Beaver and Sevier, Bits.

Deputy James McGary reports that he has on hand money for the payment of jurors' certificates for the may term of the Second District Court.

Mr. P. Denny has gone largely into the cattle business. He recently purchased two fine Galloway bulls and one heifer. They were brought to this city and viewed by many admirers.

The good people of Elsinore offer a fine city lot and ten acres of rich land, to any young man who will come and permanently reside with them and follow the vocation of school teacher.

On the 26th instant, a little son of Patriarch William Morrison had both his arms broken just above the wrists. He with other boys, was playing on the walls of the new Meeting house at Richfield, and accidentally fell off.

Attempts have been made to get a self flowing well at Hay Springs, this county, but after driving 200 feet a failure was evident and the well abandoned. An effort was made to withdraw the piping, but the pipe broke at a depth of 100 feet below the surface, and therefore 100 feet still "lies mouldering in the ground."

Mr. E. G. Woolley of St. George, who made large purchases of imported blooded stock in Salt Lake recently, has met with a serious loss. One of the bulls of the herd fell dead while being driven from Milford to Minersville. He lies on the roadside a horror to all passersby.

The citizens of Richfield and surrounding settlements have projected, and partially completed, a huge canal, which will tap the Sevier near the mouth of Clear Creek. The ditch will be sixteen feet wide and probably thirty miles long. It will reclaim several thousand acres of land, and cause "the desert to blossom as the rose."

The good people of Minersville are in a sad way regarding water for irrigating purposes. The small stream which reaches that town is scarcely sufficient for the city lots to say nothing whatever of the fields. Water Commissioner C. C. Harris made an investigation of the various dams in the river this week, and reports that not enough water could be taken from all the dams together that would benefit Minersville. He says the water is not in the river, so of course nobody is to blame and we must all suffer alike.

LEGAL NOTICE.

In the Probate Court of the County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah.

In the Matter of the Estate of Abraham W. Taylor, deceased.

Order to show cause why Order of Sale of Real Estate should not be made.

JABEZ W. TAYLOR, THE ADMINISTRATOR of the Estate of Abraham W. Taylor, deceased, having filed his petition herein duly verified, praying for an order of sale of the real estate of said decedent, for the purposes therein set forth, it is therefore ordered by the Judge of said Court, that all persons interested in the estate of said decedent, appear before the said Probate Court on Monday, the 1st day of August, 1887, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the court room of said Probate Court, at the County Court House, in the City and County of Salt Lake, Utah Territory, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the said administrator, to sell so much of the real estate of the said decedent at private sale as shall be necessary, and that a copy of this order be published at least four successive weeks in the DESERT WEEKLY NEWS, a newspaper printed and published in said City and County.

Dated June 22nd, 1887. ELIAS A. SMITH, Probate Judge.

TERRITORY OF UTAH, County of Salt Lake, ss.

I, John O. Cutler, Clerk of the Probate Court in and for the County of Salt Lake, in the Territory of Utah, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of order to show cause why order of sale of real estate should not be made in the matter of the Estate of Abraham W. Taylor, deceased, as appears of record in my office. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 22nd day of June, A. D. 1887.

[Seal] JOHN O. CUTLER, Probate Clerk.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

Catherine Schoenhals, Plaintiff, vs. Edmond Schoenhals, Defendant.

The people of the Territory of Utah, send greeting: To Edmond Schoenhals, Defendant.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons—if served within this county; or, if served out of this county, but in this district, within twenty days; otherwise within forty days—on judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to have a decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant, and awarding to plaintiff the care and custody of the minor children, the issue of said marriage, and setting aside to plaintiff such portion of the common property as may seem just, and that defendant be required to pay into court a reasonable sum to defray the expenses of this action and for counsel fees, and that he pay to plaintiff such further sum for alimony as to this Court may seem just for her support during the pendency of this action and for general relief. The above relief is prayed upon the ground that defendant committed adultery with one Eliza Keeler, on or about October 15th, 1885, and on divers other days and times, and has also failed to provide plaintiff a support, having the ability so to do.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein.

Witness, the Hon. Charles S. Zane, Judge, and the Seal of the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for the Territory of Utah, this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-seven. J. M. ZANE, Clerk By H. G. McMILLAN, Deputy Clerk w 5t.
