The company was organized under The company was organized under the name of the Glenn Lumber com-pany, and for some time it was un-decided whether or not the institu-tion would go actively into the cutting of timber and the sawing of lumber. It was ultimately decided, however, to hold the lands for an advance in price, and some time after negotiations were opened by Mr. Murphy, the com-pany's agent, with the Goodyear Lum-ber company, a big eastern concern pany's agent, with the Goodyear Lum-ber company, a big eastern concern which already had extensive timber interests on the Pacific slope. A sale was finally made, the figure being $500,000, but owing to some defects in the titles which had to be remedied by legal process, the panic of 1907 and other causes, the final steps in closing up the affairs of the company were not taken until the last few weeks. The sale has now been ac-complished, the cash paid over, and the original capital, with the very satisfactory profit thereon, has been distributed to the local stockholders. A meeting of the board of directors A meeting of the board of directors was held this morning at the Deseret National bank at which all reports were read, and the action of the management was approved. The of-Romney, president; C. W. Nibley, vice president; Ellas A. Smith, secretary and treasurer; with W. W. Riter, L. S. Hills, C. S. Burton, H. G. Whitney and F. S. Murphy as the other members of the board. Secretary Smith states that while the company has disposed of

An entirely new feature will be a division devoted Secretary Ensign said this morning that the educational exhibits this year will occupy more than twice as much space as ever before. While the al-lotment of space provides more room than ever before, there is still a ques-tion is to whether of not all the ex-hibits can be accommodated.

In the manufacturers' department en-tries are coming in so fast that Mr. Ensign has decided not to allot space to outside manufacturers until all the Utah business men have been provided for. The Utah Fuel company has asked for space to erect a huge mountain repfor space to erect a huge mountain rep-resenting the workings of a coal mine. All the cludy manufacturers of the state will have exhibits this year, and with the friendly rivalry existing be-tween them, it is expected that some very beautiful displays will be made. Several Ogden manufacturers, who have never been in the fair before, have asked for space and indications are that Weber county will be woll repre-sented.

SOME TRANSPORTATION CENTER

Plans Preparing to Spend $100,000,000 On Chicago for This Purpose. Chicago, June 26.—The Tribune today states that F. A. Delano, president of the Wabash railroad, has submitted to the city and railway officials plans for a $100,000,0000 transportation center for Chicago. The project comes in con-nection with the erection of a new terminal station of the Western Indiana railroad, and contemplates the abandonment of present freight and pas-senger terminals and the centralization of many lines in a great structure a half mile south of the present limits of the business district. No formal action on the plan has been taken.

Mr. Pratt of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company appeared and asked for a better franchise for his company in operating a telephone and telegraph business in Brigham City. The ordin-ance heretofore drafted in its favor was referred to the committee on laws and ordinances for a report at the spe-cial session Friday night.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS AND MECHANICS.

MECHANICS. Farmers and mechanics frequently meet with slight accidents and injuries which cause them much annoyance and loss of time. A cut or bruise may be cured in about one-third the time usual-ly required by applying Chamberlain's Liniment as soon as the injury is re-ceived. This liniment is also valuable for sprains, soreness of the muscles and rheumalic pains. There is no danger of blood poisoning resulting from an injury when Chamberlain's Liniment is applied before the parts become inflamed and swollen. For sale by all druggists.

The fact that the state fair this year is to be replaced by the Inland Empire exposition, has attracted the attention over the country. Secy, Ensign has letters in every mail asking for con-cessions, and judging from the offers made, the promoters attach a great deal of importance to Utah's first exposition.
