

DESERET EVENING NEWS

The Semi-Weekly News.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The first dance of the winter series at the University club will be given on the evening of the 29th.

The Junior Elks will meet this evening, at the residence of Judge Powers, where they will be entertained by Roger Powers, son of the judge.

Miss Josephine S. Hill of this city, and Joseph G. Hadley of Murray, were married yesterday afternoon by Rev. P. A. Simpkins, at the latter's residence.

Over 100 people, club members and their families, partook of the fine Thanksgiving fare at the Commercial club yesterday afternoon and evening.

The funeral of young Hess, who died from electric shock at the Rio Grande shops Wednesday, will be held Sunday morning, with interment in the city cemetery.

Stephen Garrett of Bingham died Wednesday, at the age of 64 after an operation for the removal of gall stones, and the funeral took place yesterday, from the chapel of Joseph William Taylor.

The Elks are preparing for a great banquet early in the coming month, and an unusually fine program is being prepared for the memorial service which will be held in the Salt Lake Theater.

A bowling alley pin setter was discharged Wednesday evening, from the Palace alley, and in revenge he attempted to incite the other boys to strike for higher wages. But so far "no casualties".

The remains of William L. Sheppard who died of paralysis resulting from diphtheria, yesterday morning, were buried last evening. This is the second death from the disease in that family, and three others have been ill with it.

Manager Fisher Harris of the Salt Lake Commercial club has gone to Logan to aid the citizens there in organizing a Commercial club, which it is believed will be of material advantage to the business interests of that part of the state.

Miss Lilian Alexander and H. Jules Mailloux were married last evening, at the residence of the bride's mother, Justice F. H. Clark officiating. The couple left later for the south where they will remain during the winter, and then make their home in Kansas City.

Miss Anna P. Price, a teacher in the Franklin school, and Rev. Charles K. Spell of Beaumont, Tex., were married last evening, by Rev. J. S. Price at the State street mission of the Nazarene church. The groom is an evangelist, and the couple will remain in this city.

Manit Messenger: Eighteen Manit men left Tuesday morning over the S. P. V. for Nepal, where they will take the San Pedro and go to the southern terminus of that road, where they have a grading contract. It is expected the contract will last until Christmas.

Special agent H. E. Parkhurst of the Alliance Commercial Union Assurance and the Palatine Insurance companies, at Denver, was in the city yesterday and left in the evening on a business trip to Butte, whence he will return to this city in a few days. Mr. Parkhurst has many friends in this city where he was for several years the local manager of the Pacific board of underwriters, and he is always welcome here.

There will be civil service examinations in this city, Dec. 1, for the position of stenographer in the government printing office at Washington, at $4.50 per day, and for first class (chief) steam engineer in the government printing office at $4 per day; for computer, supervising architect's office at Washington, at $4,000 per annum; and aid on the coast and geodesy surveys at $720 per annum; and Jan. 4, for position of civil engineer student, department of agriculture, at $50 per month, and for irrigation engineer, same department, Jan. 15, with salary from $1,500 to $2,000. The age limit in all of these cases is 20 years and over.

The American Forest congress will be held under the auspices of the American Forestry association, at Washington, D. C., Jan. 4-6 inclusive. On the committee of arrangements are Prof. John Hays Hammond, chief Engineer, F. H. Newell of the geological survey, E. J. Hagenbarth, president of the National Live Stock association, Jesse M. Smith, president of the Utah Wool Growers' association, and other distinguished savants well known in the far west. The topics to be discussed will be, the relation of the public forest lands to irrigation, relation of the public forest lands to grazing, the lumber industry and the forest, importance of the public forest lands to mining, forestry in relation to railroad supplies, national forest policy and state forest policy.

WAS BADLY BURNED.

Case of a Railroad Laborer Who Relied Into a Fire.

Sam Johnson, a Swedish railroad laborer, was taken in the patrol wagon last evening, to the poor house, in a shocking condition from burns. While tramping near Park City, he laid down to sleep by a fire he had made, and unconsciously rolled into it. The result was a terrible burning. Railroad men picked Johnson up and brought him to Salt Lake where he was given shelter first at the county jail, and then in the city jail where his burns were found in a dreadful condition, and it was a mystery how the poor fellow could live. The police reported the case to both the city and county physicians, but it is alleged that neither would do anything as the one claimed the duty belonged to the other. So Sergt. Edgington finally induced the county commissioners to admit the sufferer to the poor house, and there he was taken as noted.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Ia., got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering. This liniment is for sale by all druggists."

DOUBLE HOLDUP ON OGDEN STREETS

Bold Robbers Held Up Two Young Couples in Quick Succession.

TOOK MONEY AND WATCHES.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Nov. 25.—A double holdup occurred last night in Ogden, presumably by the same set of thugs. The first occurred about 12:30 o'clock on Twenty-first street between Grant and Lincoln avenues, the victims being Mr. and Mrs. William Cook. They were returning from Utah park, when they were accosted by a gentleman with a big gun and a request for their valuables. Another gentleman relieved them from the necessity of making the delivery themselves by searching their pockets. He missed a $5 gold piece on the person of the young man, and secured only a jackknife for his trouble. Whether he found the pockets of the fair victim or not is not reported.

Fifteen minutes later W. E. Williams and a young lady friend, whom he was escorting home from a theater were accosted on Lincoln avenue with a demand for their money or their lives. They delivered the money, totalling $35 plus two gold watches, one a gentleman's and the other a ladies'.

The men disappeared in the darkness with the booty, while the young couples sought the police to narrate their adventure. Good descriptions were furnished, and the police hope to capture the men today.

Police have good clues and expect to land the thugs in jail today.

FED 1,400 POOR.

Noble Work of the Salvation Army Officers Yesterday Afternoon.

The Salvation Army did its customary good work yesterday in providing the poor of the city with a substantial Thanksgiving dinner. From early in the morning until nearly dark the Army workers were busy in preparing and serving dinner to those who applied for it. Not only did they feed a multitude of people in the Realty block where their big dinner was served, but they sent out hundreds of baskets laden with good eatables to indigent families who would not go to the big public feed at headquarters. It is estimated by Division Officer John T. Dale that over 1,400 people were served with dinner yesterday by the Army. Of that number about 350 were seated around the festive board in the Realty block, and 255 families were supplied with basket dinners.

The families to whom baskets were sent were composed of from two to 21 members. Several of them were composed of from 10 to 15 members and the needs of each was not overestimated in the least, yet there was plenty for all. Covers were laid for 100 people in the Realty block and the tables were filled nearly four times and it certainly kept the Army workers busy serving them. When the doors were opened at 12 o'clock noon there was a rush for the tables and several of the officers were kept busy preventing more crowding in than could be seated. When the first table was cleared the doors were locked until all had finished their dinner. The next table was seated. People of all sizes and ages partook of the feast and to say that they had enough to satisfy their inward cravings and left in a happy frame of mind is expressing it mildly.

Of course some were fed who could have purchased their own dinner had they desired to use a little of their energy but the officers said that they would rather feed a dozen unworthy persons than turn one away who really is in need. Some of the newsworthy did a double turn on the dinner proposition yesterday. They ate at the new boys' dinner given by the four daily papers of the city and then went to the Salvation Army dinner and ate a second meal, with the result that some felt as though they would not have to eat again for a week. The contributions of the Salt Lake people for the Army dinner was not as liberal this year as formerly and after the dinner is paid for, it is believed that there will be little left for buying the winter supply of clothing for the poor. The Army will begin its Christmas campaign at once so as to be insured of sufficient contributions for its usual celebration for the poor.

Chamberlain's Cholera, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints, and is the only remedy that will cure chronic diarrhoea. Every bottle is warranted. For sale by all druggists.

TRUSTY CAPTURED.
Escaped Prisoner is Now Back in Jail Serving His Sentence.

Gus Anderson, a trusty at the city jail, who escaped some weeks ago, was captured this morning by Sergt. Roberts and will have to serve out the balance of his 30 days' sentence.

HE WAS HUNGRY.

Burglar Takes Groceries and Other Articles, but Leaves Money.

A grocery store owned by Fred Gillette at Eighth South and Eighth East, was broken into last night by some hungry individual who was not content until he carried off a quantity of tea, coffee, sugar, butter and other articles that go to make up a meal. There was money in the store but the burglar, it is thought, took nothing but food stuff. The police are in hot pursuit of the burglar.

A RARE CHRISTMAS BOOK.

The Deseret News Book Store is pleased to announce that it has secured a limited number of the work, "Pictures of an Inland Sea," written and illustrated by Alfred Lambourne, the well-known Utah artist, and that it will offer them to the holiday trade at 50 per cent less than last year's prices. Nothing more beautiful than this book, which is written in Mr. Lambourne's best style, and contains seven photographic plates from the author's original sketches, could be selected as a Christmas present to send away to friends interested in Utah. The price last year was $1.00. It is now offered at 50c to close out the edition. The book is printed on heavy deckle edge paper and bound in fine art bookman. A limited number of the book has also been bound in paper, with a design of Salt Lake in colors. This style sells at 25c. Special rates below these usually cheap prices are offered agents and dealers. Anyone desiring a rare art work, at half price on a subject so interesting to all Utahans at home and abroad should call immediately and see Mr. Lambourne's work, before the limited supply is exhausted.
