C. H. Bassett Sentenced.

Today Charles H. Bassett was called for septence in the Third District Court, for unlawful cohabitation. When the defendant came forward the court asked the District Attorney whether he had anything to say, to which Mr. Peters replied, "No, sir; I understand this man has some promises to make." In reply to the court, Mr. Bassett then stated that this was the first time he had appeared in court in any case; he had never lived in destance was but technically guilty, When the Edmunds law passed he
