Appropriation Bills—Cox in a Wrangle

WASHINGTON, 16.—In the House to-day, Kelly, from the centennial committee, reported a bill appropriating three millions for the Exposition; it was referred to the committee of the whole.

The House considered the legislative appropriation bill, in committee of the whole. Parker moved to strike out the item about forty-four thousand dollars for newspaper stationery to members; rejected. Butler, Mass., opposed Holman's amendment and in the course of his remarks criticised Dawes' recent speech, by which, Butler said, the impression given was contrary to the fact that the Presidental office yielded its incumbent four hundred thousand dollars during the term. The appropriations for the President's household were in no sense perquisites, but, on the contrary, added to the President's discomfort. A discussion ensued, participated in by Dawes, who said Butler had misconstrued his speech, as he had not referred to appropriation to the President's household, but to appropriation for the executive establishment.

Cox, who made a humorous speech, in reply to Butler, finally succeeding in getting into a personal wrangle. Kasson spoke in favor of the amendment, which was rejected. Several amendments to increase the salaries of the Assistant Secretaries of State were offered and rejected.

Purman favored to strike out the proviso forbidding publication of the laws in two newspapers in each State, advocating the amendment as preventing the abolishing of a subsidy of $60,000 to republican newspapers. Dunnell supported the amendment in a speech and Garfield vigorously denounced it; it was rejected.

EASTERN.

Cuban Independence.

WASHINGTON, 16.—A joint resolution was introduced in the Senate by Carpenter, to-day, declaring it to be the duty of the U. S. to recognize the independence of Cuba, accord to her belligerent rights, and observe strict neutrality between her and Spain. It was preceded by a preamble setting forth that it is the undoubted right of any American colony to declare its independence of the mother country, and that the people of Cuba have declared their independence of Spain, established their own government, abolished slavery and, for over five years, maintained their position; that the war between Spain and Cuba has been and is conducted with shocking barbarity; and there is no reasonable prospect that Spain will be able to re-establish her authority over Cuba; that, in consequence of our proximity to the seat of war, the contest is injurious to the interests of the people of the U. S.; that it is evident its prolongation will only protract suffering and bloodshed, and result in the final recognition of Cuban independence by Spain.

The Arkansas Muddle.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The President has received a telegram from Brooks at Little Rock, asking that the commanding officer at the arsenal be instructed to deliver to him the State arms now in his custody, and from Baxter, asking support from the general government to sustain him. After consultation with the Attorney General, the latter, in accordance with directions of the President, telegraphed to Brooks, declining the request, because the President was not advised that his claim to the governorship was fully and finally settled by the courts, and to Baxter that his call was not in conformity with the constitution and laws of the U. S., and second, that as the controversy relates to his right to a State office, its adjudication belongs to the State courts, where he is advised to go.

The Senate financial bill reached the President to-day.

Brooks and Baxter Proclaim.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., 16.—Brooks issued a proclamation to-day, to the people of Arkansas, reciting at length the history of his contest with Baxter, and declaring his intentions to sustain himself in office by every means at his command, that any attempt to place Baxter again in the governor's office must result in strife and bloodshed, as he, Brooks, will resist all mobs that may assemble at Baxter's call; but that he is always ready to submit to the decision of the courts, and concludes by advising the people quietly to pursue their usual avocations and if their services be necessary to preserve the peace he will call for them. Baxter's attorney appeared in court to-day and moved to set aside the judgment of yesterday. The motion will be argued to-morrow.

Late this evening Baxter issued a proclamation declaring Pulaski county in a state of rebellion, proclaiming martial law and calling on the militia to assist him to suppress the rebellion. Simultaneously with the issuance of the proclamation, Baxter, with a force of two hundred men, marched down town, took quarters at one of the hotels, and posted sentinels along the principal streets and around the State House, where Brooks is ensconsed with two hundred men, armed with muskets and two cannon. Baxter expects reinforcements from other counties to-morrow. He says the attorney general's dispatch is satisfactory and all he wants is the non-interference of the general government. Baxter has taken possession of the telegraph office, and exercises the complete censorship over all dispatches, and has issued a proclamation announcing his intention to take the State House and re-establish his authority.

WESTERN.

Desperadoes.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—There is a report in the city to-night that the desperado Vasquez and his gang had been captured, by the sheriff of Los Angeles.

Vasquez, the notorious bandit, and his gang are again heard from; this time near Los Angeles. They are still committing depredations. In his last exploit the chief took an Italian trader prisoner and obliged him to give a check on a bank in San Gabriel for $800 and send his son to draw the money. A sheriff's posse is in pursuit, with a fair chance of overtaking the desperadoes.

FOREIGN.

Rowing Match.

LONDON, 16.—The rowing match between Sadler and Bagnall for the championship of the Thames and £200 a side was rowed to-day, from Putney to Mortlake, Sadler winning by three lengths. The betting was five to four in his favor.

Stoefel Acquitted.

PARIS, 16.—The military tribune has acquitted Col. Stoefel of the charge of suppressing the dispatches of Bazaine to McMahon.

JOCULARITIES.

The wave on which many a poor fellow has been carried away is the wave of a lace edged cambric handkerchief.

There are over ten million women in America, and yet Tom Hutton, of Georgia, hung himself on account of a girl fifteen years old.

The Wyoming Journal's fees for marriage notices are "as high as the ecstacy and liberality of the bridegroom may prompt."

Mr. Marrowfat rather snappishly remarked to his wife, on Sunday, that a man can't always be thinking of his immortal soul. He must have time to eat his meals.

Mrs. Fawcet, in a lecture recently delivered in London, stated that there were 2,500,000 unmarried women in Great Britain, and half of these must remain unmarried. O dreadful thought, and is it so!

A Western paper says that the way to kill off the poets who offer to write pieces gratuitously is to accept their efforts, hand them to the worst compositor and let the proof-reader correct them according to his own ideas of prosody. This is warranted to destroy the strongest poetical fever in three weeks.

A Kansas gentleman has thoughtfully put his front gate in the parlor, so that his daughter and her young man can swing on it without taking cold during the cold weather. This is a humane suggestion to all fathers. A front gate in the parlor may save a good many dollars that would otherwise be paid out for soothing syrups and cough balsam.

A Cayuga county, N. Y., man sends the following advertisement to the Syracuse Journal: "Mr Editor please publish that Wanted a young lady from the age of 18 to 22 who would like to younite her self in the locs of matrimonia I the writer of this am 22 years of age 5 feet in hight in weight 135 of occupation farmer."

A wag went to the station of one of the railroads one evening, and, finding the best car full, said in a low tone, "Why, this car isn't going!" Of course this caused a general stampede, and the wag took the best seat. In the midst of the indignation the wag was asked: "Why did you say this car wasn't going?" "Well, it wasn't then," replied the wag, "but it is now."

A learned divine says that he once married a couple and the man said: "Be short! be short!" I said: "Yes I can do it in three minutes, but it will last longer than that." "That's right," he said. I saw that there was some little dissatisfaction on the part of the other half. I said: "You don't want to have it too short?" "No," said she, "a body don't want to get herself up so for nothing."

"Little Tommy didn't disobey mamma, and go in swimming, did he?" "No mamma; Jimmy Brown and the rest of the boys went in, but I remembered what you said, and didn't disobey you." "And Tommy never tells lies, does he?" "No, mamma; I wouldn't tell a lie for all the world." "Then how does Tommy happen to have on Jimmy Brown's shirt?" That conundrum was too much for Tommy. He had to give it up.
