THE HENEFIT. -Remember the benedit the esteemed and favorite actor, Mr. W. Robert Emmet, and The Six Degrees of rime. The Camp Douglas Brass Band will be in attendance. We hopethere will e a bumper house.

LEST THIS MORNING. - Elider Albert arrangton left this magning for Liverpool, assume the position to which he was appointed last Conference, as successor to Pader Horace S. Eldredge, President of the European Mission, Brother Carringwill stay a short time at Omaha, where he has gone one day shead of Elder George Reynolds and the other missionaries, in rder to make arrangements for the transit the entire party from that point.

In Town. - Augustus Laver, Esq., archi tect of the New York State capitol, Albany, and the new Law Courts and City Hall of van Francisco, which latter are now in prowas of construction under his supervisor ship, is in fown and staying at the Townsand House,

Lost. -Oh Sunday, April 30th, between the 16th and 19th Wards, a lady's fur cape. Will the finder please leave it at this office, and oblige one of our typos.

LOGAN .- A Logan correspondent, Mr. William Palmer, writes as follows, under date of April 28th: "A progressive spirit is being manifested by the citizens of Legan which is truly commendable. Everybody seems to be busy, and to display a determination to beautify their dwellings, improve their gardens, and remove all obtion is beginning to develop trail more LADIES! tion is beginning to develop itself more treaty among the people here. Parents are beginning to realize the necessity of securng the services of competent teachers. adividuals of experience who are acquaintat with human nature, and possess the positions to discern the judinations rounpt to encourage what tends to the decalopment of moral and intellectual facili-It is an admitted feet that the earliest tabits are the most lasting, hence the inis way he should go, &c ," and Pope says:

The education forms the common mind, ust as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.

These statements in connection with our wn observation should prompt us to be ory particular in selecting teachers and not engage individuals as teachers simply because they have a "book education which, though necessary forms but a small portion of the accomplishments requisite or the performance of such an important luty as educating and instructing the

THE ESCAPED PRISONERS.—The prison ars who escaped from Camp Douglas on the night of Friday last, have been heard from. They were seen in Partey's Park, on their way to Echo, on Sunday, by two gentlemen. Information of the fact soon reached Gen. Morrow who, at 8 o'clock that evening, dispatched a company of cavalry in pursuit. Marshal Patrick also left, by train, for Elcho, at which place the prisoners were on Sunday night, and two of their number left on the cars for the East, yesterday morning. The others at last accounts were still in the vicinity of Echo, but there is every probability of their soon being retaken, as a number of HENRY LAWRENCE, the inhabitants of Coalville have turned out H. R. MANN, Manager. to assist in their discovery and capture.

WANDERING.-The officers of this city have received a letter from William H. i.ee, of Woodruff, under date of April 25. stating that a young man, who gave his name as Quayie and who appeared to be in-sane, had recently arrived there. He was unable to tell where he lived, and had with him a mule with saddle on. This letter was immediately placed in the hands of the father of the young man, who, we understand, lives in the 7th Ward of this city, and steps will at once be taken to bring him to town. He is the same crazy person who, last fall, set fire to the slaughor House on Arsenal Hill. Woodruff, where he now is, is the first settlement he low Evansion, in Bear River Valley.

GENERAL STOCK DRIVE .- A notice will be found in another column about the general stock drive to-morrow. All interested had | be carried at a fair rates better read it.

The stock will be driven into President Young's field, north east of Jordan Bridge, -morrow morning.

IN OMAHA. - The Omaha Republican, of April 28th, has the following about Col. iray, who was la this city a few days

"Col Gray, General Immigration Agent, who has been on a visit to Salt Fake to arrange for the reception of large numbers of "tourtionists now forming East, returned visiorday. He is delighted with the trip, and reports Salt Lake City continually full invertiowing, the Townsend House, the argust and the finest in the city, being fillof to its utmost especity every day. The excurtionists on route for California all make a visit from Ogden to Salt Lake; and such is the heavy amount of passenger iminess being done by the Utah Central Kallway that it is faxed to its utmost. Nevertheless, Superintendent Little is working his road capitally. The increase in business into Salt Lake puts a pleasant antile upon this companions of all the necessity of the companions of all the necessity. stuite upon the countenances of all the people of the Mormon Capital.

THE NEW MEAT MARKET. - Severe men have been at work to-day removing trees from and otherwise preparing the site of the new Ment Market, on the corner of the Van Cott lot. We understand that the City Council has abandoned the idea of creeting a temporary market on the back part of the lot, but will put a permanent building on the corner. An effort will be made to have it completed within a few works.
