or revoltation, the government must de-cide," marched through the fashionable districts of the city this afternoon. This is the first of a series of similar demonstrations: and speaking of the procession or parade, one of the leaders raid;

"We are going to let the west end mow that the east end does not in-lend to starve."
