

SENATOR BORAH SOUNDS WARNING

Sooner Eastern Republicans Get Rid of Notion Have No Fight
On Hands the Better.

FOR GREATER ENTHUSIASM.

National Committee Considers Means
Of Arousing It—Senator Beveridge
To Make Transcontinental Tour.

New York, Sept. 18.—All the members of the executive and advisory committee met with Chairman Hitchcock today and gave their attention to some means of arousing greater enthusiasm in the campaign in the east. The impression that the battleground is entirely in the western states is deplored by the managers of the campaign in the east.

Senator Borah of Idaho will leave for Chicago tonight. He said that the sooner the eastern Republican got rid of the notion that they have no fight on their hands the better off they will be.

Announcement was made today at the headquarters of the Republican national committee that Senator Albert Beveridge of Indiana has been selected to make a tour from New York to Portland, Or., and make political speeches in reply to William J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for president.

Present plans provide for the opening of the campaign in New York City on Sept. 25, when Mr. Beveridge will speak at Carnegie hall on the subject of "Business and the Trusts," on Sept. 29, at Terre Haute, Ind., on the subject of "Labor," and on the speech of Mr. Bryan at Chicago and Terre Haute on the same subject.

From there Senator Beveridge will go to Minneapolis, opening the campaign in the northwest on Oct. 1, with a speech on "The Tariff." He will then go through the Dakotas, Montana, and into Oregon, with an address at Portland on "The Navy and Oriental Trade." A speech on the same subject will be made at San Francisco, and the return trip will be made through Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and into Illinois, ending with a big meeting at Chicago about Oct. 15. Thence the senator will go into the campaign in Ohio and Indiana.

An important meeting of the executive and advisory committee of the Republican national committee was held at Chairman Hitchcock's office today. A great many matters connected with the opening of the Republican campaign in New York state were considered.

Both of Judge Taft's brothers, C. P.

Taft of Cincinnati and H. W. Taft of this city, conferred with Mr. Hitchcock today.

Governor Albert B. Cummins of Iowa had a long conference with Chairman Hitchcock. He expressed the opinion that Iowa would give Taft from 30,000 to 50,000 majority. Continuing, he said:

"Iowa should not be included in the doubtful territory. There is no wavering on the part of the Republicans of my state. They may differ upon local issues, but when it comes to deciding in whose hands the national government shall be placed, they have no hesitancy in uniting to save the country from another four years' period of Democratic disaster."

Governor Cummins will take the stump Sept. 25, and will speak practically every day thereafter until election day. Most of this time will be spent in western states.

Former Gov. Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, who visited Republican headquarters, said:

"I am surprised that any one would think of putting Ohio in the doubtful column. Aside from local pride in Judge Taft, the people of the state have a personal regard for him that has not been surpassed by any other of her favorite sons. Differences that may have existed in the state will not interfere with the Republican majority in November."

Gov. Hughes will be here tomorrow and confer with Chairman Hitchcock. The governor is to give a part of his time to the campaign in western states.

Senator Borah of Idaho, who has made 30 speeches in the east, left New York tonight for Chicago, where a western itinerary will be made up for him.

Officials at Republican headquarters were elated today by a visit from Calvin Chase of Washington, D. C., a negro editor. Mr. Chase was against Taft before the convention, but today announced that he would support him for election. Mr. Chase said:

"The alleged negro revolt will shortly become a mere hallucination. The negroes are not getting anything from the Democrats and the bubble is about to collapse."

GASOLINE EXPLOSION.

At Mare Island Navy Yard Kills One Person, Injures Three.

Valejo, Cal., Sept. 18.—The explosion of 250 gallons of gasoline on board a barge moored abreast the submarine boats Grampus and Pike at the Mare Island navy yard this afternoon resulted in the death of Chief Machinist Teddy May and injuries to Lieut. J. S. Townsend, Chief Gunner's Mate W. H. Leahy and Chief Gunner's Mate Moarrin. Both submarine boats were badly scorched. The tender Fortune and the tug Unadilla were also injured, the latter having been moored abreast of the submarines and immediately catching fire.

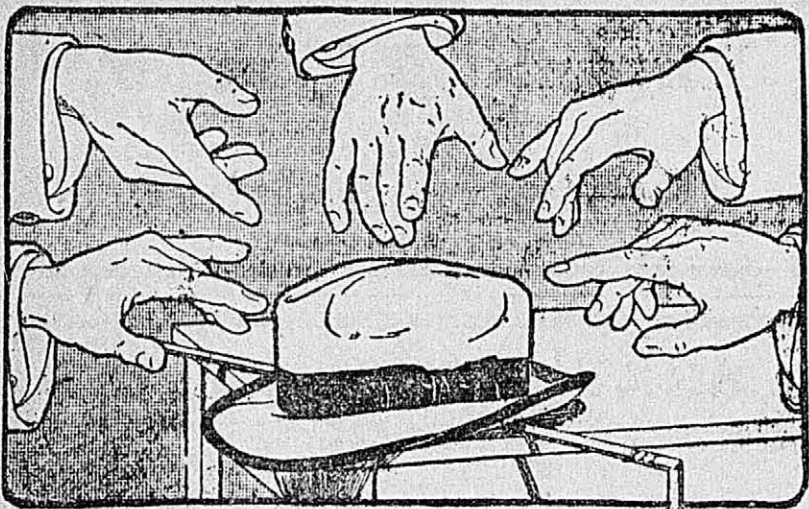

INDEPENDENTS COULDN'T FILE.
New Orleans, Sept. 18.—Fifty-three candidates for city and parish offices on the Independent Democratic league ticket were today denied the privilege of filing their nomination papers with the registrar of votes by Judge W. B. Somerville of the district court. The decision was based on irregularities in the regular filing of the papers. The ticket is headed by W. G. Tebault for mayor.

A PORCH CLIMBER.

San Luis Obispo, Cal., Sept. 19.—A porch climber, expert in the use of chloroform, last night entered the home of Fred Grippen after he had sent a vicious bulldog to slumberland with the drug, which he administered with an atomizer. Entering the apartment of Mrs. Grippen, the intruder first rendered unconscious a maid who slept in the room and then turned the spray upon Mrs. Grippen. The latter awoke and despite a warning from the burglar, rushed to a window, gave the alarm and dragged the maid into the pure air by the hair of her head. The man disappeared with a number of half dressed neighbors in pursuit. A month ago an attempt was made to chloroform a young woman in the same manner.

Out of the High Rent District

This illustration was sketched from one of our imported models.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday September twenty first to twenty third inclusive, we will display choice models in fall millinery

You are cordially invited to be present

The display will be a marvel—the exquisite expressions of fashion's newest conceptions will out-class any any like exhibition ever made in this city

Paris gave up her most beautiful picture hats, New York contributed many elegant, exclusive models, designed by artists of no less talent and ability than the Parisian designers, and our own work rooms furnished many beautiful copies of imported designs that will vie with any of them for artistic merit.

Hats for morning
Hats for afternoon
Hats for evening
Hats for all occasions

Note—Our display will be made entirely in the department as our show windows are undergoing important changes and alterations—the entire millinery section will be one beautiful color scheme, with lovely picture hats—flowers, palms and decorations blended to make one gorgeous style picture.

SENATOR FORAKER ENGAGED BECAUSE OF LEGAL ABILITY

New York, Sept. 18.—Virgil P. Kline, for many years attorney for the Standard Oil company in Ohio, just before his departure on an evening train for Cleveland, declared that there was no mystery as to Senator Foraker's work as an attorney for the Standard Oil company. He had personally engaged Mr. Foraker, he said, as counsel for the company in suits of outster which were pending against the corporation in the state of Ohio. Mr. Kline added:

"I visited Mr. Foraker as counsel for the company in Ohio cases because I knew him to be a lawyer of uncommon ability. These cases were brought in an effort to drive us out of the state, and in the course of defending them I recollect distinctly holding many conferences with Mr. Foraker regarding them. I am a Democrat and I have always fought Foraker and always will, I expect."

Referring to dispatches from Cleveland that Mr. Foraker's name did not appear as an attorney of record in the Ohio case during the years when the outster cases were pending, Mr. Kline said that this was a surprise to him. "My recollection is that Mr. Foraker filed at least one brief in those cases," the attorney said. "I cannot understand why his name should not appear on the records. Nothing he did as counsel for the Standard Oil company in any way with his duties and obligations as a United States senator."

SECY. LOEB SAYS SIBLEY APPEALED TO PRESIDENT

Oyster Bay, Sept. 18.—Secy. Loeb's attention was called today to the letter read yesterday by Mr. Hearst at a meeting in Columbus, O., which included correspondence said to have passed between Senator Foraker of Ohio, Congressman Sibley of Pennsylvania and John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company. Today Mr. Loeb issued the following statement, presumably in reply to that portion of the correspondence in which Mr. Sibley is alleged to have called on the president in behalf of the Standard Oil company.

"When Secy. Loeb's attention was called to the alleged letter of ex-Congressman Sibley, he stated that Mr. Sibley was one of several hundred people in the political and financial world who at different times appealed to the president not to prosecute the Standard Oil company. To all of these people the president listened with all politeness and consideration. He found himself unable to agree with any of them, however, and the prosecutions were accordingly ordered continued and are in progress at the present time."

MRS. ALFRED GWYNNE
VANDERBILT GETS DIVORCE

New York, Sept. 18.—A petition for a final decree was filed today in the suit for divorce of Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt. There was no opposition on the part of Mr. Vanderbilt. Three months ago Mrs. Vanderbilt was granted an interlocutory decree.

LANSING, MICH., BANK CLOSED.

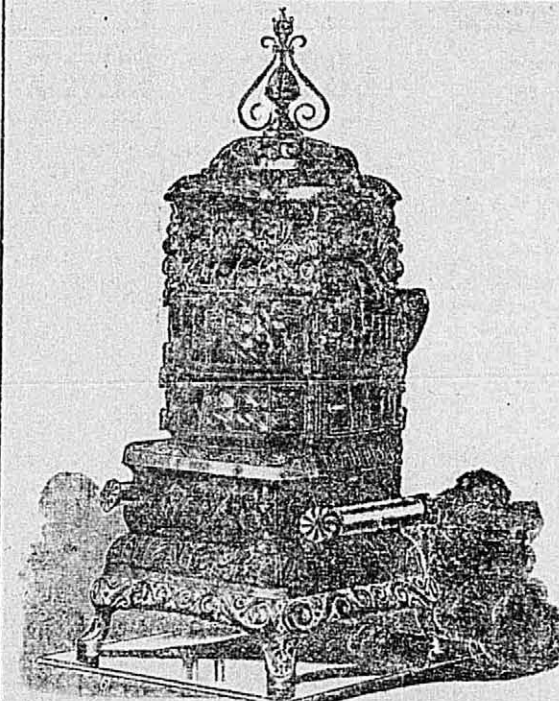

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 18.—The Farmers and Merchants State bank of Parma, Mich., deposits $35,000, was closed today by the state banking commissioner. Cashier W. H. Burleson is also interested in banks at Hanover and Pittsford. These have been closed to await developments.

TABLE WATERS.

Certain Highly Recommended Ones Choke Full of Bacilli.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—That several highly recommended table waters from various springs contain more colon bacilli than the waters that pass through the city's mains, and that the companies selling these waters are perpetrating a fraud and are to be "put out of business," were some of the startling disclosures made by Dr. Joseph Fayl

Biehne, director of the Chicago city laboratory, last night. He spoke in the rooms of the Chicago Drug club, at the monthly meeting of the Chicago section of the American Chemical society. He said that many of the bottled waters were merely hyrdant water run through a worse than useless filter. The society had under discussion the question of "Municipal Water Supply and Sewage Disposal," and experts spoke on every side of the question.

Many prominent outsiders were present. Dr. Biehne also took a nap at many of the "filters" that are on the market, and said the use of some was more dangerous than no filter at all.
