LOCAL NEWS. .

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JULY 17.

this city has any amount of excellent City of Grand Junction, and led by the wheat for sale, samples of which can be Grand Junction Cornet Band, of fourseen in the Bishop's office. Some of teen pieces, Prof. George Patten the grain from the Sanpete settlements leader, proceeded to the depot to welis especially plump and fine, and makes, come W. H. Bancroft, Superintendent, the millers say, the very finest quality and S. W. Eccles, General Freight and of flour. Agriculturists should not fail Passenger Agent of the Utah lines, on to examine the samples and to provide their arrival. The people here to a was perpetrated in this city, between themselves with the best seed grain man, as far as I could learn, have a the hours of ten o'clock last night and that can be obtained. It pays to have very kindly feeling toward the Denver it good.

writes from Payson, July 16, 1884, cor- they see that no unnecessary impedi- the spot chosen by the margndors as expected addition to his income which recting an item in a special dispatch to ment towards getting supplies was ofthe NEWS in relation to the drowning fered by that end of the line. of Sammy Worsencroft, last Sunday. He says: "The place I advised the boys to go to for a bath, was not nearly so dangerous as the one they were intending to go to. The water is not so cold nor so deep. I wish also to his heirs, who came to Utah about the family retired up stairs, closing correct the statement that I offered to | 1850. Mr. C. W. Boynton vice-presi- but probably not fastening that par-

Accomplice Captured ..- A few issues since we noticed the arrest of Salt Lake City. Edward Watterson, a former employee of the D. & R. G. Railway, at Green Pleasant Grove correspondent, writ- ling at the foot of the bed, were missing. Day, and on the 4th of June noticed partner, Harry A. Young, has started River, who is charged with stealing and subsequently shipping to this city Evande and Sarah White, aged two 8,000 cigars and 150 pairs of ladies' shoes, which he took from a loaded drowned in a water ditch near their thieves probably entered and also made thirty-six days elapsed. The five ounces freight car as it lay there awaiting the home at Pleasant Grove yesterday repairing of the road during the April morning. The little one was in the act washouts. It now appears that Wat- of following its mother and some of terson, who is in jail at Provo, had an its brothers and sisters across a sect accomplice in the person of one James and fell into the stream unnoticed, by Cowley, who has been arrested at any one. The body was rescued some Grand Junction and jodged in jail distance below, lodged against a head there, where he will be held until a gate. The sorrowing household have requisition can be obtained to bring the universal sympathy of their neighhim to Provo for trial. bors.

tor for July 15 contains an unusual Esq. received a letter this morning hoped, however, that they may be amount of interesting and instructive from his daughter at Hooper, Weber "dropped on," and that quickly. reading matter. Original poetry and County, which contains the particu- Nervous people are beginning to get music in each number, as well as prose lars of a disaster which occurred there quite excited. articles from well known writers and a | yesterday morning. The family were | wise choice of selected pieces are awakened about three o'clock in the features which combine to make the morning by shouts of fire, and beheld Instructor so justly popular as an edu- with dismay that the stables and corcator of the young. In the number be- rals were all in a blaze. Nothing fore us the Editor comments on the could be done to save them, and the eurious coincidence that two such un- whole of the outbuildings, containing constitutional and unpatriotic states- three sets of harness, a threshing men as George F. Hoar and William M. | machine, plows and agricultural mach-Evarts should be grandsons of Roger | inery generally, besides this season's Sherman who helped frame the Decla- crop of hay, were totally destroyed. ration of Independence, in the Conti- The loss will amount to between nental Congress of 1776.

Ogden at its meeting last evening de- ever, Mr. Naisbitt does not join, he cided to purchase the whole of the re- preferring to think it accidental. Much maining stock in the water works of sympathy is expressed for the un- porter would like to accompany him, that the leaves of trees whose roots that city. A large interest was already fortunate loser by this calamity. held by the corporation, but the acquiring of the remainder, of which D. H. Ross, Esq., was principal owner, To-day we had a call from Brother a general response that any one of the those which grow in drier soil. This cost them the sum of $36,668, of this William Griffin, of the Tenth Ward, News staff would be only too happy, is the finest country for silk culture in amount $1,668 will be paid down in who iately returned from a visit to and his invitation to take a seat in his the world, "continued he, warming up cash, $5,000 in three months, $10,000 in England, his native country. The object buggy was, on the part of one of the to the theme," and just as good qualisix, $10,000 in nine, and the remaining of his going to the land of his nativity corps, promptly and gratefully ac- ty can be raised as in Italy, China or $10,000 in twelve months from date. was to visit relatives and acquaint- cepted. anywhere else. The conditions are all For the latter amounts the city gives ances in various parts whom he had "I am interested in seeing the silk favorable, and I believe with a little notes, drawing interest at the rate of not seen for nearly thirty years, and to industry flourish," said Mr. Young, as encouragement and patience the in-10 per cent. For the present the man- gather up genealogical information in | we spun lightly along, "and I firmly dustry will become an important one." agement and control of the water relation to the Griffins. He had a believe that my father's oft-expressed "I notice that you trim your trees works will be in the hands of a com- very pleasant time, being received with hopes and predictions concerning it down. Is that a better way than letmittee on water supply. The arrange- much cordiality wherever he went. will be fully realized. You remember ting them grow large?" ment which has thus been reached is He did not fail, when opportunity pre- how we used to go to the Forest Farm in 'Yes, the trees must really be shrubs. however, escaped without anything highly satisfactory to all parties con- sented, to bear testimony concerning Sugar House Ward every summer and Then they become bushy and can be but temporary annoyance, while the cerned, and business men generally are the restoration of the fulness of the pick mulberry leaves for the worms easily worked and attended to. And house was very much injured. At anwell pleased with this amicable con- Gospel, through Joseph Smith, and that Father had there?" Yes, the re- that reminds me. I have been experi- other, while one of our best-looking clusion to a vexed question of long created quite an interest on the menting a little this season with put- Elders, (my friends need not be told it standing.

Missionary Work. - Elder A. B. Strickland, writing from Villard, Pope data in relation to his progenitors, for by the presence of the sweet girls who about twenty worms, while they were on. Two others were aroused about Co., Minn., on July 5th, A. D. 1884, whom he will be in a position to per- knew, how to pack up a nice picnic, still very small, out on that little tree 11 o'clock one night and marched out gives a good report of the labors of form some sacred vicarious work. the Elders in that part. He says: We have held 17 meetings since the Monticello Conference and have had good attention. We could have held many more had it not been for the bigoted school board who denied us the house manager for twenty-one years of the against the wishes of many of the citi- | wool and leather works of G. R. Herzens. We have baptized two, and ron and Son, Monkmoor Mills, Herefound two members who have been in the church 30 years. They are Danish business in all England, and on leaving and have been in this State 17 years. to come to Utah was presented by his We were the first Elders they have employers with an elegant gold watch seen, and of course they were glad to appropriately engraved. The employes see us. They are trying to sell out to go of the firm, on the occasion of a banto Utah. They have a son in Salt Lake | quet given Bro. Johnson before leav-City, H. H. Peterson.

weeks and the weather is cold and good. This a healthy State-many very old people in it.

Many of the people are Catholic and Lutheran and much set in their faith, but others are more reasonable and would like to hear.

Grand Junction correspondent to a north of the old University building. city exchange thus describes the arrival at that point of the first trains from Salt Lake, over the readjusted was received in this city this morning prominently coupled with sericulture Each female moth that comes out lays News lacts somewhat as an antidote track of the D. & R. G. Western Railway: of the D. & R. G. sent men to relay the just been gored to death by a bull. The of which, the reporter noticed, were perly managed. At any rate, I am satfor provisions had arrived. The en- bleeding parent, the latter moaned, primitive arrangements which had been well with silks, purples and fine linen boughs of evergreen, which the train- dead faint. He was assisted to the busy spinners. The house, a pretty front of the engine, on which were Allen was an old settler, having come good natured family having taken up worth of opium.

painted"D. C. D., Victory." On arriv- to this Territory shortly after the their abode in the tent which was al of the regular passenger train from Pioneers. An obituary notice, giving pitched hard by. The incessant crack-Salt Lake City at 12:30 that night a further particulars, will be furnished ling and clicking accompanying the large delegation of leading citizens, for publication. Seed Wheat .- The Tithing Office of headed by W. H. Talbot, Mayor of the & Rio Grande Western officials and the Correction. - Mr. Rufus Barker western end of the road generally, as

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, JULY 18.

Drowned .- B. W. Driggs, Esq., our

$1,500 and $2,000. The folks in Hooper believe the fire to have been an incen-A Wise Step .- The City Council of diary's work, in which opinion, how-

Back From His Native Land .- lives out near the Asylum, there was good although much more juicy than ject in the minds of some people with blissful days of his youth ne often was ting the worms right out on the trees was not I) was preaching, eggs were whom he conversed. He was success- one of a party who looked upon such a and these cocoons," showing three thrown, one of which struck him in the ful in obtaining a large amount of day's labor, enlivened as it always was mice large ones, "are the result. I put face, the meeting, however, went right

Just from England.—Brother R. J. Johnson late of Hereford, who came in with the last company of emigrants, is seeking employment. He has been ford, one of the largest tirms in that ing, also presented him with a silver Much rain has fallen the past three tray, tea and coffee service of beautiful design, and a purse containing 20 windy. The crops look well-the wild guineas, a long account of which enfruit and hazel nut prospect is very joyable occasion was published in the Hereford Times. Bro. Johnson is well acquainted with the treatment and handling of wool as it leaves the skin and the preparing of it for the factory, and would no doubt be a valuable acquisition to any firm needing such services. He can be found for the pre-First Trains from the West .- A sent in the 17th Ward, sixth house by Thomas V. Williams, Esq., of Z. C. in this community. Driving across a about 300 eggs, so you can easily cal- to the poison that is so prvelent. M. I., that his father-in-law, Brother patch of short thin barley, and along culate for yourself how well the busi-On Monday last the Superintendent Andrew Jackson Allen, of Draper, had the side of a mulberry grove, the trees ness will pay if it succeeds and is protrack, and at 7 o'clock p.m. on Tues- news was brought to the city by a son small but quite bushy, the house and isfied with the prospect, though it day the first train from the west pass- of the deceased, who says his father its summer kitchen, in the shape of a entails a good deal of hard work." ed over the road, consisting of six was leading the animal into the yard, large tent, were soon reached. Mr. Hirschvogel has shown that he freight cars and one passenger coach, when it became exasperated and undrawn by engine 288, Thomas Flaven, manageable, threw him to the ground buxom Bavarian "Frau," who probability, be well repaid for it. His restored. Ayer's Pills accomplish this engineer, all under charge of A. L. and thrust one of its horns into the with her husband left her home in success and experience will be an in-Horner, Assistant Superintendent of unfortunate man's neck, most likely Munich tifteen years ago, came to the centive to others to engage in the busthe D. & R. G. W. The arrival of the piercing the jugular vein. The young door with her arms full of mulberry iness; and as the vehicle bounced prevented by promptly correcting such train was heralded by a prolonged man, who witnessed the shocking twigs, and her face full of smiles, and down the dusty road, the prophetic derangements which often develop inwhistle of the engine, and quite a sight, rushed to his father's assis- cordially invited us in. While await- eye of the reporter beheld the smiling to settled disease. large gathering of people welcomed tance, and drove the furious brute ing the arrival of the good man, the re- valley not only a choice spot flowing its arrival. They were all interested, away, but on attempting to raise his porter amused himself in watching the with milk and honey, but adorned as gine was completely covered with "Don't touch me," and sank into a made for the accommodation of the of its own manufacture.

REGULAR JACK SHEPPARDS.

ONE MORE BURGLARY AND THE BUR-GLARS ESCAPE.

Another bold and daring burglar daylight this morning, and again the thieves left no clue as to their identity. office, and amuses himself in his over-The residence of Hon Brigham Young, time with watching and waiting for the the spot chosen by the marauders as the worms are to bring, reached home half in each of the Conferences of Inthe scene of their exploit, and the business-like way in which they carried it out borders on the romantic. Mrs. Young says she sat by the conservatory window at the southeast corner Information Wanted. - Of the of the house until about ten o'clock, whereabouts of Edward Boynton or at which hour she and all members of take them. The young man, Worsen- dent of the L. M. Boynton Saw & File | ticular window. This morning Mr. croft, asked me to take them and I did Co., nephew of the above, is in this George C. Fenton, of the Utah These cost $4 a ounce and are evi- Crosse, Wisconsin. Having had to city and would be pleased to hear from and Nevada Railway, a brotheror to meet some of the family. Address in-law of Mrs. Young, who lives in the house, discovered that his clothes, which he had placed on retiring July 11th, says: A little son of A rapid search was made and the coat and trousers were found near the conand a half years, was accidentally servatory window through which the their exit. The vest has not yet been heard from, neither have the five or six | 000 worms, only a little over half of see. Still there are additions to the dollars which were in the pocket, although some railroad tickets, etc .. | were picked up near the White House, burglars likely came back into the street.

are no new beginners at the business, and their daring methods and success in "Juvenile."-The Juvenile Instruc- Disastrous Fire.-H. W. Naisbitt, eluding capture are wonderful. It is

THE BUSY WORMS.

PORTER CALL ON THEM AT HOME. numbers?" asked the NEWS man. HERR HIRSCHVOGEL'S SUCCESS AS A SERICULTURIST.

ride behind a quick stepping horse en them at all as I hear used to be pressed in this conference. over the Tenth Ward bench and of done at the Forest Farm cocoonery. I viewing the beauties of the Garden find the worms keep livelier and eat City of the Rockies from that altitude them better, for I have tried both I find both from my travels and the is not one to be by any means despised ways and believe that the quality of this hot weather. So when Mr. L. D. the silk is stronger and bet-Young inquired last evening if a re- ter. Third, I am convinced just for the sake of the ride, to the reach the surface water and which home of an amateur silk-raiser who grow in marshy ground are not so only the gloomiest prospects of ac- about." quiring a position where they can make | "Have you had any experience in the plain and imagine their lot is hard. a living. I am perhaps enthusiastic in old country in these matters?" the fact already demonstrated that silk of our information from books and selves. can be raised and that profitably, -why from our short experience."

A ride of three-quarters of an hour | their way out in order to lay eggs?"

working of the worms and the drying of the leaves proceeded from some 60 frames, on each of which were located about two thousand crawlers. The Editor Deseret News: supplying of these with leaves keeps the family pretty busy, for Frau Hirschvogel says they require fresh provender seven or eight times a day, their appetites being most voracious.

The proprietor of the place, an industrious shrewdlooking little German, who works during the day in a city that date until the first worms began rests a little. The labors of the Elders spinning their cocoons, a period of and get to bed about one in the morn- baptized. ing. At four we are at it again and feed them at intervals during the day as fast as they need it."

by the bye he is a countryman of yours and will cover them with little worms, dency. and is named Hirschvogel, is having which of course can be removed, I trust the forgoing will not be taken this matter, but"-here he gave the "Very little. I have been some in to feel sorry for since I have been here highspirited roan filly a tap with the Italy and know something of the are those who were so unfortunate as whip-"with a climate like ours, French methods. But we, that is my to be sick and on that account returned warm, dry and equable, with plenty of wife and children and I, consider our- home. They are the only ones who labor waiting to be employed, and with | selves merely amateurs, gaining most | have at all appeared sorry for them-belonging to Mr. Paul Schettler, agen- the better plan, financially speaking, there are so many articles published Gored to Death.—The sad news tleman whose name has always been though I expect to sell cocoons as well. against us all over the country, that the

NORTHWESTERN STATES MIS-SION.

COVINGTON, Indiana, July 13, 1884.

It has been some months since I saw anything in the DESERET NEWS from these parts except our conference minutes, and I thought a few lines might not be uninteresting concerning the Northwestern States Mission. There are now about aboring in this mission, about one dusty and warm, but in an excellent diana and Minnesota. They are a band . temper, shortly after our arrival. In of earnest workers, and the spirit they answer to the reporter's questions, he have all manifested of rendering a stated that Mr. Schettler suggested cheerful, willing and intelligent obethe idea of trying the business, with a dience to the expressed wishes of the view to making some use of the colony authorities of the Church and the misof mulberry trees which the farm sup- | sion is very commendable. The health ports, and he procured the necessary of the Elders, so far as reported, is eggs from Philadelphia (five ounces) very good, with the exception of Elder with which business was commenced. C. M. Nielson, who is now at La dently a French variety, though the remain there for some time on account only label on the box in which they of ill health, he is able to go around to came reads, "Var. Yellow." With some neighbors to distribute tracts, etc., but of these he commenced on Decoration not well enough to hold meeting. His the tiny worms hatching out. From to labor alone while Brother Neilson

FORTY MISSIONARIES

ARE NOT REPAID.

of eggs are calculated to produce 200,- with the success that we would like to which, however, are working at pres- Church occasionally, about 15 having ent, the accommodations being in- been added since our April conference, sufficient for the whole number at once. and some others are believing. I bethrough the gate leading to which the "The worms are hearty feeders, and lieve, however, that the gospel is now eat continuously up to the time they being preached for a witness against the reach the last stage," said Herr H., wicked more than even for a "gleaning These fellows, whoever they may be, "and it keeps my family busy-I have of grapes when the vintage is dried." only eight children-in supplying them. and therefore the Elders are in no man-We feed the last time about midnight, ner discouraged because more are not

A BRANCH OF THE CHURCH

has been organized at South Bend, the "How do you account for the nly one formed this year. It is somehealthy condition of your worms at | what impractical to do much of that the spinning and apparently critical kind of labor, for the Saints are much period, while those belonging to Presi- scattered, and after baptism the next MR. L. D. YOUNG AND A "NEWS" RE- dent Young used to die in such large thing is to get out of this country, for their former friends and neighbors "I think there are several reasons. prove often very bitter enemies. It it First, the bench land atmosphere is were not for a few of our Saints in dry and more healthy; second, the Johnsonville and Oliver Shelby's fami-The opportunity of taking a buggy leaves I feed quite dry and do not damp- ly here, the Elders would often be hard reports of the Elders is much worse in the Indiana than in the Minnesota Conference. Indifference to the gospel is very marked in the northwest, but that is the greatest drawback, while here mob violence is frequent and sometimes severe. I do not give names as the instances are too many to name all, and still I don't desire to be partial. Having to sleep in barns and sheds is of frequent occurrence, but as the nights are warm, if shelter from the dew is obtained, no harm seems to follow.

THE SPIRIT OF PERSECUTION.

A MOB ATTACKED

At a meeting recently the house and Elders. The latter. as almost a foretaste of heaven. "Well, there, which you see is fully exposed of town in front of some half dozen the trouble with the worms then was, to the wind and weather. My turkey shot guns, with orders not to return or that just on reaching the fifth moult- gobbler I think is the agency which I the Elders would get the contents. ing or final stage, when they ought to have to thank for reducing the twenty Mormon-like the Elders were back have commenced spinning, large num- worms to the three which lived long next morning. I wrote them to leave bers of them weakened and died. Now enough to spin. But next year I am the town, that being the counsel as I this man whom we are going to visit, going to select about a hundred trees understand it from the First Presi-

better success; and I am watching his as soon as they have as a complaint on behalf of the Elders endeavors with interest, feeling that stripped, one tree to a fresh one. Who go through these things; not at the establishment of such an industry I shall have to protect them by a cov- all. I believe that notwithstanding all will furnish not only employment but ering of mosquito bar, but even that the opposition and persecution the wealth to hundreds who, in the pre- outlay will be easily repaid in the sav- Elders meet with, they are the happiest sent depressed state of business, have | ing of work which this plan will bring | persons in this country, and it would be unfair to them to think they com-

The only Elders I have had occasion

The continued thanks of the Elders there may be some cause for enthu- "Do you intend to sell the cocoons, are due to their friends for copies of or will you let the chrysalides eat the NEWS and an increase in that regard would be appreciated as places to brought us to the gate of a 20-acre farm | "I think perhaps the latter would be distribute them; are uumerous, and

J. E. BOOTH.

When the organs of secretion become inactive by reason of a cold or other cause, the inflammatory material should be removed and healthy action quickly, safely and surely. Much serious sickness and suffering might be

Having been afflicted with Hay-Fever for years I gave Ely's Cream Balm a trial. I have had no attack men had brought from the hills five house and laid upon a sofa, where he good one of two nice-sized rooms, The Emperor of China recently or since using it. E. R. Rauch, Editor miles distant and small flags waved in expired within fifteen minutes. Bro. had been entirely given up to them, the dered the destruction of $4,000,000 Carbon Co. Democrat, Mauch Chunk,