American Revolution in 1891, and anile the independent sisterhood of mile the independent sisterhood of mile the independent sisterhood of control of the arising explains that the discount of the original society was due in the independent of woman's rights rolling clique of presentatives exercised and the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the independent of President rison was made its first presidential of Miss Dasha from the execusiof Miss Dasha from the execusion of the proposition of the propositio general of Miss Dasha from the execumoval of Miss Dasha from the execumoval of Miss Dasha from the execumoval of Miss Dasha from the execuderk in the pension office. Then Baby McKee developed into an element of McKee d

Mrs. Harrison's interest in the society was thereafter less pronounced.
The differences between the two socleties seem to be somewhat capriclous, cleties seem to be somewhat capriclous, and by no means irreconcilable. They have the same patriotic aims in viewhave the same patriotic landmarks of to preserve the historic landmarks of to preserve the historic landmarks of the republic and keep alive in the hearts of the people a befitting sense of gratitude for the brave men who sowed in war that their children might reap in

FEMININE FLOTSAM

One of the principal manufacturers of perfumery in the world has asserted that he is certain that flowers actually that he is certain that flowers actually possess souls. The fragrance of a flow-possess souls. The fragrance of a flower itself has perished, when the flower itself has perished. This he maintains is not a poetical flancy, but an established fact. Although the fragrance of flowers dead though the fragrance of flowers dead though the fragrance of flowers dead though the fragrance of flowers dead the flower in the flower dead to fix it, yet it never dies. Take as example the case of jonquils; at the sexample the case of jonquils; at the end of the year the perfume is constant, but in the spring a change apstant, but in the spring a change apstant, but in the spring a change are se example of the year the perfume is constant, but in the spring a change appears. In May, when the jonquits are in full flower, the colorless liquid has in full flower, the colorless liquid has in seent exalted to a surprisingly high its seent exalted to a surprisingly high degree. When the flowers are in bloom the bottled essence is very perceptibly stronger in odor, as the flowers drop so does the perfume lose its potency in surict agreement. This mysterious sympathy between flowers and essence nevalts, but ever responds to the proper pathy between flowers and essence never dies, but ever responds to the proper seasons. There is room for reflection in the thought that every bottle of scent holds the so-called souls of thousands of flowers. For example, an 80-conce bottle will hold the souls of seven Kindness and consideration play a most important and salutary part in the upbringing of children. The little ones brought up in an atmosphere of kindness are much more easily governd than those living in other surround-

Risk. Kindness begets content, cheerfulness, Kundness and confidence. Unkind-rusfulness and confidence. Unkind-less invites revolt. III will, fretfulness, Permanent impressions of good or ill are left on the character of children by the treatment they receive at the hands of those having their training in arge. An eastern writer points out that great injury is often done children, not alone in the matter of their present happiness, but in regard of their future character and conduct, by want of po-liteness in their treatment by their el-

Parents and educators cannot be too careful in kepeing this obvious truth constantly in view. No one, even in the most advanced years, forgets the the most advanced years, lorgets the kindnesses received in youth. The mother's gentle persuasion, the father's kindly counsel, the teacher's friendly interest are remembered till the very last hour of life, and from one the brightest of memory's dearest nagger" is a roaring lioness, go. The sex is almost always femi-

the benefit of the naggers, Coller's Weekly presents some good advice, from which are culled the follow-There are seven good reasons why t scatters your energy.

It makes you unfit to live with.

All feminine woes and weaknesses, except one, have redeeming accompanments which offset. Which one is nag-The husband of the nagger is lost. Usually he knows it. You can tell he knows it by the corners of his mouth, which go down, and the droop of his eyes, which is downward, and the inflection of his voice, which is You can likewise tell it by the trend of his footsteps, which is out. Fet time was when the nagger wasn't a bad sort. The trouble was, she fussed. She was over-concerned. It's a bad thing for a young wife to be over-concerned. It bodes no good. The steps of retrographic are conclusive from know you'll catch a dreadful cold." to "John, for goodness' sake, put on your coat! Haven't you got any sense? First thing you know you'll be down with pneumonia, and there'll be more expense and work of the property of the same and work of the same and the same an expense and worry and work. There's always something, and I'm the one it power of the nagged. The child who is nagged never obeys promptly. He is spoiled for the bit, just like those horses that are incesto procrastinate. He knows for time, no respect for punc-When opportunity comes he it. For opportunity requires guick action. It never stops to nag.

But the husband of a nagger! His doom is written. The knife is in position above his neck, set in the yoke of matrimony from which so many unexpected knives come glittering. Each day he sees it lower the most infinitesimay part of an inch. Could the reveal y part of an inch. Could the royal cutioners of old have but realized exquisite agony of death by nag-f. what saying of sleepless nights in conjuring of sleepless nights in conjuring up new tortures! only possible help for the nagger within herself. It lies within the arise of a perfect self-control, which boundaries lie other worth while! roads leading up liture and content, paths cut to culture and content, paths cut through character and poise, and lead-ing straight to places where happiness is, where beauty dwells, where youth drinks does of power of the nagger and the bearing p of new springs. frown and blistered maidens returna summer spent in seeking telusive article called pleasmost ejusive article called pleashay be glad to learn that specialare now insisting on the so-called treatment, in the early fall as a f method of getting the system tood condition. Every morning bebreakfast the joice of one-half a and one-half an orange is zed into a tall glass and mixed, then into this is poured water as a can be drunk with comfort.

his seems too bitter, the slightest this seems too litter, the slightest of sugar is added, and the mixis drained while steaming hot. stained while steaming not. a followed by a very light frekfast sting of delicately browned toast. gle poached ogg, and a cup of ant coffee, Every other night one of the effervescent salts is and the morning treatment is inseed for 20 days.

hat time is claimed that the stem-s in excellent working condition filed to stand the strain of the le suppers and elaborate dinhers that the winter has in store.

"One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warn-

-James Russell Lowell

An aphorism to be studied by those who, despite all warnings, persist in buying silverware without assuring themselves of its quality.

GORHAM

is a name which in itself is an assurance of the very highest quality and that it is Gorham the trade-mark will testify.

course, this internal treatment will be at least twice as efficacious when supplemented by active exercise, a Turkish bath at least once a week and the conscientious use of the creams necessary to bleach back the skin to its accustomed coloring.

Indeed, intelling the wonderful effect of this acid treatment upon not only the health, but the disposition, of the one who tries it, there have been rumors that one of the city's famous beauties is a devoted advocate of this especial treatment. Her superb health, brilliant coloring and shining eyes have long excited comment, and now it is de-clared that to this habit of taking the fuice of the lemon and orange at every other morning she attributes her fine condition.

'SPENDING THE EVENING"

(London Daily Chronicle.) An Englishman who has just returned from some years in St. Petersburg de-clares that Russian hospitality demands more from its recipients than any other. The demand would seem to be mainly of a liquid nature. Here is his descripof a liquid nature. Here is his description of the way you "spend an evening" in a Russian house: "You no sooner make your appearance than your host drags you to his den and makes you take a drink. You find all the other men there, taking their pick of the bottles ranged along the host's private sideboard, and helping themselves to a stiff one every few minutes. If you are stiff one every few minutes. If you are wise and diplomatic, you will dodge as many of the ante-prandial drinks as possible, with a view to your comfort later on. But you have got to be very skillful about this. Most Russian hosts have a way of regarding it as a sort of reflection upon their stock of liqueurs, if not, indeed, on their drinking habits, if their non-Russian guests begin to fight shy. It doesn't spoil their hunger as it does ours. The more a Russian drinks the more he wants to eat. That and the climate are, I take it, the salva-tion of that nation of heavy drinkers.

"You sit down to dinner at 6 o'clock, and it lasts till 9. The array of courses is staggering, and there's wine, it would seem, for every dish, let alone every course. Men and women drink champagne like water, and the air is such that it does them little harm. Between every two or three courses the cigargo to the theater, where boxes have been engaged. That's part of spending the evening.' You may smoke all you want to in the boxes, and by 10 o'clock want to in the boxes, and by 10 o'clock the drinking begins again. Your host's cabinet of liquor—a portable affair designed for theater use—has preceded him to the box, with ice tank and siphons complete. The women as a rule take champagne, but the men choose the liquors. Thus smoking and

You Can Depend Upon Obtaining Results, Results That Last.

"Will it cure?" is always the first question asked by a sufferer who has made up his mind to take a course of the treatment for any kidney aliment. "Will I stay cured?" follows as a matter of course. If the reader is in doubt about what method to follow, read this statement carefully: Frank Stites, bricklayer, of 4559 Thir ty-third Ave., Denver, Colo., says: "It is over three years since I recommend-ed Doan's Kidney Pills through our Denver papers. At that time they stopped pain in my back and through the sides which although never severe enough to lay me up was sufficient to cause more annoyance than anyone should endure when Doan's Kidney Pills can so easily be procured. If I had not received positive benefit when that remedy first came to my notice I would be the last man in Denver to publicly endorse the medicine, and if publicly endorse the medicine, and if the results obtained from the treatment with Doan's Kidney Pills had not been permanent nothing could induce me to re-endorse this medicine. The merits of Doan's Kidney Pills should be uni-versally known."

Sold for 50 cents per box. Foster-Mulburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name-Doan's—and Remember the name-Doan's-and take no substitute.

GERMAN RHEUMATIC OIL

A boon to all afflicted with Sciatic and Inflammatory Rheu-matism, Lunbago or Gout; Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Cuts, Soreness, etc., are immediately benefited by its soothing quali-ties, 35c per bottle.

Lane's Compound Celery Nervine

A peritable Nerve Tonic Cleanses the blood, regulates the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels.

Are you tired, feel worn out and run down, then take this great nerve food.

c. M. Drug Store,

112-114 Main St.

drinking pretty incessantly, you watch he performance, walking about the oxes and chattering between acts, un-l after midnight, when the show comes

Does that end the evening? Not at all. You return with your host and hostess to their home, where you find an elaborate supper served and waiting. You do your best to do justice to it, and toward 2 a. m. an adjournment is made to the dry where made to the drawing room for an hour or so of music. The Russian women or so of music. The Russian women play and sing magnificently, but you are expected to keep on drinking while listening to them. By this time you are about ready to go home. But that would be discourteous. 'spending the evening' is by no means over yet. Card tables are brought out, and everybody plays—French games for the most part, perhaps a couple of Russian ones, and plays—French games for the most part, perhaps a couple of Russian ones, and once in a while poker—and everybody gambies. You drink incessantly while playing and munch caviare sandwiches. At last—it is now about 5 a. m.—the evening is spent. You may go home if you wish. If not you signify your desire to sleep at your host's house, and you find your room all prepared. He is honored by your preference, but when honored by your preference, but when you come to some hours later you feel that all you ever did in your college days was child's play by the side of a quiet evening with a Russian house-

CURIOUS ORIGIN OF FAMILIAR CUSTOMS.

It is most surprising what a number f little things we do without knowing

Why, for instance, do widows wear caps? Perhaps you may say because they make them look pretty and interesting. But the real reason is that when the Romans were in England they shaved their heads as a sign of mourning. Of course, ing. Of course, a woman couldn't let herself be seen with a baid head, so she made herself a pretty cap. And now, though the necessity of wearing it has passed away, the cap remains.

What is the meaning of the crosses or X's on a barrel of beer? They signify degrees of quality nowadays. But originally they were put on by those ancient monks as a sort of trademark. They were crosses in those days, and meant a sort of oath on the cross, sworn by the manufacturer, that his barrel contained good liquor.

Why are bells tolled for the dead? This has become so familiar a practice that a funeral without it would appear un-Christian. Yet the reason is quite barbarous. Bells were tolled long ago, when people were being buried, in order to frighten away the evil spirits who lived in the air.

Why do fair ladles break a bottle of wine on the ship they are christenof which of the ship they are christen-ing? Merely another survival of bar-baric custom. In the days of ascrifices to the gods it was customary to get some poor victim when a boat was being launched, and to cut his throat over the prow, so that his blood baptized it. Why are dignitaries deafened by a sclute when they visit a foreign port? It seems a curious sort of welcome, this firing off of guns, but it appears the custom arose in a very reasonable way originally, a town or a warship fired off their guns on the approach of their portant and friendly strangers to show that they had such faith in the visitors' peaceful intentions they didn't think it necessary to keep their guns loaded.

Why do we sometimes throw a shoe after a bride? The reason is not very complimentary. From of old it has been the habit of mothers to chastics their the habit of mothers to chastise their children with a shoe. Hence the cus-tom arose of the father of a bride making a present to the bridegroom of a shoe as a sign that it was to be his right to keep her in order.-TitBLACK CHIFFON EVENING GOWN.

Medallions of white lace and pale green velvet appliqued in princess effect or skirt and bodic. Applications of black and white lace on skirt, flounce of kited and ruffled chiffon. Yoke of black and white lace, bodice and upper skewc of tucked chiffon, kilted elbow ruffle. Underskirt of white taffeta.

The wrong kind of a collar makes a man look cheap-Cluett-Peabody collars will obviate that and make you look well groomed. Quarter sizes if you want 'em. Cluett Brand 25c Arrow Brand 15c

Cluett, Peabody & Co.

The best element of a good meal is good bread. Poor bread is often the result of poor flour. Don't let this happen in your home. Use "Riverdale," the guaranteed flour. All grocers sell it.

An Article of Merit

Has No Superior for Irritable Tempers! A Sure Cure for "Cold" Feet. Prevents "Getting" Cold. No Bad After Effects.

Should Be in Every Home. "THAT GOOD COAL."

Enormous Sales.

Put up in full size packages-2,000 POUNDS IN EVERY TON. SOLD EXCLUSIVELY BY BAMBERCER, The Man on Meighn St. Prize ad. No. 2, submitted by A. D. McGuiro, 726 5th St.

R.G.Dun & Co.,

Offices in Progress Building, Salt Lake City, Utah

GETTING READY FOR STOCKTAKING.

LOD

On the 15th we commence our Annual Stocktaking. We have lots of goods, we would rather close out and count the money, so we announce a Grand Clearing Inventory Sale for one week.

MEN'S SUITS—BLACKS EXCEPTED

All suits $10.00 to $13.50, Inventory price. $7.75 All suits $15.00 to $18.00, Inventory price. 11.75 All suits $18.00 to $27.50, Inventory price. 14.75 &

SPECIAL ON MEN'S SHIRTS.

Our entire stock Soft and Stiff Bosom Shirts, values $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, your choice 95c.

You can stay away from this sale if you want to, BUT YOU WILL LOSE MONEY IF YOU DO. The public have learned to know what a sale means when we advertise one. If You are here first you get your choice of the Bargains.

CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS. $......

VALKER'S STORE

MAGNIFICENT Collection. Close to Five Thousand yards of choicest, best made Japanese corded Wash Silks. So fresh, so new, so dainty, so summery one wonders whether it's not June instead of January. And wherefore should women be buying these airy things in winter? Ah, indeed! There's just the important point. Women know that during the dressmakers' dull season following the holidays, they can have more painstaking work done, that no hurry or worry to one or the other means greater satisfaction to both and in many instances even a less price is charged for making. But besides this reason, these two-a special underpricing and the opportunity to pick from the very first beauties of the season in complete assortment without a color missing. Many new effects are there-Roman stripes, check and striped all white, black and white, white with just a touch of color, and plenty of dainty pinks, blues, greens, grays, heliotrope, maize, modes. Months ago we co-operated with several eastern firms to purchase the mill's entire output, solely for the purpose of bringing the price to the lowest possible notch, and surely desire is accomplished. Last year the same planning brought 50c, 60c and 65c qualities down to 48c—this, some points better—

FORTY-FIVE CENTS A YARD!

Walker Brothers Bry Goods Co Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co