LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATER. — The second presentation of "The Lonely Man of the Ocean" takes place tomorrow evening, for which the Stage Manager, Mr. W. T. Harris, has made the necessary preparations to have it run smoothly. The favor with which it was received on Wednesday evening will be a sufficient recommendation, and the patrons of the drama will doubtless turn out en masse.

The ever-popular, laughable farce of "The Lost Child," with Mr. Margaret in the role of the "distressed parent," concludes the evening's bill.

ACCIDENT ON THE U.P.R.R. AT CARBON. — An accident occurred on the U.P.R.R. near Carbon, W. T., on the evening of the 19th inst., the particulars of which, taken from the Wyoming Daily News, are as follows:

Last night about one o'clock the passenger train between Salt Lake City and Ogallala, a snow-shed, derailed and took shelter in a snow shed about three miles east of this place. The engine was thrown from the track, and the head truck of the mail car, seven head of cattle were killed, and no other damage was done to the train or the passengers excepted somewhat. The Conductor, Mr. Owns, started immediately on foot to this station, and telegraphed for assistance. The train was all right again and under way by eight o'clock this morning. No blame whatever can be attached to the engineer, as he was at the time running very slow, and carefully, thus saving a considerable loss of property, if not of lives. The watchman who had been sent to see what had occurred, right, was saluted, and to him the passengers attributed the cause of the accident.

The worst thing out-to-day: The weather and mud.

BROKERS. — We have received a communication from A. M. Musser, Esq., but a power of attorney prevented its insertion in today's issue.

KILLED AT A SNOW SLIDE. — A snow slide occurred last Tuesday morning, in Silver Fork, between Big and Little Cottonwood, killing a man named Fretwell, and burying another named Hildebrand, the latter was got out in an hour, safe; the body of the former was brought to the city this morning, and the coroner decided that an inquest might be held upon his remains.

NEW YORK IMPROVEMENT. — It is gratifying to know that the business men of East Temple Street have taken the initiative in regard to the improvement of their sidewalk; and it is to be hoped that the meeting called by the City Recorder for the consideration of this matter, to be held next Friday, will result in the immediate commencement of work to accomplish the desired improvement. The condition of portions of the side-walks and driveways on that side of the street is most deplorable, as is the ground in the city, and especially so in the case in the summer time, when the trees are in bloom, for then the contrast between smooth side-walks, filthy water ditches, and fragrant trees, blooming with beauty, is most striking. Improvements of this kind are made, by which the sidewalks on East Temple Street are improved and made respectable, that it will be a pleasure to a similar work on all the principal streets of the city, and that the city ordinance of imposing dues on all property of impeding the water course will also be rigidly enforced. Good side-walks, with shade trees and clean, undisturbed areas of walking space on the street, are highly desirable, and will be welcome to us all, when we have to be without them. The people will co-operate in their efforts to have it so.

SPOTTED. — By reference to the advertisement of Isaac Gross, Esq., City Watermaster, which appears in another column, it will be seen that some midnight marauders hammered and broke the lock and chain which fasten the gate at the head of the culvert on North Temple Street last night, and removed the gate from its place. Fortunately the parties were seen; but, fortunately for the latter, not by the police. Had the police seen them, we should be writing a different kind of a local item, one which would be of interest to a more prominent termination than this. They may think themselves lucky in having the opportunity of settling the matter with the City Watermaster as he proposes. But we advise them to be very careful, as we suppose they view them in this light — to go slow. If they do not, there will, probably, be a coroner's inquest, and a funeral some fine morning. There are some people who can appreciate a joke excellent in itself, but too bad to be true. Bridges are carried off, bridges are torn up, fences thrown down and trees sawn off and destroyed, they fail to see in such outrages where the joke comes in; and they will not submit any longer, if they can help it, to them.

SIMPLY KENNEDY FOR BEE STING. — It was announced in the NEWS, yesterday, that Bro. W. D. Roberts had brought from the East two hundred and forty stands of honey bees. As soon as the weather is mild enough for them to be on the move, there will be heard such a "buzzing" as was never before heard in Utah, from workers of this kind. It is not unlikely where there will be as many bees and as many children that some of the latter will become stung, and that there will be some considerable pain. The following ready remedy, to be obtained in any neighborhood, at any time, is worth remembering. It is taken from the Cleveland Herald:

"Let a person sting by a bee apply some milk, as soon as possible, and if the sting is not all gone in five minutes I will confess it has a different effect than it has always had upon the writer. The worst cases of poison by bee I ever saw were cured by this application, and in a very few days,

SINGULAR EXPLOSION IN GOLD HILL. — The Gold Hill News of last Monday, contains an account of a singular explosion which took place at the old Chollar mine, and as its publication may deter some from falling into the mistake which caused it, we give it a place. The news says:

"The cartridges of Giant powder used for blasting were not exploded, but were being warmed through previously, as they all righted and it was one of those frequent cases of the explosion of the gunpowder which we speak. One of the miners took it to the blacksmith to have it out for use. In order to do so he laid it on the forge near the fire, and went outside
