XLVIII CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 4.—Bills reported and referred:

By Mitchell—Granting a pension to Gen. Grant.

Cameron, of Pennsylvania, submitted the following, which he desired to lie over and be printed:

WHEREAS, The shipping trade on American vessels is depressed, and the export trade in American produce is languishing for want of a market that might be reached if the shipping trade was in the hands of citizens of the United States; therefore,

Resolved, That the committee on finance be and is hereby directed to inquire whether it be expedient to expend the surplus revenue, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of reviving the shipping and export trade by allowing a rebate from tariff duties on foreign goods imported in ships built and owned in the United States, and by also allowing a premium on American-grown products and articles of American manufacture exported in American vessels, and report by bill or otherwise.

Cameron will call up the resolution at an early day.

Hill submitted the following:

Resolved, That in the existing depressed condition of the industrial interests of the country, and in the presence of the great fall which has taken place and is still in progress in the wages of labor and the prices of products of farms, workshops and mines, the recommendation of the President and the Secretary of the Treasury, that the coinage of silver dollars and the issue of silver certificates be prohibited, are calculated to create alarm, and thereby aggravate the difficulties of the situation; and that the public mind may be quieted by the assurance that if the total volume of currency is not to be enlarged in correspondence with the increasing population and exchanges of the country, it shall not, at least, be reduced by suspending the coinage of silver dollars; the Senate declares that no valid reason exists at the present time for imposing any new and additional restrictions upon either the coinage of silver dollars or the issue of silver certificates.

The resolution was laid over, and Hill will call it up the first opportunity.

The bill providing for the national regulation of inter-State commerce was made a special order for Thursday next.

After the executive session, the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 4.—Bills introduced and referred: By Morrison—Relative to surplus revenue. [That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to apply the surplus revenues at any time in the treasury in excess of $100,000,000 not otherwise appropriated, to the redemption of U. S. bonds, and when any of said bonds are redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, it shall not be lawful to apply a portion of said surplus to the purchase of bonds at a premium.]

By Cox of New York—Requesting the President to furnish information showing authority of law by which certain Comodores of the navy have been given the rank of acting Rear Admirals, when it is alleged no vacancies existed in the legal and limited number of officers of that grade; and also what public emergency, if any, existed to justify such action.

By J. D. Taylor of Ohio—To prohibit the removal of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine, or any widow or dependent relative of the same from any office in the civil service of the United States, except for specified causes.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the inter-State commerce bill.

Anderson supported the Reagan substitute, contending it would furnish the people substantial protection against the extortion of railroad companies, though he did not think its provisions stringent enough. He doubted whether they would be effectual in preventing the system of pooling, which practically placed the producers of the country at the mercy of Gould, Vanderbilt nd Huntington. If the attempts so successfully made heretofore by railroad capitalists should prevent legislation in the States in this House, or in the Senate if they should enter the Supreme Court to prevent just legislation—the people would damn them. Capital would then be brought face to face, not with the thinking men of the country, but with the mob. Capital itself has more at stake in requiring equitable railroad legislation than the farmers and producers had.

Shively, of Indiana, Calkins' successor, announced his emphatic approval of the object sought to be attained by the pending bill and the Reagan substitute, and his equally emphatic approval of the substitute as compared with the measure reported by the committee. He doubted the propriety of creating a commission, and conferring upon it power as great as that exercised by the greatest despot on earth, and he pointed out that danger would surely follow the concentration of that power in the hands of a few men.

Hopkins submitted a constitutional argument upon the power of Congress to legislate upon the subject of inter-State commerce, maintaining and affirming the proposition, and proceeded to detail the evils which the measure now pending was designed to correct.

Without further action the House adjourned till Monday.

POWDER EXPLOSION — CONVICTIONS IN ARIZONA.

Governor Cleveland Warmly Welcomed at the Academy of Music.

ALBANY, 4.—Gov. Cleveland and party, consisting of his sister, Miss Cleveland, Private Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Hon. and Mrs. Bissert Hanna, the Misses Banks, Miss Van Schaicken, Hon. and Mrs. Eurastus Corning, Miss Sheffelin and Col. W. Cassidy, left here on a special train in a private car at 11 o'clock this morning, to attend the Actors' Fund benefit in New York.

New York, 4.—The Actors' Fund benefit at the Academy of Music this afternoon was one of the most successful affairs that ever occurred in New York. Much of the eclat belonging to it was, of course, due to the presence of Governor Cleveland, who, on this occasion, attended a public entertainment for the first time since his election to the Presidency. The vast auditorium was literally packed; hundreds of persons entered the lobby only to be able to get within six feet of the inner doors. Every theatrical person of eminence in town occupied a box. President-elect Cleveland had a cordial welcome at every station between Albany and New York. The president of the Actors' Association and Mayor Edson and Marshal Grace led a great throng of people received Cleveland at the depot.

His welcome in the Academy was of the wildest kind. The President expressed a wish to meet the artists engaged in the several performances. Joe Jefferson, however, had left for Philaselphia, and Irving and Terry had gone to their hotel. A committee then drove in hot haste to the Brevoort House, and as quickly returned with Irving, who was presented to the President-elect, and was warmly grasped by both hands. Governor Cleveland expressed regret at not meeting Terry and Jefferson. He returned to Albany at 5 o'clock. Police guarded Cleveland's box during his stay in the Academy, preventing the entry of either politicians or interviewers. The day's proceedings benefited the Actors' Fund $10,000.

The Actors' Fund benefit in Baltimore was fairly attended.

Pittsburg, 4.—The net receipts of the Actors' Fund benefit at the Opera House this afternoon, were $1,082.

National News.

WASHINGTON, 4.—The Springer committee on expenditures in the Department of Justice, which, by order of the House, is to continue the investigation of the appointment and employment of deputy marshals in Cincinnati at the October election, will go to work shortly. Investigation will be begun in Washington, where a number of witnesses will be examined, and then the committee will go to Cincinnati. The following witnesses have been summoned to appear and testify before the committee here: James W. Donnelly, disbursing clerk of the General Land Office; Moses B. C. Wright, clerk in the Pension Office; E. C. Ford, also clerk in the Pension Office, and John Wright of the Postoffice Department; George McElfresh, ex-detective; Charles Hurley, ex-fireman, and Wm. Kavanaugh—all of Washington. These, it is claimed, were made deputies in Cincinnati on election day. Ex-Senator Powell Clayton of Arkansas will also be summoned. Several residents of St. Louis, local republican politicians, have been summoned to appear; among them H. L. Rogers, Henry Mainstre and Barney Higgins.

Representative Hopkins' bill to establish the office of government architect provides that the President shall appoint a government architect, to hold office four years, who shall receive an annual salary of $——. Whenever the erection of a public building shall be determined upon, the architect shall advertise for competitive plans and specifications, accompanied with estimates of the cost, which shall be submitted, together with the architect's own recommendations, to a board composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, Postmaster-General, Secretary of the Interior and Attorney-General. The plan approved by the board shall be carried out in the construction of the building, and no change shall be allowed except with the sanction of the board, on recommendation of the government architect. The architect whose plans are adopted shall receive the usual compensation.—The bill provides that the office of Supervising Architect of the Treasury and Architect of the Capitol shall cease to exist April 1st, 1885.

Delegates representing the clerks of postoffices throughout the country called upon Postmaster-General Hatton to lay before him a proposition to classify postoffice clerks and place them on an equality with clerks in other branches of the government service. The delegates brought with them the draft of a bill intended to secure these results, and the Postmaster General suggested that they cause the bill to be introduced in Congress, when he would pass opinion upon its merits.

To the representatives of the Philadelphia letter-carriers, who seek to secure the benefits of the eight-hour law, Hatton to-day formally reported that the department never held that the eight-hour law applied to letter-carriers, and, without considering the legal aspect of the case, was of the opinion that the department could not move in the matter without a clear definition of the act by Congress.

The bill introduced by Glasscock to declare the meaning of certain provisions of the Chinese restriction act, passed last session, provides that the action prohibiting the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States within a period of ten years after the passage of the act shall not apply to Chinese laborers who were in the United States November 17, 1880, or to those who came into the United States before the expiration of 90 days after the passage of the act to which the act of July last was amendatory, and who have continued their residence therein. Any Chinese merchant residing in the United States, or who may hereafter reside therein, when leaving the United States shall have the right to demand and receive from the collector of the district within which he may reside, a certificate of identification similar to that prescribed for Chinese laborers.

Sheffield, the new Senator from Rhode Island, has been appointed to membership on the committee on claims, mines and mining, revolutionary claims and woman suffrage; Sabin to committee on examining several branches of the civil services; Dawes to the committee on naval affairs; Slater, committee on Indian affairs; Morgan, committee on fish and fisheries, and Manderson, chairmanship of the committee on printing.

In the Swaim court-martial to-day, counsel for accused opened the line of defense that the stock transactions between Swaim and Bateman & Co. were illegal, because there was no actual transfer of stock, and that any pretended claim of Bateman & Co. upon General Swaim for losses in these transactions could not be recovered in a court of law, as no actual shares of stock ever came into Swaim's possession, neither actually or constructively.

Prof. Alexander De Wolowski, recently charged by his daughter Isabel with criminal assault, was found dead in his house this morning, having committed suicide during the night. He left letters to different people, among them one to the President and one to Secretary Lincoln, dated 11 o'clock last night, protesting his innocence and declaring that he died to save his daughter's honor.

Robinson, of New York has prepared a resolution, which he will offer on Monday, providing for a return to simplicity in inauguration ceremonies—as practiced by Jefferson. It prohibits the erection of triumphal arches and the display of bayonets in Washington on inauguration day, and provides that the chief justice shall call upon the President-elect and accompany him, either on foot or in a plain carriage, drawn by not more than two horses, and without decorations or livery, to the Capitol, where he shall take the oath and address such citizens as may be there to hear him.

Confirmations.

Frank Hatton of Iowa, Postmaster General; John Sawyer Cresby of New York, First Assistant Postmaster General; Commissioners for Alaska to reside in Sitka, (Gen. P. Ihrie of Penn., to reside in Wrangel); Chester Seeber of California, to reside in Ounalashka.

Relief for Striking Miners.

COLUMBUS, 4.—The Dispatch's New Statesville special says: The miners of the central relief committee yesterday distributed among the destitute over $1,000 in cash and about $1,200 in merchandise. In addition, large quantities of provisions have been received at Nelsonville, Buchtel, Carbon Hill and other places, and ordered distribution. About $1,000 remains in the treasury at Jacksonville. Reports from quarters which are furnishing relief are discouraging. There is a great deal of suffering and the sudden cold weather would increase this greatly. No material change is reported as to the strike, except that the syndicate and coal exchange say they are increasing their force daily from outside labor and the output will soon reach the maximum.

Dynamiters in Arizona.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—The Chronicle's Prescott, Arizona, special says: There have been five polygamy convictions in this city within a week. In the first three cases—Tenny, Christopherson and Kemp—convictions were found on the evidence. In the two cases tried to-day, Myers Flake and Skousen plead guilty. This is regarded as practically the first rule in Arizona. Sentences will be passed by Judge Howard to-morrow.

Powder Explosion.

LYNCHBURG, Va., 4.—The magazine of the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, exploded last night. The magazine contained 500 pounds of compound powder. The explosion was terrific. The windows of the Institute were shattered and the lights extinguished. Houses in Lexington, a mile off, were shaken and their foundations. The magazine was blown away. Five cadets were dismissed from the Institute Tuesday for having stolen powder in their possession.

FOREIGN.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THE WAR WITH PEANUT MUST GO ON.

CANNIBALISM PRONOUNCED MURDER.

Mediation Abandoned.

LONDON, 4.—The Standard's Hong Kong dispatch says the Chinese appear to have abandoned all hopes of mediation and determined upon a vigorous policy. Twelve men-of-war have been ordered to engage the French fleet and break the Formosa blockade. Twenty-four Germans are on the fleet, one in command of a ship under the Chinese admiral. Satisfaction is expressed, as a short and sharp campaign will make one of the combatants readier to entertain propositions for peace. The present situation is ruining trade.

The British Commons.

LONDON, 4.—In the Commons to-day it was stated that the Cape Government had not asked to contribute to the expedition to Bechuanaland; that the government is unable to accept the conditions proposed, and that a settlement of the question arising from the course adopted by the Freebooters is not expected until Colonel Warren, commander of the expedition, arrives in Bechuanaland. It was also stated that recognition by England of the African International Association was now a subject of negotion. The government is debating the question of an increase of the consular staff in western Africa to protect British trade on the Congo.

The Chief Secretary for Ireland stated that the government would not give the United Ireland a factitious importance by prosecuting the paper for the publication of articles inciting to crime.

Wm. O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, hereupon jumped to his feet and declared the Chief Secretary was making an attack upon him.

The Speaker of the House declared O'Brien out of order.

O'Brien resumed his seat, shouting as he did, that this was another sample of British fair play.

Murder.

The court will pass sentence to-day, thus giving the prisoners time to move for arrest of judgment. The court ordered the prisoners to surrender their bail. The judges, throughout the hearing, showed great horror for the act of which the prisoners were guilty, and were unwilling to set a precedent which would allow such a crime to be considered other than murder.

The Armstrong well at Bradford, Pa., which only recently has poured forth torrents of crude oil, has not flowed since Monday night. It was one of the biggest wells on the earth, its first day's production being over 6,000 barrels.

We have on hand already $8,576 as a general fund, collected up to Nov. 29th, 1884. This amount will go to assist Parnell and other Irish patriots in the agitation of constitutional liberty for Ireland. The idea is to get $100,000 a year.

Riverhead, L. I., 4.—The wife of Rev. W. A. Downs eloped with Deacon G. Michael Terry, leaving behind two children, aged two and four years. The wife telegraphed Pastor Downs that she was "happy with her dear Terry, and would never return to Riverhead." It is believed the couple have gone to Florida, where Terry has a sister, who eloped some time ago with Capt. Penny, leaving four children behind her.

New York, 4.—The track and road horses offered for sale at Dan Mace's livery stable to-day went for a low price. The 15 horses sold brought $5,805. Hawk, a bay gelding nine years old, sired by Geo. Wilkes and said to trot in 2:26, brought the highest price, $610. A black gelding eight years old, bred in Kentucky and said to trot in 2:20, was knocked off at $550. Mace said he had refused $2,000 for this horse at private sale.

Indianapolis, 4.—A delegation representing the Marion County Democratic Soldiers' and Sailors' Veteran Association, called on Vice-President-elect Hendricks this evening, and tendered their congratulations on the result of the recent election. Hendricks spoke briefly. The newspapers consider the demonstration as very significant.

Philadelphia, 4.—A constable this afternoon went to the house of Thornton Wollinger, an expressman, aged 47, residing at 902 North Eighth street, to serve a warrant on Wollinger for abusing his wife. Upon entering the house and stating his business, Wollinger drew a revolver and sent a bullet crashing through his own head, dying almost instantly.

Philadelphia, 4.—The Knights of Labor have ordered the employes of the Philadelphia Shoe Co. to remove their tools from the shop and strike. The employes have not been at work since Saturday, owing to the refusal of the manager of the company to sign the old bill of prices for work for the next six months. They referred the matter to the Knights, and the above decision was reached.

A Skirmish Among the Doctors.

When typhoid fever broke out at Port Jervis, some doctors quarreled about how to cure it. Each said his way was the best, and several said all the others were entirely wrong and knew nothing about how to cure it. A little knowledge of medicine is a dangerous thing, but a very valuable item of medical knowledge is that Brown's Iron Bitters builds up wasted systems, and by enriching enfeebled blood gives health and strength. Dr. W. J. Newhill of Carter's Creek, Va., says, "Brown's Iron Bitters is one of the best tonics I ever prescribed."

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral.
No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.
A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 52 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1883.
Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
153 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most efficient remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried.
A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 15, 1882.
"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.
"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung trouble. E. EDMONDSON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.
No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
