THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER

OF THE WEST.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The 3-year-old daughter of J. R. Wilson of Murray, was killed in the head Saturday by a horse, and very badly injured.

The Eleventh quorum of Elders will meet in the Twenty-third ward meeting house tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All Elders of the quorum should attend. L. M. Iverson, president.

Bishop Heber C. Iverson will address the Fourteenth quorum of Elders at the regular monthly meeting in the Fifth ward assembly room tonight. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock and all members of the quorum are urged to be present.

Mrs. E. E. Shepherd has returned from Nevada and will remain in the city instead of removing to Reno. She conducted yesterday morning's meeting of the State Prison Christian Endeavor, and told how the Carson E. deavors were conducted in the Nevada state prison. Miss Grace Davis gave a poetical recitation, and Miss Benz of the Summer school spoke. It was tremendously interesting, and the prisoners were much interested. The attendance was 55 out of a prison population of 140.

At the conjoint session of the Mutual Improvement convention to be held in this city on Sunday next, Walter J. Poulton Jr. has kindly consented to act as accompanist, while at the young men's afternoon meeting President George H. Wallace of the Twenty-first ward association will present on "Class Work." In lieu of William Atkin, who, owing to other duties, finds it impossible to comply with the request made. In addition to the accompanist, the special missionaries are also invited to attend the meetings.

The Ladies' Literary club, to show an active interest in the educational life of the community, has arranged for three Perry lectures for Oct. 28, 29 and 31. The general subject of the lectures will be "Books and Their Makers." In them an opportunity is given to trace definitely the process of printing, illustrating and book making from ancient times to the present day. A great number of stereotyped views accompany the lecture and also an interesting exhibition of rare, choice and curious books in Mr. Perry's wonderful collection.

Absent mindedness is sometimes very inconvenient. Maj. Allen so found it Saturday. He stopped at the Biograph for lunch, at which time he had $25 in his pocketbook. After finishing his meal he took therefrom $5 with which to pay for the lunch. After receiving the change, the major put the same in his pocket. But for the life of him he cannot tell what he did with the pocketbook. Whether he left it on the table and walked off without it, or left it somewhere else, he cannot tell, but suppose he left it in the restaurant. Anyway it is gone, and no one knows where.

Rev. Dr. McIntosh, a prominent Presbyterian divine, formerly pastor at Belfast, Me., and at Philadelphia, and now professor of theology at the Presbyterian theological seminary in California, preached last evening in the First Presbyterian church, on "The Greatest Find Ever Made," as chronicled in the first chapter of John's Gospel. "We have found Him of whom Moses in the law and the prophets did write." The discourse was a graphic portrayal of the historic features and the lessons to be deduced from the life of Jesus from incidents in the morning service was the singing of Bonad's "Ave Maria," with the words adapted to Protestant service, by Miss Emily C. Jessup, with violin obbligato by George E. Skelton.

PARDON FOR HARRY DUKE.

That is What Friends of the Former Bank Cashier Have Asked.

The application for the pardon of Harry T. Duke, who is serving a four-years' sentence in the state prison for embezzlement, will be heard by the state board of pardons next Saturday, Sept. 19. It has been rumored for some time that Duke would ask for a pardon, and that the application has been filed is not a surprise to many. It is reported that Duke's friends have secured a position for him with some mining company and if his pardon is granted he will enter at once upon the duties of that position.

HEBER CITY.

TWO PIONEERS GONE TO REST

Delegates to Convention—Teachers Employed News Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Heber City, Wasatch Co., Sept. 13.—Grim reaper death has taken from our midst another of our old and respected citizens. Last Wednesday night the spirit of Aunt Jane Clyde (so-called) was called hence. She was the widow of George Clyde, who preceded her three years ago.

Jane McDonald Clyde was born at Crawford's Burn, Ireland, July 17, 1827 where the early days of her youth were spent. In 1842, she, together with her mother, brother, four brothers, and three sisters) united with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and soon after left their home for the Gospel and emigrated to America, reaching Nauvoo in the early spring of 1844, after a tedious voyage of six weeks.

They were at Nauvoo at the time of the Prophet's death and experienced many privations and hardships incident to the persecution and expulsion of the Saints from that city.

In the summer of 1845 the family started for Utah. Her father died of cholera on the way and was buried on the banks of the Platte river.

They moved to Springfield on Sept. 20, 1851, where they were married to George W. Clyde.

In 1859, she with her husband and family, came to Heber, where she has since resided. She was the mother of nine children, six of whom are living—four grand-children and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the state meeting house on Friday, 13th inst. A large procession of vehicles followed the remains to the cemetery.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.

On Friday morning Daniel A. Sessions' spirit took its flight to the great beyond. He was born in Wayne county, Illinois, was a son of Richard and Lucinda Sessions, who moved to Nauvoo in 1840, and with the family were expelled from there by a ruthless mob in the spring of 1846.

The family came on with the Saints to Council Bluffs and when the Mormon Battalion was organized for defense against the Mexicans in 1846, the father and two sons enlisted to serve their country. Richard, John and Bradley enlisted, leaving Daniel A. with the family of mother and eight children. He being about 15 years of age at that time, had about all the care he could give to the family.

The family moved to Utah in the spring of 1850 and wintered in Salt Lake City 1850-1. They moved to Provo in the fall of 1851, went through the many hardships of settling Provo City.

Daniel A. Sessions was in his 75th year, leaves a wife and large family to mourn his demise. Funeral to be held Sunday, Sept. 15, at 4 p. m.

Mrs. Sessions was a pioneer of the valley, being one of the families of 17 that stood the hardships and braving the first winter here in 1850-51, which was very severe. From Christmas to the first week in March one continual freeze up. Being shut in and isolated from all outside world.

DELEGATED APPOINTED.

The following well known gentlemen were appointed as delegates to the convention at Ogden:

For county—J. W. Clyde and J. R. Murdock.

For City of Heber—A. Hatch and H. H. Harts.

North Ogden—John Crook, Lake Creek—George Muir and James Hatch.

Wasatch Canal—Wm. Buys and Jon. Moulton.

Strawberry Creek—F. O. Bull, Willow Creek—T. S. Watson.

NEW TEACHERS SECURED.

The schools open here on Monday, the 14th inst. with a full corps of teachers, three of which have been called from Provo's cream of teachers. They being Misses Alta John, Lizzie Thatcher and Louisa Raymond. These ladies with the competent pedagogues already employed gives Heber City a good school system as can be found in any town of its size in the state. The Provo ladies are said to be experts in seventh grade, second grade and beginners' work and all round good teachers.

only a sewing machine ditched and put out of commission.

Sheep are still being sent east, some 12,000 head were shipped last week. One week ago today two companies of United States artillery passed through Heber on their way to Strawberry, the camp ground for their annual target shooting and general drill practice.

Judge and Mrs. Hatch of New York are here on a visit with their cousin, our ex-president Abraham Hatch.

John P. Buel of St. Joe, Mo., is visiting our fellow townsman Mr. Fred O. Buel.

Last Friday and Saturday a pretty heavy rain fell and on Saturday evening and night while with the first snow of the season.

Mr. Frank Olsen, a popular traveling man of the Co-op Wagon and Machine company dropped in on Saturday to visit our farmers and local agency.

D. P. Felt of Salt Lake was in town today.

POOR LITTLE BABE.

It Was Deserted by Mrs. Fehr, Who Went With Riotous Companions.

The disappearance of Mrs. Fehr, an account of which appeared in Friday evening's "News," has been cleared up by the police. The woman was found in a roominghouse carousing with a number of friends. It appears that when she left her home she had a three-month-old baby in her arms, but when she came down town and began drinking the little one was forgotten and was left in the street.

A police station by a woman with whom it had been left by Mrs. Fehr, which she had not a chance to see. The police were notified and found the baby had been given to her by a woman who had been left by Mrs. Fehr. The baby was found in the arms of a woman who had been left by Mrs. Fehr. The baby was found in the arms of a woman who had been left by Mrs. Fehr.

Quarterly Conference.

The people have just enjoyed a quarterly conference held at Juarez, where they were honored by a visit from Elder Rudger Clawson of the Apostles' quorum. Elder J. W. McMurtin of the Seventies and Sister Aggie Campbell of the Y. W. M. I. A. board. Those living here had to travel 150 miles to attend conference, but they do not regret the trouble and expense of the journey.

NEWS EVENTS.

This has been a very prosperous year for the Saints in this land. We have had an abundance of fruit, and the potato and wheat crops have turned out well; it is said the corn crop will not be so good, owing to the lack of rain.

The academy commencing the fall course today with a full corps of efficient teachers, under the management of Prof. Charles Fillipson.

Mr. Ernest Romney, Miss Dora Jackson, Mr. Charles Whitney, Miss Caldwell-waider Johnson, Mr. Henry Galbraith and Miss Libby Sanders, all prominent young people, expect to leave for Salt Lake City in a short time to be married in the Temple.

The "News" is our most welcome via. and I believe it is given by every family in the colony and is a paper for the Latter-day Saints to be proud of.

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

A SEEMING MIRACLE.

Grand Encampment, Wyo., Sept. 14.—A catastrophe which might have resulted in the death of 200 men was averted by a seeming miracle at the time.

A freight wagon loaded with 10 tons of giant powder overturned near the mouth of the mine and rolled down the steep embankment, but did not explode. Both shifts of men, about 200 in number, were in the shaft house close by at the time.
