THE CORNER STONE

Of the Ogden Union Depot Laid Yesterday.

The Junction City was all astir yesterday. For years the great railways centering there had promised a commodious depot for the traveling public, but the matter was deferred from time to time till there scarcely seemed to be a vestige of hope left. But Ogden's thrifty business men went to work and labor ed with the railway officials

Change in Idaho Tactics.

Yesterday there was somewhat of a change in the situation in Idaho, owing to a decision given by Judge Berry A man named Helm, who had withdrawn from the Mormon Church, was arrested at Rexburg. He was brought before the Probate Judge, who held him to answer to the charge of perjury. He declined to give bail, and was brought before Judge Berry on a writ of habeas corpus. It was shown that he had withdrawn from the Church before registering, and after hearing the case, Judge Berry ordered Helm discharged. This virtually settles, for the time being, the mestion as to those who are in a sim-question as to those who are in a sim-ilar situation to Helm. Whether the election judges will abide by the decision is yet unknown. The fact that deputy sheriffs are on hand to arrest ex-"Mormons" who at-tempt to vote, and that deputy mar-shals are present to arrest the sheriffs and all who aid them, causes serious doubts as to what will be the next result when a collision occurs.

The cut of 50 cents to Ogden yesterday created some little stir in railway circles. The reason the D. & R. G. gives for its course is that the Utah Central took the Masons up free.
