Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate with a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. FOOTE of New York, the well known specialist, as abundantly proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an exposé made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the well known author. Mr. JOHN F. TROW, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor ERASTUS FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAM WAKEMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surveyor of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of FOOTE, excepting Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. FOOTE, JR., and Dr. HERBERT T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. FOOTE, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. FOOTE, JR. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. FOOTE personally or to order remedies should address either

DR. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr.,

DAVIS STAKE CONFERENCE.

FARMINGTON, Sept. 7th, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

At the Quarterly Conference of Davis Stake, held in Brother Thomas Spackman's grove at Farmington, on the 5th and 6th of September, we were favored with the presence of Apostle F. D. Richards, John Henry Smith and H. J. Grant, Elders S. B. Young and B. H. Roberts, as also the Stake Presidency and local authorities.

The Bishops' reports of the people were as good as usual.

The subjects mainly treated on were the evidence of the divinity of the Book of Mormon; the effects of apostacy from the true Church, and the causes leading thereto, and the fact was also made clear that no amount of testimony nor great natural endowments can enable a person to retain a standing in the kingdom of God if his heart is allowed to go after evil.

The people seemed to enter into and enjoy the spirit of the Conference as well as of any that has been held in the Stake.

Respectfully yours,
J. H. WILCOX, Clerk.

A DISPUTED HONOR.

SOUTH BOUNTIFUL,
September 5, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

In your semi-weekly of Sept. 1st, in mentioning the "Hero Waltz," by Mrs. Flora S. Hill, you say: "This is, we believe, the first lady among the Latter-day Saints who has undertaken musical composition." This is a mistake; I have set pieces to music, at different times, since the year 1860, when I composed music to the words: "Sunlight of the household," "Jeannie Morrison," and others. The latter song Prof. C. J. Thomas himself wrote down from my singing and playing, in St. George. I have published only one piece, in the Primary Tune Book—"The Primary Army," and one year or more ago, I called on Mr. Daynes to learn terms for publishing one or more pieces. My latest songs are "Five o'clock in the morning," "Spring fever," "Blind Ned," and "A Crimean Song."

I have no doubt Sister Flora S. Hill's compositions are far in advance of mine, for she is a teacher of acknowledged ability, while I am only an improvisatrice, singing from my spirit and committing it to the instrument and to memory; still they are musical compositions.

Very respectfully,
AUGUSTA JOYCE CROCHERON.

POLITICS IN IDAHO.

THE REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE PLAYING THE ANTI-"MORMON" GAME.

Pursuant to call a meeting of the Republican Territorial Central Committee was held at Shoshone on Sept. 3d. An unusually large attendance was present, the largest probably of any Territorial committee meeting ever before held in Idaho. The best of feeling prevailed and the utmost harmony was displayed.

After dispatching the ordinary routine business the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the members of the Republican Territorial Central Committee, realizing that the most vital and only political issue affecting the Territory at large is the destruction of the power of the Mormon Church in Idaho, and while we have maintained this as a fundamental principle of the Republican party, we are not unmindful of the fact that the vantage ground now occupied by our party is owing to the patriotic and advanced stand taken by the anti-Mormon Democrats of the Territory. And in view of the fact that there are no Republican or Democratic party organizations in several of the counties in this Territory, but that the friends of free government therein are united in common anti-Mormon organizations, therefore be it

Resolved, That we invite the anti-Mormon organizations of the Territory to unite with us in the future in all conferences and conventions, and in the selection of candidates and annunciation of principles to the end that free institutions in this Territory may be preserved from the encroachments of the theocratic government of Utah Territory.

Resolved, That by the acts of certain republican officials in undertaking to compromise the true principles of republicanism and by certain un-republican and disgraceful combinations, sought for personal ends, tending to bring the party into bad repute in bartering away the influence of the party to secure Mormon strength for local measures, we feel called upon to disavow said officials and their said acts as tending to destroy the success of the party in the future; and also to denounce the course of a so-called leading republican newspaper in supporting said acts.

Resolved, That we heartily sanction and endors the action of the chairman of this committee in combatting and opposing the efforts of a certain combination who, from personal motives, would rupture the Republican party and jeopardize its success in the future.

Resolved, That while we deprecate the temporary Mormon triumph achieved principally through the efforts of our Democratic delegate in Congress in the removal of Chief Justice John T. Morgan, accomplished as it was by perjury and ex parte affidavits, and while we denounce the said removal as a gross violation of the civil service rules and the public professions of the administration, yet we congratulate the loyal citizens of Idaho, irrespective of party upon the frustration of the Mormon conspiracy in the appointment of a successor who, in spite of partisan pressure, has already given evidence of his determination to sustain law and decency.—Boise Republican.

EXPRESSIONS FROM THE PEOPLE.

A WORD OF CONSOLATION.

September 2nd, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

There seem to be a feeling among some, and I presume it has more or less infected our brethren who have been made a target for hatred and prejudice, that we are a feeling of loneliness, akin to that which the boy feels when thrown in to deep water for the first time.

Well, be it so, such a feeling is right and proper. We must sink or swim by our own exertions; those who strike out boldly and fear not are very apt to float, while the timid and fearful are sure to sink. Let all remember, high and low, rich and poor, you who are clothed with a little brief authority as well as those who linger in tyrants' chains, we have who is mightier than all, and one who never fails to come up on time. Why should we care for any other? With Him on our side we are able to cope with ten thousand millions. This world is but transitory; in short, but a shadow—this and nothing more. Then what should we fear, surely not a shadow? Let them bark and howl and work themselves up to a pitch of frenzy.

"By the gods, you shall digest the venom of your spleen, though it do split you, for, from this day forth I'll use you for my mirth, yea, for my laughter, when you are waspish."

Talk about putting down polygamy, extinguishing faith! As well talk about stopping the lightning or the rain from falling. If such fools were capable of sensing the thousandth part of the contempt they inspire, they would pray for some one to bury them.

The God of Israel is running this world, though some slimy worms imagine they do, and He does not require any help. He does not stand in need of any favors, and what is more,

HE UNDERSTANDS HIS BUSINESS.

Fear not, you that are poor in spirit and in the friendship of this world. Be of good cheer, firm and faithful to God's given truths. Bravely bear up, though worldly hopes go down.

"Let the sword of truth be boldly drawn and in the name of right, walk firmly on, so shall life's very ills bow to the triumph of thy conquering will."

We find recorded in John's testimony, xiv, 12: "Verily, verily, I say unto you he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do, because I go to my father. Let us look up to our Standard Bearer. He stands this world for himself, and he is going to have the honor of regulating it according to his own pleasure, the impuissant arrogance of man notwithstanding. EVANGELIST.

Phrenologist—"Your bump of imagination is abnormally large, sir. You should write poetry." Citizen—"I do write poetry. Only yesterday I took a poem to an editor and that bump you are feeling is where he hit me. Don't bear on so hard."—New York Sun.

The spirit of liberty is not merely, as some people imagine, a jealousy of our own particular rights, but a respect for the rights of others and an unwillingness that any man, whether high or low, should be wronged and trampled under foot.—Channing.

Horned toads are selling at 50 cents apiece in California. A horned toad is a species of bric-a-brac that has not yet been counterfeited by the ingenuity of the eastern Yankee, and when you buy one of the reptiles the chances are that it is genuine. It is different with Egyptian mummies and Chinese idols. They are made in New York.

"You say this man disturbed the meeting when you were right in the middle of your sermon, parson?"

"He did, Your Honor. He and those with him were so unruly that I found it impossible to proceed with the services."

"Hum! serious offense—very."

"It was exceedingly wicked behavior."

"Were you acquainted with him?"

"I married him two years ago."

"Ah h-h! I see. An old grudge!"—Detroit Journal.

We put a drop of alchol into a man's eye. It poisons it. We try it upon the lining of a living stomach. Again it poisons it. We study, after death, the stomachs of drinking men, and find alcohal produces in regular stages redness, intence congestion, morbid secretions, deeper hurt, destruction of parts, utter ruin. We study its influence upon the health and strength of sailors and soldiers, and find it helps to freeze them in the arctic regions, and exhaust them in the tropics. We watch two regiments on a long march in India, one with and the other without grog, and are driven to the conclusion that even moderate quantites of alcohol weaken the muscles and break the endurance. We visit the training grounds of oarsmen, pedestrians, and prizefighters, and learn everywhere the same lesson—alcohol is a poison to muscle and brain.—Dio Lewis.
