HARMONY AGAIN

Prevails Among Members of the County Court.

SECRETARY AND CLERK CONTENT.

County Attorney Says Clerk's Services Must be Paid—Secretary's Salary Fixed at Last.

The county court met this morning with all the members present.

The following business was disposed of:

Attorney Whitcomb made a report upon his collection of the matter of the duties of the county clerk in hearing cases there. It is in effect, that the clerk is not paid, but is compelled to do the duties of the office in getting out the necessary papers. The report was adopted by a vote of 10 to 0.

Secretary Whitcomb offered a resolution that the compensation of the clerk for writing process should be ten cents per sheet, that the clerk should be paid as little as possible to discover violations of the law. He also offered a resolution that the clerk should be paid as little as possible to discover violations of the law.

A number of appropriations were made, and the court adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

A petition was received from John H. H. for the release of Ernest Lytle from the county jail, and the court granted the writ of habeas corpus.
