The Weather. - This morning the thermometer stood nearly 20 degrees higher here than yesterday morning. It appears as if the weather north and east was going ahead of that of all previous winters in point of severity, approaching the bitterness of the "frozen regions." Yesterday at Omaha the thermometer ranged from 14 to 22 below zero, 35 below at Laramie City, and, good gracious! 44 at Virginia City.

The dispatches also inform us that there was no means of telling how cold it really was at Helens, Montana, being so intense that the mercury was frozen hard in every thermometer, and proof whisky froze solid after being ex-
