

particulars are given, but the utmost use is made of reports to depress stocks and with good success. A London house was mentioned as being embarrassed, but no name was given and nothing definite seemed to be known in regard to the matter. Recently a large grain merchant in Hull, England, and another in France, suspended, the latter with liabilities of two hundred thousand pounds sterling. Both these firms had London connections, and this may explain the rumor about the London house.

What purports to be a London dispatch says there is a report in that city that Don Carlos has died from wounds received in the mutiny at Durango.

ST. PAUL, Minn., 6.—The grand jury of the Common Pleas court, which has been in session since the 1st of September, to-day appeared before Judge Hall at his house, he being too ill to appear in the court room, and presented twenty-three indictments against Charles McIlrath, late State auditor, it is supposed for malfeasance in office, though the tenor of the indictments has not yet transpired. Mr. McIlrath was arrested and gave bail. The statement in explanation of his accounts and the frauds alleged against him is nearly ready for publication, and he has expressed himself as absolutely certain that when the public sees his side of the controversy, his good name will be fully vindicated.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 6.—Lt. Mahmonde Perille, of the Turkish army, and inspector of the arms making for the Sultan by the Providence Tool Co., committed suicide late last night, on Red Bridge.

WASHINGTON, 6.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is in receipt of a letter from agent Miles, dated at the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Agency, Sept. 30, stating that even young Kiowas headed by the famous chief "Big Tree," and twelve Cheyennes headed by "White Horse," had come in on the previous evening and made professions of friendship. "Big Tree" said he belonged to Satanta's band, numbering about 120, camped thirty miles from this agency, and that they wanted to come in and remain there instead of going to Fort Hill. Friend Miles and Gen. Neill regarded the whole party as a suspicious set, and made them prisoners of war, but let two squaws go back to invite the rest of the Kiowas party to surrender. Miles says it is generally thought that Satanta will stampede when he hears the fate of "Big Tree" and his party.

Postmaster General Jewell has stopped the warrant for one hundred thousand dollars, which was made out for the N. Y. Central railroad, for pay for the increased weight of mail service during the last fiscal year; the appropriation for that class of business having been more than exhausted, and all other adjustments for increased service for that year also suspended until the necessary action shall be taken by Congress. There was an appropriation made for half a million dollars for this increased payment, and about $250,000 was also appropriated for the usual yearly increase in the mails. It now appears that under the readjustment the increase in pay on railroads already made amounts to one million dollars in round numbers, and the department estimates that there is half a million dollars more due on accounts, yet to be presented or adjusted.

RICHMOND, Ind., 6.—A committee of Friends, on Indian matters, presented the fifth annual report of the condition of the work to-day. They speak of the opportunities they have had during many meetings of the past year to become acquainted with their agents, and of the peculiarities of the war. They request the Friends to forward their quotas of $4000 for the use of the committee during the current year. They give as the chief causes that prevent Indian civilization, prejudice against the race, embittered by the treatment received, strong adhesion to custom and the traditions of their forefathers, migratory habits, non-enforcement of the law excluding whiskey, and superstition. They believe in a Christ, but only as a good being with whom they ardently desire close communion, they are ignorant of the real design of life, and cannot realize the infinite love of the Great Spirit. They advise the bringing of the Indians in contact with those whose lives are a constant proof of divine grace, and not to introduce religious services as yet. They blame several whisky agents, who inebriate and then rob the Indians on the frontier. The agents should be empowered to protect them, but to do this they must call on the government for troops sometimes. If they are not allowed to do this their power is impaired. They have instructed their agents to give Indians the preference when work is let out by them, and to gradually induce them to become self-supporting by means of labor. This is hard for the Indians, as being contrary to their instincts and all precedent. They give statistics of the work done, which are very interesting. They have schools in operation with an attendance of 435 Indian children, and the enrollment of over 600. This they consider the most important branch of their service.

NEW YORK, 7.—Rev. Dr. T. M. Eddy, one of the most prominent ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church in the United States, died at his residence in this city this morning.

In the Episcopal convention this afternoon, Bishop Selwyn, of England, preached a sermon from Acts 15th and 28th, after which communion services were held, and at the close of the business the meeting was called to order by the Rev. Dr. Perry, secretary. The Rev. Dr. James Craig, of Ky., was elected president and, in taking the chair, after thanking the convention for the expression of confidence, said they had come together to remove obstructions in the path of their church so far as they could, and he was sure they would do their duty faithfully. A message was received from the house of Bishops, notifying them that they had organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Potter, as secretary. After discussion the old rules were adopted to govern the convention until they were amended. Fraternal greetings were received by cable from the Church Congress assembled at Brighton, England, and a committee was appointed to return a suitable reply, when the convention adjourned till morning.

A Hamburg dispatch to the London Times of the 25th says that at the sitting of the geographical society, after Captain Wriprecht, of the Austrian Polar expedition, had spoken, a further account was given of their travels by another member of the expedition. He said they had discovered a sound one hundred miles long and ninety miles in breadth, running northwards, and dividing the land into two extensive tracts. On the 12th of April, in lat. 81° 57', the expedition halted, but they saw that the land stretched away to the north as far as lat. 83°. The explorers came to the conclusion that it was impossible to reach the north pole in this direction, that the theory of the existence of a polar sea was untenable, the vessels would find no harbor to put into during the winter, and a land expedition without having a ship in the immediate neighborhood, would be impracticable in consequence of the peculiar formation of the tracts of country; a north pole exploration in this direction was, therefore, hopeless.

Another dispatch to the Times, of the same date, says there appears to be a revival of religious intolerance in Turkey. Not only is the observance of the Mahomedan ritual to be enforced, but, as a letter from Persia states, the long forgotten ordinances prohibiting the residence of Christians in the Turkish quarter, have been revived. The subordinates have carried out their instructions with great brutality, bundling the people and their furniture into the streets. Several Germans employed on the Roumania Railway, who were obliged to live near the line, have been thus treated. The decree of 1840 and the treaty of 1856 promised that nobody should be molested on account of his religious opinions, the treaties of commerce permit foreigners to carry on business in any part of the Empire, with the exception of a single province, and their leases and other contracts have been treated as legal by the authorities; the measures now taken are, therefore, a violation of treaty obligations.

General Sheridan was to-day notified by the Secretary of War, if he could spare a regiment of infantry from his command to send it south, for service in that section; applications are constantly reaching the department from Alabama, Tennessee and Louisiana for troops; the Secretary says, "If I were required to comply with all the applications received it would be necessary to largely increase the forces of the army."

Attorney General Williams has received from official sources, which he considers entirely trustworthy, the following statement as to the difficulties in Sumpter Co., Ala.: "The white people have organized throughout the country a white league, and are determined that the negroes shall not vote at the coming election unless they vote with the league. To effect this everything is done to intimidate the blacks. Two of the most active republicans in the country, Billings, white, and Ives, colored, have been assassinated since the first of August. These murders have had a great effect upon the colored people to keep up fear among the blacks. The whites get together almost every day and night, and ride on the roads in squads of from thirty to fifty men, armed with shotguns, pretending that the negroes are arming and gathering to attack the white people, which is not the case. There have been no parties of negroes of any strength together."
