

The most elaborate affair of the week was the reception and dancing party given at the McCune mansion on Tuesday night by Mrs. A. W. McCune and Mrs. Susan Y. Gates in honor of Gov. Spry and the trustees of the Utah Agricultural college. The beautiful rooms were thronged until a late hour with a host of beautifully gowned women and their escorts, about 200 invitations having been issued. The refreshments were served in the dining and breakfast rooms, which were decorated in cut flowers and potted plants, and upstairs punch was served from the two lower alcoves of the dancing hall. A march opened the dancing, led by the two hostesses and their chief guests of honor, and dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. A delightful program of music was given down stairs under the direction of Mr. Ed Kimball, including solos by Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris, Miss Edna Evans, Miss Hazel Barnes, Miss Edith Grant, and a quartet consisting of Miss Evans, Miss Barnes, Mr. Hugh Douglass and Mr. Summerhayes, with Spencer Clawson, Jr. and Mr. Ed Kimball as accompanists. The reopening of the McCune home, one of the most beautiful of Salt Lake's many splendid residences in a social way was an important event, and one of the pleasures of the evening was the enjoyment of the many art treasures in paintings, statuary and other costly ornaments about the house as well as the handsome woods in which the various rooms are paneled.

Miss Josephine Well gave a dancing party and dinner at Lagoon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Evelyn Powers of Denver and Miss Florence Reynolds of Boston, and Miss Mabel Dunn of Portland, the party going out on a special train. Supper was served from a table prettily decorated in sweet peas, and dancing and other amusements followed.

Miss Nellie Young gave a barn dance on Thursday night for Miss Alta Ferguson, the barn and lawn being hung with lanterns and a string quartet furnishing music for the dancing. About 50 couples were present.

Mrs. Fred Scarff was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday given by Mrs. E. C. Hutchinson, the table being prettily decorated and covers laid for four.

Miss Norine Thompson gave a luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday for Miss Powers and Miss Reynolds, the decorations being in Shasta daisies and ferns and covers laid for 26 guests.

Mrs. James Hogle and Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday at Mrs. Hogle's home in honor of Mrs. Lydia Reed, the decorations being in nasturtiums and bridge following.

Miss Norine Thompson was hostess at a party given in honor of Miss Powers and Miss Reynolds on Thursday night in the way of a barn dance, the partitions of the barn having been moved and the place hung with lanterns and costly arranged with rugs and cushions. Punch was served from a corner prettily decorated with sweet peas, and later in the evening a buffet supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Thompson chaperoned the affair, which was enjoyed by about 40 guests.

Miss Josephine Well entertained at a luncheon at the Commercial club on Thursday, the table being decorated in pink with a mound of sweet peas for centerpiece and bows of pink ribbon at each corner. The place cards were in white and gold and covers laid for 24 guests.

Mrs. Clarence Warnock entertained yesterday at a party for Mrs. Fred Scarff, about five tables being played. The rooms were effectively decorated, the diningroom in daisies and pink sweet peas, and the other rooms in garden flowers. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. H. N. Mayo and Mrs. J. C. Griffiths.

Mrs. A. D. Tobin gave a matinee party at the Grand theater on Wednesday, followed by a tea at her home the decorations being in lavender sweet peas and all details being in lavender. Covers were laid for the following besides Miss Ferguson, were Miss Merle Lynch, Miss Dorothy Partridge, Miss Janie Mulvaney and Mrs. Will Mitchell.

Miss Lucile Clark entertained a party of her young friends at Wandamere on Wednesday the affair being chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Hamilton, and supper served afterwards at their home which is near the park. About 50 were present.

Mrs. Emmanuel Kahn entertained a party of young people at the lake on Wednesday in honor of Miss Fannie Jacobson and Miss Helene Simon.

Mrs. Sarah A. Jones celebrated her 80th birthday anniversary on Monday, and in celebration of the day an enjoyable party was given at the home of her son, James S. Jones, which was decorated with a profusion of flowers. The time was spent with recitations.

DINNER PROCK OF IRISH LACE.

Lace dresses always have a charm matched by no other feminine costumes, but the beauty of such a frock is in its delicacy and richness combined. The tunic of Irish crochet in this case falls over a petticoat of very soft white mull, and a hem of the mull, edged with a deeper hem of the chiffon, makes a lovely finish at the bottom of the tunic, which falls to the skirt hem in the back. The strip of lace forming the bodice is laid over apple green satin and bands of apple green and silver trimming are introduced at the bust and on the sleeves.

Miss Edith Holman, Miss Merle Lynch and Miss Dorothy Partridge.

Mrs. J. A. Greenwald entertained on Wednesday at luncheon for Miss Helen Simon.
