

SCHEME IS A FRAUDULENT ONE

Ogden Employment Agencies Shipping Men Into Denver,

WITH A PROMISE OF WORK.

When They Get There There Is None For Them—Charge A Good Staff Fee.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 6.—Chief of Police Armstrong of this city has telegraphed the police authorities of Ogden, Utah, to the effect that certain employment agencies of that city are shipping men into Denver on the promise of securing work for them here through connections in this city. The chief says that the particular employment promised the men does not exist nor have the Ogden agencies any connecting franchises in Denver. He declares the scheme is one for money-making, the Ogden concerns charging the men sent out at a rate averaging $2 each above the cost of transportation retaining the excess for themselves. The Ogden police have been asked to stop the practice. It is said that something over 400 men have been shipped into Denver, the majority of whom are now idle. The action of Chief Armstrong was prompted by complaints of several of the men who are stranded here for lack of funds.

CHIN'S DEPARTURE.

Leaves for China Thursday—Bids Friends Good Bye.

Chin Chin, who goes to China Thursday to be gone several months, says everything is in readiness for his departure, but he will have to remain at his place tomorrow and will not be able to visit his friends to say good bye. A Chinese doctor named Lee Kim Ying is to make his headquarters at Chin's store.

RAILROAD NEWS.

Frank M. Miller, recently appointed traveling passenger agent for the Rock Island with headquarters in Salt Lake, to succeed Walter B. Townsend, this morning wired his resignation to District Passenger Agent Drake, effective at once. Mr. Miller was recently married and upon accepting the Salt Lake appointment was compelled to leave his wife in Chicago as she was ill. He went back for the holidays and was to have returned here this week.

Vice President and General Manager W. H. Bancroft, General Superintendent E. E. Calvin and Acting Traffic Manager T. M. Schumacher of the Oregon Short Line left last night for Chicago.

The first carload of goose livers and imported carlines ever brought into Salt Lake directly from France arrived yesterday, and is now being distributed among the various wholesale grocery houses here.

The Oregon Short Line this evening will run a special train from Utah county points to Provo on the occasion of the performance of "Corlinton" in the opera house.

A. L. Trowbridge of the Missouri Pacific sent the "News" a framed group of artistic colored pictures of views on the Iron Mountain route.

Gen. Supt. J. H. Young of the Rio Grande Western this afternoon stated that he had not yet named a successor to Trainmaster Cotten.

The Southern Pacific and Union Pacific and connecting lines have given notice through the chairman of the Transcontinental Passenger association that they will put in effect from Feb. 15 to April 30, inclusive, a second class and so-called colonizer rate of $33 from Chicago, $25 from Missouri river, Sioux City, Kansas City, Indianola, and Houston, Texas, and $30 from St. Louis, Memphis and New Orleans to points in California.

Grade crossings and general improvements that will cost $4,000,000 are being undertaken by the New York Central management of the Boston & Albany railroad. The Boston & Albany is required to stand 65 per cent of the cost. Over $100,000 is to be expended in track ballasting, and $250,000 on engine houses.

SMALLPOX RESULTS FATAALLY.

James Larsen, a Popular Young School Teacher, Succumbs To Dread Disease—Private Burial After Dark Tonight—A Most Virulent Case.

One of the saddest deaths which has occurred in this city recently is that of James Larsen, a popular young teacher in the L. D. S. university, who fell a victim this morning to that dread disease, smallpox. What makes the case peculiarly sad is the fact that Mr. Larsen was only 20 years of age and had been married but six months. He was cut down in the very spring-time of life.

Deceased was a son of Lars Larsen and was born at Brigham City. At an early age he showed a decided preference for books and qualified himself to become a teacher. Three months ago he married Miss Marinda Peterson. Three weeks ago his wife, while undergoing treatment in the Keogh-Wright hospital in this city, must have come in contact with smallpox, which broke out after her return home. Her case was only a mild case of varioloid from which she quickly recovered. Mr. Larsen caught the disease from her and it developed into one of the most virulent cases ever seen in the city. Eight days ago he was taken to the detention hospital where he died at 7:45 this morning.

His heroic young wife accompanied him there and tenderly nursed him, assisted by her brother Andrew, who had the disease last year. For several days before his death he was delirious. His funeral will take place this evening

I Will Cure You of Rheumatism

Else No Money is Wanted.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer. I am a specialist in Rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other physician. I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again, but it can cure the pain at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100-000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds, the cost is only $2.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your name word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten. Write me and I will send you my book. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. If it fails it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 713 Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE.

Mrs. Johanna Anderson died at her home in the Twenty-third ward yesterday in the seventy-sixth year of her age. Deceased was born in Pio Socken, Sweden, March 27, 1827, and embraced the Gospel in Trounatan, Sweden, in 1845, together with her husband, who died shortly after. Her only living son, C. A. Carlquist, brought her to Utah 22 years ago, and she has resided in Salt Lake City ever since. Her only daughter, Josephine, died here a few years ago. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and did much in her younger days to spread the Gospel among her friends. She showed her devotion to the cause when her son Carl was called upon his first mission, then only 17 years old, and being her only support, still she was willing to let him go and leave her alone. She leaves her only son and seven grandchildren to mourn her departure. Funeral will be held from the Twenty-third ward meetinghouse tomorrow, Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. Friends are invited.

JOSEPH STAY'S FUNERAL.

Will Take Place Thursday From The First Ward Meeting House.

The funeral of Joseph Stay, whose death was announced in last night's "News," will take place in the First ward meeting house on Thursday, the 8th inst., at 1:30 p. m. Friends of the family are invited. The remains may be viewed at the late residence, 738 Wellington avenue, from 11 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., the day of the funeral.

As there were some inaccuracies in last night's account of deceased, the following information furnished by Reijo Hawkins, a son-in-law, is cheerfully given. Joseph Stay was 80 years, 9 months and 19 days old. He had been a resident of Utah since 1876 and had been paralyzed for 14 years, 8 years of which he had been utterly helpless. Nearly five years ago he buried his aged and faithful wife, shortly after celebrating their golden wedding. He was true and faithful to his covenants, a consistent Latter-day Saint, and a friend to the poor and needy, giving of his means liberally. He leaves four daughters, all of whom are faithful members of the Church. They are Mrs. A. J. Davis, Mrs. Charles E. Hawkins, Mrs. Louisa Woodbury, and Mrs. Rebecca Warburton. He also leaves 11 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Services will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. in Barratt hall, an tribute to the students and teachers of the L. D. S. university to the memory of their respected instructor. The preparatory department adjourned today, as a mark of respect to their beloved teacher, so suddenly taken from their society.

Instructor Larsen had been a teacher in the preparatory department of the Latter-day Saints' university for nearly three years. He was first a student in the business course, in which he distinguished himself to such an extent that he was offered an instructorship while yet an undergraduate. In his work as teacher, he was significantly successful. His students were devoted in their attachment and loyalty to him, and all the members of the faculty held him in the highest esteem. He was more than a teacher to his students—he was a real friend to them. The students who last year graduated from his department, mentioned that he had given charge of some of the new work upon which they would enter this year. On several occasions each year the preparatory class had social reunions, at which his high regard for their teacher was manifested in many ways, including presentations of choice mementoes of their esteem.

MULLAN'S CASE SET FOR FRIDAY.

Springville Postoffice Robber to Face Judge Marshall.

IN THE U. S. FEDERAL COURT

The Boss Damage Suit Still On—Plaintiff May Testify in His Own Behalf.

The case of the government vs. Edward Mullan, charged with robbing the postoffice at Springville on or about Oct. 5, last is set for trial before Judge Marshall on Friday of this week. The defendant is charged with having broken in and carried off a lot of postage stamps and an uncertain quantity of money. He was arrested in a hotel a few days later by the police and bound over to the federal grand jury at this term brought in an indictment for robbery.

THE BOSS CASE.

The case of John Ross vs. The Centennial-Eureka Mining company, for $50,000 damages, occupied the attention of Judge Marshall in the United States court yesterday. The testimony introduced showed the seriousness of the injuries sustained and that the plaintiff can never recover. It is not unlikely that the plaintiff may be brought into court to testify in his own behalf. Several witnesses were examined in the case today.

MINING COMPANY SUE.

An action was brought today in the United States district court by Wall & Fox against the U. S. Mining company to recover $15,000 damages for ore taken from the Fox mining claim, situated in Bingham canyon. A suit to quiet title to the same ground was also filed.

MRS. NASH SUES.

Brings Action for Separate Maintenance Against A. H. Nash.

Mrs. Sarah L. Nash has filed a suit against her husband, Albert H. Nash, representative-elect of the coming Legislature, for separate maintenance. She alleges that they were married in this city on Dec. 15, 1887, and for several years past her husband has failed to support her and she has been compelled to earn her own livelihood. At the time she married defendant she alleges that she had property valued at $15,000, all of which has been consumed by plaintiff and defendant in their living and lost in interest and other charges. All she has left now, she says, is a small house valued at $600, which is mortgaged for $300. Mrs. Nash, in the case, she is awarded $50 per month temporary alimony; $250 attorney's fees; and, upon the final hearing of the case, she may recover $50 per month permanent alimony.

WILL CAUCUS TOMORROW.

Looks Like Borah Will Have 25 Votes On First Ballot.

(Special to the "News.") Boise City, Ida., Jan. 6.—A senatorial caucus of legislators is called for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The situation now looks like Borah will have perhaps 25 votes on the first ballot.

MARKLAND TURNED OVER.

E. W. Wilson Will Have Him Sent to Portland Sanitarium.

Charles B. Markland, the mining man who has been held in custody for several days past on the charge of insanity, was today ordered turned over to the custody of E. W. Wilson, who has bonds in the sum of $300, to be by him taken to the Mt. Taber Sanitarium at Portland, Ore., for treatment. The order was made by Judge Hall. Mr. Markland will be taken to Portland as soon as it is possible for his affairs here to be arranged for his absence.

BROWN ATTEMPTS BREAK JAIL

Ogden Murderer's Plans to Escape Detected in Nick of Time.

HEINOUS CRIME OF PRISONER

Makes an Assault on Jail Lodger Which It Is Feared Will Prove Fatal.

(Special to the "News.") Ogden, Jan. 6.—Quite a sensation was created at the county jail last evening, by the discovery that William Brown, who was sentenced by Judge Rolapp yesterday to serve a term of 40 years in the state prison for murder, had made an almost successful attempt to escape from the jail. Night Guard James Welch, who is in the habit of going into the corridor of the prison about every half hour, was making one of his periodical calls at 2:30. When he reached the cell in which Brown is confined he felt the bars to see if they were secure and to his surprise discovered a deep nick in the upper part of the bars. He at once made a light and proceeded to make a careful investigation, when he discovered fresh steel filings on the floor. He listened to the door and called Chief Deputy Scudling and Deputy Cave, who came at once and discovered that two of the bars to Brown's cell had been sawed asunder and a slight blow was all that was necessary to break them. This done the prisoner would have been loose in the corridor, and 15 minutes work on the rotten walls of the jail would have given him his liberty. The officers opened his door and proceeded to examine the prisoner and his cell, but they were not able to find either file or saw. They then placed an Oregon boot on the door and locked him up again and placed a guard over him during the remainder of the night. This morning the prisoner was taken to the state prison by Sheriff Bailey and ex-Sheriff Layne. The officers are at a complete loss as to how Brown secured the implements with which the bars were cut, as he was taken direct from the state prison to the county jail when he was brought in for trial. During yesterday several persons paid visits to other prisoners, and it is thought some of these must have left the tools in the murderer's cell.

HEINOUS OFFENSE IN JAIL.

Frank Harrington, an inmate of the city jail, will be required to face a very serious charge, as soon as the results of his crime are determined. He assaulted a lodger who came to the jail, and committed the heinous crime against nature. The assaulted man is in such a critical condition as a result of the assault that it is believed by the physicians that he cannot recover. In view of this fact the county attorney has had the man make out a statement before a notary.

TO THE STATE PRISON.

William Brown and Herman Korf Brought Down from Ogden.

Sheriff Bailey and ex-Sheriff Layne of Weber county came down from Ogden today and brought two prisoners for the state prison. The men are William Brown, who was sentenced to 40 years yesterday by Judge Rolapp for the murder of a Chinaman, and Herman Korf, who will serve one and one-half years for assault with a deadly weapon. Brown is the prisoner who attempted to escape from the Ogden jail last night. He is now in safe custody and will probably make no attempts to saw his way out of the state bastille.

AMUSEMENTS.

One of the most dire tragedies that was ever portrayed upon the stage is that of Francesca da Rimini. And as tonight the Salt Lake Theater last night it is scarcely less real than the actual tragedies of life. It is doubtful if Ward and James ever gave a greater performance of any production at any time or place than they gave last night of this awful chapter of love, hate, hate, love, suspicions, confidences, intrigues and murder. It is a safe proclamation that it will remain longer and more vividly upon the minds of the great audience that witnessed it than any other similar play that has been seen in Salt Lake in years. That it should have been believed by these giant exponents of dramatic art for so long is difficult to conceive; for it is one of the most powerful renditions of their repertoire. If indeed it must not be rated as the best of them all, Mr. Ward's Lancelotto was so perfect, so marvellously done as to almost awe the audience and when his brother Paolo, played by Norman Hackett, entreated him in the kindness of the soul, to look up, and the reply came that he could not, for the reason that God in giving him a misshapen form had made it impossible, the intensity of the silence was such as is seldom seen in any theater. Then came a scene that must remain memorable in the history of the grand old play house as the actor was called again and again before the curtain. But Mr. Ward, polished actor, the true diamond that he is, is not alone entitled to praise. Probably no man living could have made more of Pope, Marston's jests, than did Mr. James. From first to last he divided honors with his friend and theatrical trotting mate in a manner that gave all to understand that there were two great delineators of the quip upon the stage. Then there were others who held their parts splendidly. They were Hackett, who is a finished as well as a handsome actor, and Miss Maxwell, the latter was most exquisite creations of the dressmaker's art. The play goes again tonight and tomorrow afternoon. The engagement closes in tomorrow.

CUTICURA SOAP

The World's Greatest Skin Soap.

The Standard of Every Nation of the Earth.

Sale Greater Than the World's Product of Other Skin Soaps.

Sold Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching and chafings, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for alcoholic weaknesses, and many sanitary, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of dower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however popular, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Thus it combines in one soap at one price the best skin and complexion soap and the best toilet and baby soap ever compounded. Sale greater than the world's product of all other skin soaps. Sold in every part of the civilized world.

night and will be succeeded by "Corlinton," which opens at the Theater on Thursday evening.

All things considered a fairly good performance of "Corlinton" was given in the Provo opera house last night. There was a large attendance which might have taxed the capacity of the house to the utmost had it not been that the management had seen fit to raise the rates. As it was, however, the house was a very good one and from expressions heard after the performance the play seemed to give satisfaction. Miss Boyer appeared to good advantage in the role of Zola de Lohel and received the plaudits of the audience for her excellent work. Mr. Ethier as Corlinton maintained his reputation as a finished emotional actor, while Mr. Percival as Shilton, Mr. Seerie as Santum, Mr. Johnson as Korhor, and Miss La Due as Rella all did exceptionally well. Aside from delays between acts, due, as was explained, to a lack of room behind the scenes, the performance passed off very smoothly and all went home satisfied that they had had the worth of their money. There was a matinee this afternoon at popular prices and tonight's performance closes the engagement in that city, after which the company comes to Salt Lake.
