A word or two with the wearers of hats. We have looked through the Hat, Cap and Glove Departments of Dunford, the Hatter, and we do believe a more beautiful and cheap stock of Hats, Caps and Gloves is hard to find in any city in the land. And as for their Boot and Shoe Department, we never saw a better stock on our lives.

For all the bitter opposition of calous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief, but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, September 25, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer. — The mercury scored 55° this afternoon.

Martial Band. — The members of the Martial Band are requested to meet at half-past 7 this evening at the Temple Block.

Sunday School Party. — A Sunday School party will be given in the 12th Ward Assembly Rooms on Friday evening. Oleen's band will attend, and a fine time will not doubt be realized.

From Rhodes Valley. — Elder Ward E. Pack, of Kamas, arrived in town the other evening and returns home to-day. Traveling between here and his place is disagreeable on account of the dust and ruts in the road.

Recovered. — Elder James Woods, one of the Bishop's Counselors of the 10th Ward, who has been laid up for the last three weeks with rheumatism, is able to be up and around once more. We congratulate him on his recovery.

Funeral Services. — The funeral of Sister Mary Ann Funnell Cooper, whose obituary appears in another place, takes place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the residence of her daughter, corner of First East and Third South streets.

A Pronouncement. — Among the last words uttered by John Hilton, previous to his death, this morning, were these to his father, "Father, I knew when I started away this morning that I was going to be killed, but I had not the courage to tell you."

Gravary Dedicated. — The Relief Society Gravary of the 14th Ward is finished and was dedicated on Monday. Pres. A. M. Cannon and Counselor Joseph E. Taylor were present, the former offering the dedicatory prayer; also Sister M. I. Horne, president of the Society, and her counselors, and other members of the local organization.

Vain Hopes. — We did think that when we boarded the emigrant train yesterday, a company would be found that had never heard "Pinafore," but, alas! the first expression we heard from a new comer was, "Hardly ever."

Junctio. — "he was an Englishman."

Again Defeated. — The Deserets have again been beaten in Denver, the score this time being four to three in favor of the Browns. The third game of the series was to take place to-day, which, if won by the Deserets, decides the question. To come out ahead, the Deserets must win the remaining games, which will be played every day this week until the affair is settled.

Married. — We once more have the pleasure of recording a happy marriage. This time it is Mr. Edward B. Clark and Miss Wealthy Richards, both of Farmington, who were to-day united in marriage by Apelle F. D. Richards. The bridegroom is a son of Elder Ezra T. Clark, of Farmington; the bride, daughter of Elder Franklin D. Richards and his wife Mary T. Richards.

The Park Connection. — Park City and Salt Lake were connected by the electric wire at about 8 o'clock last evening. Messages were immediately sent over the line and a system of communication established. Park City is flourishing, and bids fair to become, if it is not already, the most important mining town in Utah. The new telegraph line is a valuable acquisition to its other advantages and will facilitate the transaction of business and help the enterprises of the place still more.

Emigrants Arrived. — The emigrants destined for this city and points farther south arrived last night, safe and sound, in care of Bishops L. W. Hardy and K. T. Burton, who went to Ogden yesterday to meet them. A considerable portion went south this morning, destined for Gaspere, Boulder and other southern localities, and another lot will leave to-morrow. The company are in excellent health, have had an exceedingly fine voyage, with nothing to mar their peace or pleasure.

Frightful Railroad Accident.

This morning, about half past eight o'clock, an accident occurred at Sandy, by which a young man, named John T. Hilton, aged 18, a son of Brother David Hilton, one of our well known and respected citizens, met a cruel and untimely death. The young man, for the last six weeks, has been an employee of the Utah Southern Railroad, holding the position of freight deliverer along the line and required also to assist as brakeman when needed. The train started out at half past seven this morning, as usual, and had reached Sandy, where a switch was to be made. Young Hilton went between the cars to unpin the coupling, but did it a little too soon, and the detached car moving away, he lost his balance and fell across the track. The main train backing up, several cars passed over his body. Both his legs were broken and terribly lacerated and his right hand nearly torn off. He was immediately sent to this city by the freight engine on the caboose, arrived here about nine o'clock, and was taken into the company's office at the depot, and surgical attendance summoned. There being no hope of recovery, his father, mother, brother and sisters were also taken to his bedside. He was quite conscious when taken off the car, asked how long it would be before the doctor arrived, and made other remarks in a cool and quiet manner. When lying on the bed he told his mother not to cry and said, "Mother, if I have ever done anything—" and then stopped and did not speak again. His death occurred at 20 minutes after 11 this morning. He was an exemplary young man, well liked by all who knew him. We sympathize deeply with the parents and relatives, who seem almost heart broken at the sad occurrence.

Returned Missionaries. — Elders N. G. Flygare, Charles Monk and Thomas Childs, just from the European Mission, called upon us this morning. The last number of the Millennial Star contains the following: "Elder Flygare, the president of the company has, during his late mission, extending over a period of about a year and eight months, presided over the Scandinavian Mission. He has labored with great diligence and wisdom, and accomplished a good work. He has conducted the affairs of the field that were under his supervision with the most exemplary prudence and care, leaving it in a most satisfactory condition."

Grand Jury of September Term. — The only business transacted in the District Court this morning, was the empanelling of the grand jury, this being the first day of the September term. The jury were called and examined as to their qualifications. Two or three were absent, and several others were dismissed on account of their belief in polygamy. This left but six remaining, who were accepted, and constituted the drawing of 20 additional names. The jury were then excused until Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, that the foreman might be summoned and appear for examination.

Museum. — The curator of the Deseret Museum respectfully acknowledges the receipt of the Report of the Arid Region of the United States, by Major J. W. Powell, U. S. A., and Report of the Geology of the Henry Mountains, by Professor G. K. Gilbert, United States Geological Survey; these important and valuable works having been sent by the recommendation of the respective authors.

A very pretty chain of Japanese manufacture, made of the fibre of bamboo, a variety of cane, has been presented by Willard G. Cocheron, Esq. of this city.

"Junction" Jota. — The little child burned so badly at Harrisville, last Sunday, died yesterday morning.

It is Mr. John P. Williams (not Thomas P.) who lost his children by diphtheria.

Mr. Ezra Shurtliff, having fallen from a telegraph pole and injured his leg, while repairing the U. P. line at Devil's Gate, returned to Ogden for treatment last evening.

Quite an affecting scene occurred yesterday upon the arrival of the emigrants at the U. P. depot, between a brother and sister who had not met for 10 years.

A Dual Wedding. — Mr. James McAllister and Miss Minnie Irwin, both of this city, who were married in St. George on the 7th inst., returned home last evening. At the same time and place Mr. Daniel McAllister and Miss Rhoda M. Young, of St. George, were made husband and wife. Both bridegrooms are the sons of President D. T. McAllister. The last named lady is a daughter of the late President Young, the other, a young lady well known in this city.

We wish both the loving pairs a long life of prosperity and happiness.

The Fair. — The Territorial Fair opens on Wednesday, the 1st of October. Arrangements have been made with the Superintendents of the Utah Central, Utah Southern and Utah Western Railroads for free freight on articles to be exhibited at the fair, and conference rates to the exhibitors. They hope to effect the same arrangements with the manager of the Utah and Northern Railroad Company, which, when accomplished, will be duly announced.

"Dispatch" Notes. — Ogden's bad sidewalks have improved the leather trade 100 per cent. (So we are told.)

General Grant is to be "received" in Ogden. At the last session of the city council, a committee of the mayor and aldermen were appointed to make the necessary preparations.

Are Fish Dead?

Most of the trout fishermen would laugh at any scientist who should tell them that trout are dead. Accustomed to move noiselessly along the banks of brooks, lest the timid fish take alarm, and their sport be spoiled, the more mention of dead trout seems absurd to them. But Seth Greene, the famous brooder of fish, who knows more about trout than all other fishermen, expresses the opinion that fish cannot hear. He also gives striking facts in support of his opinion. In a pond a hundred feet long well stocked with trout, when the fish were gathered at one end, his servant, lying flat on the ground, and covered by the trout, could strike together heavy stones in the water without exciting any disturbance among them. Mr. Greene often fired his gun close by the pond, but if the trout could not see the flash, they never stirred. On the other hand a slight jar of the ground communicated to the water would start them into alarm. Mr. Greene is convinced by his experiments that trout can not hear common sounds. They are quicksighted to detect any moving object, and they may be started by the step of a fisherman if he jars the ground. But to ordinary sounds, he believes they are utterly deaf. — Es.

OBITUARY.

MARY ANN RICE WINTER FUNK

NELL departed this life on the evening of September 24th, 1879, at the ripe age of 85 years. Her associations with the Church, her unswerving faith in the Gospel under all circumstances, her testimony to its truth, both practical and verbal, entitle her to an honorable notice and remembrance among the Saints.

She was a native of Norfolk Co., England, and among the first that received the testimony of the Elders in that section, her home being their home from the beginning. She kept the "Conference House" of the Norwich Conference for four years, and when it is read that "Mother Funnell" is dead, hundreds of the priesthood will call up grateful reminiscences of kind ministrations and loving faith. She was in the memorable handcart emigration of 1854, in Capt. Milan Attwood's train, walking and pulling her cart, at the age of sixty-two years, from Keokuk, Iowa, to within a short distance of Salt Lake City. The settlers of the first part of the route tried to dissuade her and offered inducements for her to stop, the reply was ever, "I shall live to go through, loves, and live after you are buried." Mary went down on that journey, but Sister Funnell's prophecy was fulfilled. It is said of her, in all the snows and hardships she was never known to murmur. Without worldly riches, position, or honor, she lived rich in faith, honored of God, and went to sleep from her labors here as easy and peaceful as a babe, and enters into a position that will know no envy of anything that earth can give. May her posterity likewise honor God. — (Oss.)
