Tailor Shop Burglarized.

Some time last night Hall Larsen's tailor shop at No. 174 w., South Temple Street, was entered by thieves, who gained ingress through a window. They carried off two full suits of clothes, four pairs of pants, a coat, a $12 pair of shears, and some other articles.

A Close Call.

At the Daly Mine, near Park City, on Monday, the ground caved and caught one of the miners, Patrick Welsh, completely burying him. Vigorous efforts were made to rescue him, and after an hour's work the miners succeeded in uncovering his face, finding that he was still alive. It was about seven hours, however, before he could be extricated. He was severely bruised, but not dangerously injured. It is supposed that the timbers saved him from being crushed to death.

The "Exponent."

The current number of the Woman's Exponent contains a hymn, "Arise! For thy light is come!" by Lu Dalton, and a poem, "The Revolutionary Officers," by Ruby Lamont, both of which were written for this publication; an excellent sketch of Julia Ward Howe, by E. B. W., and another, by the same writer, of Dr. Rachel L. Bodley. The number also contains some interesting correspondence, and the usual variety of Relief Society intelligence and selected matter.

Murderers Break Jail.

A passenger who came in from Blackfoot yesterday reported a jail breaking at that place. He stated that two murderers named Woods and Williams, who had been sentenced to hang on Saturday, July 21, succeeded in overpowering the guards and in regaining their liberty. Indians captured Williams and returned him to jail, but Woods had not been found at the time the informant left Blackfoot, although diligent search has been instituted. The latter is a negro.—Ogden Standard, July 10.

Emery Items.

Our correspondent at Huntington, Emery County, says:

A few days ago a 17-year-old son of Brother Harrison Herriman met with a severe accident here. He was pushing his shotgun before him through a fence, when the hammer caught, discharging the weapon. The load struck him in the palm of the left hand, making a terrible wound. He was taken to Provo to be cared for.

The streams of water here are lowering faster than they have done for years.

The crops as a general thing look well, and the health of the people is good.

BOUND OVER.

Andrew Amundson Held for Unlawful Cohabitation.

Today Andrew Amundson, of South Jordan, Salt Lake County, was arraigned before Commissioner Norrell on a charge of unlawful cohabitation with his wives Jane and Elizabeth Amundson. He pleaded not guilty. District Attorney Peters conducted the prosecution, no attorney being present for the defense.

Mrs. Jane Amundson testified that she was the legal wife of the defendant; she was married fifteen years ago.

Mr. Peters—Are you willing to testify in this case?

Mrs. Amundson—No, sir.

She was excused.

James Glover testified—Mrs. Jane Amundson is my daughter. At this point Mr. Glover was excused, as he was too ill to sit in the witness chair.

Mrs. Eliza Montier testified—I live four miles from Mr. Amundson; am acquainted with his family; Mrs. Amundson is my sister; Elizabeth Glover Amundson is my sister; I last saw her at father's, three months ago; she is Andrew Amundson's wife; I have not seen her at his house during the past three years; I have not been there myself; Elizabeth has three children, the youngest about a year old.

Mary Jane Hicks testified—I have been at the defendant's house several times during the past two years; I saw two ladies at the house; one was Jane and the other Lizzie Amundson; I have not seen the latter for more than a year; I think she moved away about a year ago.

Wm. H. Bowden testified—I do not know Lizzie Amundson, or any one reputed to be defendant's wife; was at his house last Friday morning.

The Commissioners held Mr. Amundson to await the action of the grand jury, placing the bail at $1,000, which was given. Mrs. Montier was also required to give $200 bonds.

THE CONFISCATION.

The Seizure of Church Property Still Goes On.

Up to last night Marshal Dyer made demands for alleged Church property, and received the same to the amount of about $184,000. The demands were made in his capacity of Receiver in the confiscation of Church property by the United States.

SHEEP AND CATTLE.

Among the property asked for were 30,000 head of sheep, which had been sold on March 2, 1887, and $75,000 worth of cattle similarly disposed of. By an arrangement with the Receiver, this stock is to be delivered by September 1st next. The following is the agreement entered into:

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 9, 1888.

The undersigned hereby undertake and agree to surrender and deliver to Frank H. Dyer, as Receiver of the corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, on or before September 1st next, of the personal property claimed to have been assigned to the various stake corporations throughout the Territory of Utah by John Taylor, trustee in trust, on or about February 28th, 1887, livestock of the value of $75,000, or as much thereof as may be practicable, and that in case the said live-stock so to be turned over shall amount in value to less than $75,000, the balance thereof the undersigned undertake and agree to pay to the said Receiver in cash.

The undersigned also hereby undertake and agree to surrender and deliver to the said Frank H. Dyer, as such Receiver, on or before September 1st next, 30,000 head of sheep of the grade and quality of those delivered to Le-Grande Young on or about May 1st, 1887, by Francis Armstrong.

THE THEATRE.

A demand was also made on LeGrand Young for notes to the amount of $27,000, covering stock in the Salt Lake Dramatic Association, or the Theatre, transferred March 2, 1887. Mr. Young produced the receipt for the notes and handed it over to the Receiver. The notes are described as follows:

One for $13,333.32, signed by John Sharp and Keramor Little; due two years from the date hereof with interest at 6 per cent.

One for $4,833.33, signed by James Jack and secured by 250 shares of the capital stock of the Salt Lake Dramatic Association; due and interest same as above.

One for $1,666.66, signed by Le-Grand Young and secured by 100 shares of the capital stock of the Salt Lake Dramatic Association; interest and terms same as above.

Also one for $5,000, signed by H. B. Clawson, secured by 300 shares of the capital stock of the Salt Lake Dramatic Association; interest and terms same as above.

DESERET TELEGRAPH.

On March 1, 1887, the stock of the Deseret Telegraph Company held by the Church was distributed to the various Stake Associations. Yesterday afternoon the demand for this stock was complied with. The Deseret Telegraph line therefore passed into the hands of the United States marshal. The agreement says:

We hereby agree that, in accordance with the agreements heretofore made between the agents of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and the Receiver appointed by the Supreme Court of Utah Territory, in the case of the United States of America against the late corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in regard to the delivery of the stock of the Deseret Telegraph Company that lately belonged to the said church, and that was by said Trustee-in-Trust on the 3rd of March, 1887, assigned to the several Stakes of Zion in this Territory of Utah, consisting of — shares of stock, shall all be turned over and delivered to said Receiver within a period of thirty days from this date, and the offices and possessions of said line and appurtenances, subject to existing contracts with any other company, shall be delivered to said Receiver within two days from date.

This afternoon District Attorney Peters and Marshal Dyer leave for Washington. FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JULY 12, 1888.

Logan Temple.

The Logan Temple will close for renovation and repairs on Friday evening July 13th, 1888, and open on Monday August 13th, 1888.

M. W. MERRILL, Prest.

Shot in the Leg.

On Tuesday evening John Tapp, of Union, was shooting at fish in Chalk Creek. He laid his revolver on the ground, and shortly after, by some unknown means, it was discharged, the ball passing through his leg just below the knee. He was employed as a sheepherder at the time, but went home to have his injury attended to.

Fatal Result.

On the Fourth, at Oasis, Millard County, Moroni Bennett, 16 years old, was riding behind another young man on a horse. He was thrown off, and received injuries about the head. A surgeon was summoned, and though the injuries were at first thought to be slight, the unfortunate boy sank until death came on Sunday evening last. He was buried on Tuesday.

A Woman Arrested.

Last evening Deputy Marshal Cannon went to Ogden and arrested Mrs. M. J. Garrett on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The complaint was made by Lena B. Samson, of this city. Mrs. Garrett is from Denver, and has been disposing of some new patents for dressmakers, and it is out of a transaction of this kind that the prosecution has grown.

Death.

This morning Robert George, the eight-months-old son of Percy E. and Ellen Chamberlain, late of Fisher's Gate, near Brighton, England, died in this city. The family were with the company of emigrants which arrived last evening, and up to yesterday seemed in the best of health. The little one was taken with summer complaint, and passed away about 9 a. m. today. The bereaved parents are deeply grieved at their sad loss.

Alleged Robber Captured.

Today the police took into custody a man who called himself J. W. Bozeman, on the charge of robbing Hall J. Larsen's tailor shop. On some papers in his possession his name was given as J. W. Beasley. He also had some of the stolen goods, including two pairs of shears, two pairs of pants and a full suit of clothing. When arrested he claimed that he had bought the goods from a man whom he met on the train coming from Ogden, paying $9 for them. He was lodged in jail to await an investigation of the charge.

A Bold Thief.

Yesterday afternoon an auction sale was going on at the Lochwitz Market, First South Street. Mrs. Fox had purchased several articles and was turning away, when a tall, dark complexioned man seized her by the throat and began choking her. He caught her purse, which contained about $15, and endeavored to get it away from her, but she held on. The crowd had seen the fellow by this time, and fearing lest he should be caught, he released the lady and her purse, and seized her parasol and gloves, and escaped through an alley. The lady fainted from the rough treatment she had received. The thief has not yet been apprehended.

New Index.

Mr. Geo. Thackrah of this city, who, some months since, placed an improved accountants' index on the market, has devised another though similar one, which is now on sale. For some purposes it is superior to the first index he invented, which was admitted to possess rare merit. It contains space for a large number of names, and it provides for such an arrangement of surnames and first names, by vowels, groupings, colors, tracers, etc., as to facilitate, to a remarkable degree, the finding of the name wanted. Book-keepers, whose ledgers contain a large number of accounts, and whose time is valuable, should investigate the merits of Thackrah's index. See adv.

From the British Mission.

Elder Henry E. Bowring, president of the company of immigrants which arrived in this city at 7:20 last evening, reports a prosperous journey from Liverpool. Crossing the ocean they experienced a few days of rather heavy sea, and the inevitable resultant seasickness, but aside from this there is no record of sickness; death or accident throughout the long journey.

Elder Bowring, who is of Brigham City, left for his mission April 14, 1886, since when he has been laboring in the Bristol conference, during the last year as president. In his labors he has baptized 66 persons, blessed 30 children of new converts, and with the corps of five Elders of the conference has, he believes, succeeded in allaying considerable prejudice.

The Bristol conference is reported in a flourishing condition; it includes about 200 members of the Church, all anxious to gather to Utah. A general spirit of inquiry for the truth is manifested, although some incidental persecution has been experienced at the hands of sectaries. It was deemed necessary to transfer the headquarters of the conference successively from Bristol and Hanham to Cheltenham, in consequence of overt persecution from Methodist church members, who, in both localities, annoyed the mission residence and meetings with squibs, tobacco-smoke and assaults with turf and mud, and on one occasion other less pleasant material. In the mission field at present the great test amount of good is accomplished with tracts and private interviews, rather than with public meetings, as in the visits more detailed and pertinent explanations of the principles of the Gospel can be made. Among the other returning missionaries was Elder James F. Thorne, who presided over the Glasgow conference, and was secretary of the company.

Very Sad.

About a month ago the people of Mesa, Arizona, were called to witness one of the saddest scenes that the angel of death can leave behind him. On June 12th, 1888, Miss Gertrude Pomeroy, daughter of Francis M. and Jessie Pomeroy, a most estimable young lady and firm Latter-day Saint, departed this life under circumstances well calculated to arouse universal sympathy. She was shortly to have been married, and was even preparing for the happy event.

The young man of her choice, a returned Elder and at present Counselor to the President of one of our Stakes, was on his way from his home in Utah to claim her as his bride. Traveling overland by team, he did not get the numerous telegrams apprising him of her dangerous illness of typhoid fever.

Judge then of his feelings when upon arriving at her home instead of the glad smile of welcome that he must have looked forward to, he was informed mid the tears of a sorrowing household that she had been buried a week.

The mother and two sisters, unable to control their grief without a change of scene came night before last to this city, and are now staying with their relative, Brother Solomon Kimball. The heart-broken lover accompanied them as far as his home. Miss Pomeroy was a graduate of the B. Y. Academy. The students of 1885-6 will ever remember her for her frank, openhearted, generous disposition by which she won the love and esteem of all her associates. For a year past she has acted as principal of the Mesa district school, and in every good word and work she was foremost. The whole community feel her loss, and know not where to find one to fill her place.

This notice should have appeared a month ago, but by an oversight was missed. The writer, therefore, to apprise her many friends in Utah of her sad fate, takes this opportunity of paying a humble tribute to the memory of a dear friend.

AN ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

A Sad Affair—Impressive Funeral Ceremonies.

Brother Samuel W. Westein, writing from Deseret, Millard County, July 11, 1888, gives the following account of a fatal accident to a young man at that place, while the celebration of Independence Day was in progress:

"It was not long before our mirth was turned to sorrow. Two of our young men rode up town and were returning to their homes, both being on the same horse. When near their homes, on crossing a water ditch at full speed, the horse slipped and fell, throwing both riders headlong to the ground. Moroni Bennett, in his seventeenth year, alighted on his head, causing a fracture of the skull at the base. The other young man escaped with a severe fall. As soon as the latter young man, Juel Moody, gained his feet he saw his comrade lying insensible, and the blood gushing from his mouth. He with others picked him up and carried him into his father's house, that of Brother Joshua Bennett, which was close by. All was done for him that loving hands and hearts could do. Dr. Miner of Nephi was telegraphed for. He came and did all he could, but said there was no hope for the youth, who lingered until 3 o'clock Monday morning, the 9th inst., when his spirit peacefully passed away causing his parents and the community much sorrow.

The funeral services were held on the morning of the 10th in the school house. Bishop J. S. Black and Elder Wm. V. Black made some very comforting remarks and gave some excellent counsel to the young.

The remains were followed to the grave by about 300 of our citizens in 37 carriages and wagons, led by 12 young men with white shirts and black sashes; also one young man leading the horse of deceased, the saddle being covered with crape. Next followed 35 young ladies on foot, two and two, with white dresses and black sashes. Next came the hearse, carriages and wagons, containing relatives and friends.

This sad accident has caused a deep feeling of sorrow in this place, and much sympathy is felt for Brother and Sister Bennett and family, who are bowed down in sorrow. May God comfort them in the feeling of the Saints in this ward.

SAMUEL W. WESTERN.

Ogden Jottings.

Last evening, as the train returned from Lake Park, Mr. G. J. Wright was struck in the month without the least provocation by some person who forbade him entering the car where his family were seated. Mr. Wright's hat was knocked off and lost, and his lip is greatly swollen. He offers a reward of $25 for the arrest and conviction of the person who did the cowardly and contemptible trick.

Mr. Hyram Belnap, who met with such a strange accident through inhaling ether at the hospital, while walking through the room where it had been administered, is no better. His head, neck and back are painful; him severely, and he can barely move around. He is also very weak and suffering with soreness in his whole body. It is to be hoped that the skillful attention he is receiving will restore him to his usual health.

When the late train coming in from the lake last night, was passing between the D. & R. G. freight transfer and the C. P. roundhouse some murderous rascal fired off three shots. At the first shot the bullet passed through one of the car windows narrowly missing the head of Mr. J. A. Lampert's little boy. The bullet passed out through the opposite window passing within six inches of Mrs. Lampert's head. The shattered glass struck her in the face but did no injury.

Last Sunday evening P. H. Fanning and J. F. Shirk, railroad boys working on the U. P., went to Lake Park to take a bath. They left their clothes and valuables in their room while they enjoyed the buoyant waters of the lake. When they came out the first-named gentleman was minus an open-faced silver watch with gold chain and locket and also $20 in cash. Mr. Shirk had also lost a silver watch and chain and $10 in cash; he had taken the precaution to put his money in his shoe, but it was nevertheless gone when he came to look for it. The robbery was reported to the officers of the resort, but the thieves have not been found.—Ogden Standard, July 13.
