Ogden, Utah, Jan. 6 .- The fourth annual show of the Ogden Poulttry and Pet Stock association was opened yesterday in the Brown Palace block, formerly occupied by the Pastime theater on Washington avenue near the Utah National bank. According to W. W. Browning, the official judge, and a recognized authority on poultry throughout the west, the show is, in its general features, better than any show yet given by the association. While the varieties of poultry put on exhibition are not so numerous as in some other years, there is a keener competition in the standard breeds-breeds that have been found, best adapted for this locality, and the raising of which has been placed on a scientific basis. A notable feature is the absence of all "Orientals"-Brahmas, Cochins the

The Salt Lake exhibitors are getting the best of the Ogden poultry fanciers this year in regard to a number of the breeds. The prizes in other years have gone for the most part to Ogden exhibitors, but this year a number of Salt Lakers stepped in and secured a lot of the prizes. One of the most successful pens was that of Roger Powers, son of 0, W. Powers of Salt Lake, which received five prizes. This was in the Plymouth Rock class. The judging was completed last night and it was found that this fine collection of five fouls had received first prize on pen, first, second and third on pullet and second on cockerel. George White of Farr West took first on cockerel and second on pen. In this same class H. Oborn took third prize on cockerel and Roy Wilson took first, second and third on hen and third on pen.

BERT STONE PECOVERING.

Bert Stone, who shot himself in the head a few days ago with a 22 caliber rifle, now has a good chance for re-covery. The latest report from the hospital is that he spoke for the first time yesterday and although his con-dition is still very serious, he will in all probability regain consciousness and get well.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS. L. H. Murdock, George Frye and J. H. Hammer are about to start a new cafe in the rooms formerly occupied by Gallacher's trunk factory on Twentyfifth street. Frank Lee, the Chinaman who was Immigration Inspector T. J. Longley, had a hearing last night before United States Commissioner Thomas Maloney and was released. The Chinaman went by the name of Frank Lee, and the claim of the government was that he came to this country as a student and then gave up his studies to start in the restaurant business. Lee proved that he was still studying, but found it necessary to work to support himself, and the commissioner refused to bind him over. Judge John D. Murphy yesterday suspended sentence in the case of James Jeffries, charged with assaulting Fred Winslow. He also gave Winslow, the complaining witness, a lecture, saying that both men were to blame.

John Alchoison, janitor. Road supervisors were appointed as follows: T. W. Obray, Paradise; O. P. Oison, Hyrun; Horton Hammond, Prov-idence; M. J. Andrews, Logan; George Godrey, Clarkston; John Eingham, Trenton; J. C. Larsen, Coverlie. The county is divided into three road districts. Commissionar, Hardricks to districts, Commissioner Hendricks to have charge of the precincts in the north end of the county; Commissioner Knowles, those in the center, and Com missioner Darley those in the south end

The salary list was discussed and those of deputy assessor, deputy treas uver, were placed at $60 per month, and leputy sheriffs at $30 per month. It was decided to let the sheriff or cupy the office vacated by Judge Hart and allow the assessor and superinten-dent of schools to occupy the room now cupled by the sheriff

There is a very lively contest for the positions of county physician and game warden. The friends of Dr. Parkinson, the present physician, are working fo his reappointment, while Drs. Budg and Cutler are working hard for it. R B. Thornley has acted as game warder for two years and wants to be reappointed. There is a good deal of poli-tics entering into the contest. Much more, in fact, than the importance of the office justifies. The commissioners do not seem to be in any hurry to get into the muddle and may postpone action indefinitely. H. Bullen of the state land board is here today selling a large amount of state lands, and a large number of people are here to buy.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

, The city council met in regular ses-sion last night, President Lindquist in the chair.

Last Friday Joseph Hanson, one of our highly respected young citizens, came home to spend the holidays with his family and friends. The next day his family and friends. The next day he was laid low, suffering from append-icitis. The doctor was summoned, and after he had examined him, said it would be necessary to bring him to Salt Lake City for an operation, which Hansen objected to. Since then he has been nursed with the greatest care, and in new preprint inwards access and is now progressing towards recov.
