

MOFFAT ROAD LETS A CONTRACT

Orman & Crook of Pueblo Awarded
Tender for Grading Twenty-
Three Miles.

ARROWHEAD TO HOT SPRINGS.

About Five Hundred Men Will be Put
To Work Next Week on the Proposition.

Denver, Sept. 24.—Orman and Crook of Pueblo have been awarded the contract for grading the roadbed of the Moffat line from Arrowhead to Hot Sulphur Springs, a distance of about 23 miles. The cost will be about $300,000. About 500 men will be put to work within a week. Chief Engineer Sumner thinks the grading will be completed long before the time limit, June 1 next.

The beginning of this work will mean that the Moffat road is soon to be over the hard places. Only about eight miles of the roadbed from Arrowhead to Hot Sulphur Springs is in the rough country. That section will be the most difficult part of the work to be done.

HAWGOOD OUT.

Consulting Engineer of Salt Lake Route Resigns His Position.

Henry Hawgood, consulting engineer of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railroad, has resigned and has been succeeded by E. G. Tilton, who has been chief engineer of the road. Mr. Tilton was formerly with the Southern Pacific but for some time has been connected with its work. He is expected to arrive here soon and will proceed to the front, after which work will be pushed with additional vigor.

J. A. EDSON RESIGNS.

Manager of Rio Grande May Go to C. & N. D. Road.

J. A. Edson, manager of the Rio Grande system, has resigned his position and it is reported from Denver that he will accept the position of general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Chicago road. Mr. Edson has been connected with the Rio Grande since Jan. 1, 1902, and is regarded as a highly efficient railroad man.

Vice President Schluke has announced that Mr. Edson's successor has not yet been determined upon. It is said that Mr. Edson's transfer to the Ohio road means its early absorption into the Gould system. Other changes in the operating department of the Rio Grande are expected to follow Mr. Edson's retirement.

SOMETHING DOING.

Big Bunch of Rock Island Men in Denver.

The following distinguished railroad officials connected with the Rock Island route are in Denver, inspecting the Colorado & Southern:

L. F. Loree, president of the Rock Island company in New Jersey, which has ownership interests in the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific system of railroads.

R. L. Winfield, president of the C. & N. D. P., formerly vice president and traffic manager of the Colorado & Southern.

N. H. Hickenbeamer, assistant to President Loree.

J. P. Stevens, third vice president of the C. & N. D. P.

H. R. Miller, general manager of the C. & N. D. P.

J. P. Holden, freight traffic manager of the same road.

John Sebastian, passenger traffic manager.

M. A. Law, general attorney.

H. F. White, superintendent of maintenance and repair.

E. F. Moore, son of one of the magnates and owners of the system.

H. J. Siffer, general superintendent of the C. & N. D. P.

The party was entertained by the chamber of commerce, and then enjoyed an excursion with Vice President and General Manager James M. Herbert, and Supt. E. C. Carson of the Colorado & Southern. It is said in railroad circles that it may not only mean the absorption of the Colorado & Southern, but an alliance with the Moffat road as well. They will be at Colorado Springs tomorrow.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

A special car filled with Dowties from Zion City, Ill., on their way to Seattle, passed through Salt Lake yesterday.

A trainload of United States marines numbering 145, in charge of three officers, passed through here yesterday.

TAINED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903.

Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had an all-around feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S., and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "fired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. VICTOR STUBBINS, Cor. Barthman and Washington Aves.

Wheeling, W. V., May 28, 1903.

My system was run down and my joints ached and pained me considerably. I had used S. S. S. before and knew what it was, so I purchased a bottle of it and have taken several bottles and the aches and pains are gone, my blood has been cleared and my general health built up. I can testify to it as a blood purifier and tonic. 1533 Market St. JOHN C. SKRIN.

The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.

From our way from Washington, D. C., will pass through Ogden tomorrow.

Vice President Bancroft, Chief Engineer Ashton and General Superintendent Buckingham left last evening for Chicago, where they will meet Messrs. Kruttschnitt and Schumacher.

Division Engineer R. K. Brown of the Salt Lake route has returned from Los Angeles.

Gen. Fred Funston, accompanied by his family, will pass through Ogden eastward bound on Monday.

The earnings of the Denver & Rio Grande for the second week in September were $1,381,800; decrease, $427,000.

S. G. Gill of Denver is visiting Salt Lake. He is acquainted with D. H. Moffat and is familiar with the road, which is heading for Salt Lake.

He says so far as built it has been well done and is well equipped. He says it will open up a new and rich territory, and will be of vast benefit to Salt Lake and Denver when completed.

KEPT HIS WORD.

Man Suicided When He Said He Would Die.

Chicago, Sept. 24.—Having declared that he would not live more than a year after the death of his wife, Mary, who was murdered for her money in her home by Louis Pezant on Sept. 15, 1903, John Spilka, on the first anniversary of the murder committed suicide by strangling himself with a handkerchief. His body has just been found in a dwelling where he lived in seclusion. Spilka last was seen on Sunday, the anniversary of the murder and from the condition of his body physicians agreed that he must have ended his life that day.

Pezant, the murderer of Mrs. Spilka, was hanged April 15 of this year. Mrs. Spilka was attacked by Pezant in the hallway of her home and stabbed to death with a knife. She was wearing a dress which was concealed in the folds of her dress. She was struck repeatedly on the head with a heavy stone, and her body was carried to the garret.

No Attempt on Life of Don Carlos

Venice, Sept. 23.—The report published in the United States by a news agency that an attempt had been made to assassinate Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, is without foundation.

Vesuvius More Active.

Naples, Sept. 23.—Vesuvius is gradually becoming more active. The crust around the crater has broken away, and produced magnificent fountains of red hot ashes and spouts of fire which rise occasionally in immense columns to a height of 500 feet. The eruption tonight was the most spectacular seen in the last 10 years. A great stream of lava was discharging, threatening wide destruction. The spectacle was watched by thousands of awe-stricken persons.

What is Contraband?

St. Petersburg, Sept. 23.—According to the present status of the negotiations of the United States and Great Britain with Russia on the matter of contraband of war foodstuffs alone have been formally declared conditional contraband. Russia has notified Great Britain that she has no intention to depart from her original view that coal is absolute contraband. At the same time, it is understood that Foreign Minister Lamsdorff has given Sir Charles Hardinge, the British ambassador, a verbal assurance of Russia's desire to apply the rule with the greatest leniency. The same assurance applies to all articles of dual use enumerated in article 6 of Russia's declaration on contraband.

The report that the commission appointed to consider the question of contraband held an extraordinary meeting and declared cotton, coal and iron to be contraband as announced by a news agency in London, is incorrect. The commission has not held a session since the departure of Prof. Martens, its president, for Edinburgh, to attend the meeting of the institute of international law.

San Francisco's Heaviest Rain.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—The heavy rain which began last night continued until this morning, the precipitation from 9 p. m. to 9 a. m. being 2.90 inches. This is the heaviest rainfall for 24 hours ever recorded here, more than doubling the previous figures of 1.03 inches. It also greatly exceeds the heaviest fall on record for the entire month of September, which was 1.06, noted in 1899. Although today has been partly clear, the weather bureau officials state that the storm is not over and that more rain may be expected.

Many basements in this city have been flooded and considerable damage done along the water front. One small launch was sunk and several others set adrift, and nearly 5,000 sacks of wheat, stacked without cover, were badly damaged. The Union Ferry building, which is having a new ferry roof on, was badly damaged, and in the office of the harbor commissioners several thousand dollars' worth of drawing were destroyed.

The captains of the Pomona, City of Puebla and Gaelia, arriving today, report a rough night outside. The rain was accompanied by a strong southeaster and came down in such volume that nothing could be distinguished a boat's length ahead.

BAPTIZED IN HUDSON RIVER.

John W. Rigdon, Only Surviving
Son of Early Church Leader
Comes Back Into Fold.

NOW SEVENTY-FOUR YEARS OLD

Has Vivid Recollection of Scenes and Incidents in Which His Father
Took Prominent Part.

Under date of Sept. 10, Elder Isaac R. Ball writes from the City of New York the following interesting recital of the baptism of the only surviving son of Sidney Rigdon, who stood high in the councils of the Church in its early days:

Last Thursday, Sept. 8, 1904, three Elders of Israel had the pleasure of witnessing the baptism of John W. Rigdon, only surviving son of Sidney Rigdon, once first counselor to the Prophet Joseph. The ordinance was performed by Elder John M. Macfarlane, president of this conference, in the waters of the historic Hudson river, and he was confirmed by Elder John G. McQuarrie, president of the Eastern States Conference. And thus at the ripe age of 74 years, the only remaining son of Sidney Rigdon re-enters the Church of Christ, from which his father was expelled after playing a prominent part in its darkest hours. The old gentleman has wandered long and far from the fold his father once loved, but has at last found rest therein. No wonder his eyes were brimming over with tears as he received the congratulations of his newly found brothers in Christ. He returned to his home in Brooklyn.

And it is gratifying to know that the cord which has held him to the faith these many years, and which has finally drawn him within the household, is the unshaken testimony of his father to the divinity of the mission of Joseph Smith, and of the Book of Mormon.

Sidney Rigdon always testified to these truths, and his son, John W., has never been able to fully escape or forget the force of them.

EARLY RECOLLECTIONS.

John W. Rigdon was born at Mentor, O., about five miles from Kirtland, June 11, 1830. Kirtland is the place of his first recollections. He remembers the building of the temple and its dedication, where Sidney delivered the sermon. He remembers distinctly the terrible journey of two months in the winter of 1838 of Joseph and Sidney and their families; the exciting times at Far West, and the imprisonment at Liberty Jail of the Prophet, Hyrum, Sidney and others; the settlement at Nauvoo in the spring of 1839, and the history of that beautiful city, until in 1844 he was taken with his father to Pittsburg.
