Protest against More Texation.

Louisville, 12.—A petition was telegraphed to the Kentucky representatives in Congress, representing the unanimous sentiment of the Board of Trade of Louisville, that the imposition of the proposed additional tax would be a calamity to that State as well as to the entire west. The petition claims, first, that stability in law, all things being equal, is the thing most desired by all who work under it; second, that trade is greatly disturbed by the sudden and unparralleled advance in price of leaf caused by the failure of the crop in '74, and that the change would tend to destroy confidence in the market; third, that an increase in the tax would tend to diminish the tax would tend to diminish consumption; fourth, that the tax under the existing law is faithfully and fully collected.
