WILL MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

Utah Light & Railway Management Preparing for Rolling Stock.

The Utah Light and Railway management is planning for such an enlargement of the west Seventh South street barns as will accommodate the increased rolling stock, as it is not the policy of the ing stock, as it is not the policy of the company to set up any permanent im-provement at the Second East street es-tablishment. The management has ordered very handsome from brackets for the stand-lamps in the place of the wooden arms in temporary use, the idea being to have a lamp on every other pole, though where are lights are to be used, the intervals would be much greater. When the ex-periment shall have been concluded, the city council will be given prices at what the company can furnish such and such styles of lighting, and the council given its choice of what kind to select. AN EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

Y. M. C. A. Has Inaugurated New Move in Benevolent Work.

The Y. M. C. A. has inaugurated a new move in its benevolent work, in establishing a bureau for the aid of men and boys looking for employment, the bureau to be under the care and direction of the educational department. Of course, care will cational department. Of course, care win be taken in eaxmining an applicant to ascertain what his antecedents have been, so that no unworthy person will be rec-ented to the deserving to earn a livelihood, in such walk of life as he may be spec-ially fitted for. Prof. French, who has charge of the bureau says that many young men from the country come to this city seeking employment and they should be given assistance.

DEMAND FOR LUMBER.

George E. Merrill, the lumberman, resociety turned last evening from a trip to Spokane and the northwest, where he went to look over the lumber situation. He Miss Eng Brown entertained a num-ber of her friends at an evening party. Music and games were enjoyed, the prizes being won by Misses Eva Heter-son and Georgia Hamilin. Those pres-ent were Florence Robison, Eva Peter-son, Georgia Hamilin, Elleen Manning, Louise Schade, Edan Barbee, Sadie says the demand is now greater than says the demand is now greater than ever before, so that there is a short-age of 3,000 cars reported. During Jan-uary 6,000 cars were shipped out as against half that number during the same month of the previous year; but there is no prospect of further advance in prices which are high enough. The rallroads are calling for enormous quan-tities of lumber, and paying little atten-tion to prices. Mr. Merrill attended the Western Retail Lumber Dealers' con-vention. son, Georgia Hattim, Elecai Manning, Louise Schade, Edna Barbee, Sadie Jones, Jennie Grimsdell, Gail Morgah, Bertha Mortensen, Adeila Horricks, Myrtle van Steeter, Ethel and Florence Brown. Mrs. Sol Siegel has gone to Balti-more for a short visit with relatives.

Agents Declare There is No Disposition To Raise Rates.

The local fire insurance agents, representing both the "Board" and "Non-Board" companies, held a meeting yesterday afternoon, in the offices of the Pacific Underwriters, Commercial Na-Pacific Underwriters, Commercial Na-tional Bank block, and by evening it was apparent that the long standing differences between the two classes of companies would be amicably adjusted with the "Non-Board" companies in the regulation fold. The union is expected to be effected at the adjourned meet-ing to be held next Tuesday afternoon. Of the 86 insurance companies doing business in Sait Lake only about 20 are
