DESERET EVENING NEWS: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1901.

In the district court yesterday, in the matter of the estate of the late Gustav Hamel, Otto Hamel, a brother of the deceased, and an heir to the estate, filed an objection to the final ac-count of the administrator, J. H. Knauss. He objects to the allowance of the items $45 paid as fees for ap-praising said estate, also the item of $134.50 for special compensation of said administrator. The petitioner also objects to the petition for final destribution, claiming that the portion of the estate in the firm of Foley and Hamel was not Mr. Foley's interest alone but that the Hamel portion of said estate belonged to the heirs and was sold by them to Thos. C. Foley. The case of Sarah Blockman against the Union Pacific R. R. Co was continued for the term. The case of A. L. Brewer vs Wiley G. Cragun was continued for the term.

BURGLARS BOUND OVER.

John Allen and James Ryan, the two men arrested on suspicion of having burglarized a Union Pacific car con-taining merchandise, were given a preliminary hearing before Justice Joseph Hall yesterday, and bound over to the district court under $500 bond, which they failed to furnish, and were turned over to the sheriff. The articles that were stolen from the car consisted of shoes, gloves, underclothes and tobacco, all of the value of $55 The preliminary all of the value of $56. The preliminary hearing was conducted by County At-torney Halverson, C. M. Depew, store keeper for the Pacific Hotel Co., testified to the goods stolen and identified the goods found on one of the prisoners and what was found by the officer as being the goods stolen. James H. Morris testified to similar facts, and Detective Pender and Officer Brown gave testimony as to the arrest and the finding of the goods.
