

AUSTRIANS ARE NOT WELCOMED.

Feeling Against All Aliens is Very Bitter at Murray Since The Outrage.

MEETING HELD LAST EVENING.

Steps Taken Looking to Their Banishment Along Lawful Lines Only—Mayor Stratton's Talk.

The feeling against the Austrian laborers at Murray growing out of the assault case a week ago, and the mysterious murder a short time before that, is becoming so accentuated that a plan will soon be adopted for the banishment of the Austrian colony. Last night the first meeting of citizens was held to consider the matter. Monday night another has been called, at which definite steps will be taken to proceed along lawful lines only, excluding any mob effort or violence.

Mayor Stratton presided at the gathering last night, which was attended by the city council and about 200 citizens. In a speech outlining the proposed plan of action Mayor Stratton said that he desired only lawful means to be employed. He would favor presenting the proposition to the municipal council, and attempt to secure an order forbidding the employment of Austrians in the future. He pointed out that in addition to the two cases, one of assault and one of murder traceable to the colony within the past month, they present a constant problem and menace to Murray, and are not good citizens and do nothing to help build up the city. The money they receive as wages is hoarded and sent out to their home countries in great bulky packages. Their only aim is to get money to go back to the old country and live in luxury according to the standard there. The town of Murray, said Mayor Stratton, "is going down hill steadily because of this class of undesirable citizens, and we must take some means to get rid of them."

Between now and the meeting Monday plans will be formulated to secure the exodus of the Austrians, that will then be presented for adoption.

GOT SEVEN YEARS.

Jim Riley, Safecracker, Takes a Long Needed Rest Henceforth.

It took the jury but a few minutes yesterday afternoon to reach a verdict of guilty in the case of the state against Jim Riley, who was charged with burglarizing the office of the Continental Oil company several weeks ago, and in consequence of such a verdict, Riley will spend seven years at Varden Prison's summer home on the hill southeast of the city. Riley first broke into a blacksmith shop and stole some tools and then broke into the oil company's office and had succeeded in opening the vault and was nearly caught by the owner when interrupted by Thomas Birch, the nightwatchman at the Rio Grande Hotel. A number of shots were exchanged between the men, but the burglar succeeded in getting away. Riley was captured the next morning.

THE DOCTOR

SENT MR. HAYLAND TO COLORADO FOR HIS HEALTH.

Says His Life Was Saved by Vinol.

People of Salt Lake City will be interested in the recovery of Mr. Hayland, as so many of our friends are continually being sent to one doctor or another as the only means of recovery.

In writing of his cure from Denver, Colo., Mr. Hayland says: "I believe that Vinol, the new cod liver oil preparation, has saved my life, and I wish to mention my case, as it may be of value to others similarly affected."

"I was sent to Colorado with what my doctor said would develop into tuberculosis, and was so weak I was unable to work at my profession. Since I began using Vinol my appetite has returned, I sleep well, feel very much stronger and am sure I shall soon be restored to perfect health. I cannot recommend Vinol too strongly, as it has done so much for me when all other medicines had failed."

Our well known druggist, Mr. Druehl of Druehl & Frank, says: "The reason Vinol accomplishes such remarkable results when all other tonics and emphases of cod liver oil fail is because it contains in a concentrated form all of the healing, curative elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without oil of grease, and it does not upset the weakest stomach.

Druehl & Frank also freely offer to return money paid them for Vinol in any case where it fails to cure chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis troubles, indigestion, consumption, to make rich, red blood, increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength, cure stomach vitality to the aged, build up run down, tired and debilitated, and make the weak strong.

Barely any person in Salt Lake City who is in need of such a remedy should with remarkable curative powers and won't cost you a cent if it does you good. Druehl & Frank also Smith Drug Co. druggists.

Correct Clothes for Men

A man is only the less genteel for a fine coat, if, in wearing it, he shows a regard for it, and is not as easy in it as if it were a plain one.—Lord Chesterfield to his son.

by Sergt. Hempel and Patrolman Emil Johnson. His attorney, A. E. Chittenden, did not put in any evidence for the defense, but he confirmed his argument to the fact that the state had not proven defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. After the jury returned its verdict the court to be lenient with him. He was then sentenced by Judge Lewis to seven years in the state prison. The other case against him in which he was charged with burglarizing the blacksmith shop, was dismissed upon motion of District Attorney Smith.

TRICKERY ALLEGED.

Suit Filed Over an Option on Patent Coking Process.

Suit has been filed in the district court by Charles F. Spaulding against George B. McDonald to have declared null and void an option on his patent process for coking coal. It is alleged that on May 2, plaintiff executed an option to defendant and M. H. Kriebel on the patent running 90 days, the purchase price to be $5,000. On June 5, it is alleged, defendant induced plaintiff to sign another agreement in regard to the patent. This latter paper defendant represented that he needed to show the H. C. Frick Coke company of Pennsylvania, to which he intended to sell the patent.

It now develops that it was an unlimited option on the patent, and plaintiff asks that the agreement be set aside and declared null and void, as it is a cloud on his title to the patent.

RESULT OF GOSSIP.

Two Women Insane and One Very Ill Owing to Scandalmongering.

Mrs. John Cosgrove of 440 east First South street has just gone to New York to minister to her three sisters, two of whom, Mrs. J. Finnan and Miss Josephine Ryan, have gone insane, and the third, Miss Mollie, is very ill. The occasion of all this is the idle gossip of senseless and thoughtless women neighbors. The three sisters conducted a profitable candy business in the great city, and after the marriage of one of them, the business was conducted by the other two. They were pretty and showed marked taste in dressing, and this was the ground for gossip. The work of the slanderers preyed so upon the minds of the girls that the result was as noted above, and now the gossips are repentant, regretting, when it is too late, and the business and happiness of the Ryan girls have been destroyed.

HAGENBARTH TALKS.

President of National Live Stock Association Interviewed in Chicago.

F. J. Hagenbarth of this city, president of the National Live Stock Association, was in Chicago the other day, and the Deseret Journal of that city prints his picture along with the following interview: "I am in the city on business connected with the welfare of the National Live Stock association. Of course, it is the object of the association to interest the breeder and feeder of live stock, the railroads, the commission men and the packers. In fact, any person that is at all connected or has interest in the live stock industry."

"The National Live Stock association is not ruled or dominated by a set or clique of men. Instead, every member has an equal voice in the affairs and regulations of the association. It is our intention to reorganize the association, hence my visit to Chicago and other principal markets. There are many undesirable features of the former association that must be corrected, and it is our aim to collect together a body of men at the association's meeting in January at Denver that will be truly a representative body of the live stock interests, and transact the business affairs of the association on a more satisfactory and economical basis."

"Another plan of ours is to formulate a bureau of information through which stockmen will be kept informed on the needs of the markets from week to week, the number of beef cattle on the range, the number of marketable cattle in the corn belt feed lots; in fact, be able to furnish anything that may be of interest and value to those interested in the live stock industry. There is a great demand for a closer and truer annual or biennial census of live stock, and the association will use its power and influence to bring such about. It is very probable that the attendance at the convention will be quite heavy, for there seems to be new and earnest interest manifested by everyone that I have met in coming meetings and the work to be taken up."

"What about the railroads; will there be any strong moves made at the convention against them for better service?" was asked of Mr. Hagenbarth. "Oh, the railroads are wrong in some things, and also are the stockmen.

MR. COLLETT'S CASE.

He is Confident and Will Ask for Reinstatement.

Postoffice Inspector Patterson has arrived from Vernal after installing E. H. Young as postmaster there in place of R. S. Collett. The amount of the irregularly reported in the accounts of the postmaster was $1,200. Mr. Collett's friends who are numerous throughout Utah will be pleased to know that he fully expects to establish his innocence of any charge of embezzlement, and has published a card in which he says: "I am not guilty of the charge of embezzlement of postoffice funds. I shall carry my case to the federal court as early a date as possible, and after my innocence is established I shall ask for reinstatement as postmaster at Vernal as a vindication of my character and kindly suspend judgment until that time they will have no cause of doubting my sincerity."

JACOB SCHIFF COMING.

New York Banker and Titled Englishman Inspecting Harriman Lines.

Jacob H. Schiff, head of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. of New York, which is the real financial power behind the Harriman systems, arrived in Salt Lake this evening, accompanied by Sir Ernest Cassel and Sir Robert Fleming. According to Chicago and Denver papers Sir Ernest Cassel is the fiscal agent for King Edward VII and is looking over the country with the object in view of making some investments.

The party is traveling in 1903, the private car of W. H. Bancroft, which was sent back to New York specially for the purpose 10 days ago.

ELY'S LIQUID CREAM BALM

is an old friend in a new form. It is prepared for the particular benefit of sufferers from nasal catarrh who are used to an ointment in spraying the diseased membrane. All the healing and soothing properties of Cream Balm are retained in the new preparation. It does not dry up the secretions. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cents. At your druggist's or Ely Brothers, 26 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

GIVES RELIEF QUICKLY

Regular Use of Hyomei Cures Most Stubborn Case of Catarrh.

No other medicine gives such prompt relief as Hyomei in the treatment of catarrh. The first breath of this remedy soothes and heals the irritated and smarting air passages, and the regular use for a few days or weeks will cure the most stubborn case. Some of the reports of those who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei read like miracles.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00, consisting of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei to last several weeks. This will effect a cure in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then extra bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c.

Probably the strongest evidence that can be offered as to the power of Hyomei to cure catarrh is the fact that E. C. Schramm will agree to refund the money if you say that Hyomei has not helped you.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Two large and brilliant receptions were given today by Mrs. Thomas Kearns and Mrs. McCormick and Miss Keogh respectively, the events figuring among the notable social celebrations of the season. Flowers, ferns, music and social chat made the affairs delightful, while the beautiful costumes of the hostesses and guests added in the attractiveness of the scenes.

Thanksgiving will be marked by a number of home functions, the day growing to be more and more removed from the exclusive family celebration to one of open hospitality. The various clubs will be open also to the members and public, and a number of well known people will entertain at the respective places. Altogether the day promises to be a truly joyous and pleasurable one.

Mr. and Mrs. Strauss of Baltimore were guests of honor at a dinner given by Mr. Jacob Moritz on Monday night at the Alta club, covers being laid for 10.

Amusements

The name of Rush was passed over on the bill boards, Dorothy Morton took the title role of Glittering Gloria, and the play was given without a break at the Salt Lake theater last night.

It was a comedy, yet not a farce comedy as Americans are used to them, nor yet a musical comedy, but the good old English comedy which features the lighter passions of human life, as their companions the tragedies, feature the heavier passions. For comedians, instead of two stuffed Germans, entitled "Roger Brothers" or "Mack and Mack" we get a couple of English Johnnies who behave so naturally that the reality of their type is what is most impressive about them. If the baggage smasher in the Eastern station wants to do a specialty song and dance stunt, he doesn't slide out and do a con specialty, but instead he renders as pretty a little love song, addressed to his own dearest lady, as is often heard here. In none of the specialty stunts last night did the character pass the boundaries of what was proper to it.

The stage devices of Glittering Gloria had but little that was novel. The escape of James and Toddiely from Gloria's drawing room by being carried out in a trunk, and the fun occasioned by their jostling about on the baggage smasher's truck, dates away back to the trip of Flaxstaff in the family clothes basket from the house of the Merry Wives of Windsor, and is evidently a borrowing from the dusty theatrical green room.

In acting the Glittering Gloria company left nothing to be desired. Dorothy Morton played the leading role as though she had handled it all season. Her acting of being on her first night after but a week's rehearsal. The Jack James of George Parsons, and Apollo Toddiely of William Heriot were excellently done. A minor role that seemed decided by the "Orchid" of the third Assistant Superintendent of Largeage of Edw. M. Faver, his song "Cordelia" brought calls for encore after encore.

As the Glittering Gloria is worth the seeing, and ought to have no trouble in completing its tour after the propitious start in Salt Lake with its new leading lady.

"San Toy" the Chinese musical comedy which ran for two full years in London and a year in New York, will be soon here tonight with John C. Fisher's big company to interpret it. James T. Powers, famous for years as a humorist of distinct ability and originality, heads the company and will play the part of Li, a witty Chinaman with a weakness for appropriating things belonging to others. The other principals in the cast are Margaret McKim, Geo. K. Porteus, John Peachy and Miss Rudolph.

"A Little Outcast" opens at the Grand tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The Salt Lake Symphony Orchestra concert on the evening of Monday, Dec. 6 will present an entirely new program, on which Prof. Schenck and his men are now actively at work.

The Utahna theater is presenting an attractive bill this week to heavy patronage.

A NATURAL SANITARIUM.

What a Scientific Observer Has to Say About California.

Lieut. John P. Findley, while in charge of the United States weather bureau at San Francisco, contributed an article to a prominent magazine on the climatic conditions of California, in which the following statement appeared:

"Theoretically, California should furnish the best and most varied health resort and sanitariums in the United States. Within her borders almost every form of weather disease should find the means of temporary, if not permanent, relief."

This theoretical statement, from an unbiased, scientific standpoint, is abundantly confirmed by experience. The cool and bracing coast climate, devoid of any trace of malaria, extends from the northern part of the state to the extreme south. There is a choice between this cool, humid atmosphere and the dry, warm atmosphere of the inland valleys.

Of altitude there is yet a greater difference. From the Valley, 300 feet below sea level, to the upper Sierras, 7,000 or 8,000 above, any altitude can be selected, and comfortable homes be found.

The peculiarity of an almost rainless summer, during which the injurious germs of animal and vegetable decay are destroyed by thorough desiccation, is one of the striking features of California climate.

During the rainy season it is usually too cool to facilitate fermentation, and the result is, except along some of the river valleys, an absolutely pure atmosphere. The ocean winds sweep through the several coast openings, are tempered by the intermediate area passed over, and often receive desirable healing properties by taking up the various odors of the pines and redwoods of the coast range.

The skillful physician, acquainted with the climatic conditions, should find little difficulty in selecting a locality where climate and environment will do all that these agencies can ever do toward the restoration of health. There is enough of wisdom to keep the mind constantly engaged and enough of civilization to satisfy the most exacting.

People whose systems are charged with malaria, or are "run down" by overwork, find immediate and in many cases permanent relief in this invigorating climate.

CATARRH OF THE LUNGS OFTEN FIRST STAGE OF CONSUMPTION

MISS FLORENCE KENAH.

Miss Florence E. Kenah, 484 Maria street, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "A few months ago I caught a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and remained there so persistently that I became alarmed. I took medicine without benefit, until my digestive organs became upset, and my head and back began to ache severely and frequently."

"I was advised to try Peruna, and although I had little faith, I felt so sick that I was ready to try anything. It brought me blessed relief at once, and I felt that I had the right medicine at last. Within three weeks I was completely restored, and have enjoyed perfect health since."

"I now have the greatest faith in Peruna."—Florence E. Kenah.

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CONTRACTING CATARRH.

The cold wind and rain, such and mud of November are especially conducive to catarrh of the lungs. Few women escape.

Upon the first symptoms of catching cold Peruna should be taken. Colds lead to catarrh. Catarrh ends in consumption. Delays are dangerous.
