

pinks, iris and many other flowers that lend a rich fragrance to the passer by. The tints of the rose may already be seen in the opening buds.

Since our last issue all the co-operation freight teams from California have come in except one wagon in charge of D. Woolley. Sixteen "schooner" loads of goods at a time for St. George is rather an unusual amount, but we need them."

IMPORTANT.—We desire to call the attention of those residents of the 3rd Judicial District of this Territory who have not as yet taken out their naturalization papers to the announcement of P. Lynch, Esq., Clerk of the Court, which will be found in another column. We deem it the duty of every man who is a subject of any other country and who intends to make America his home to secure the rights of citizenship as soon as the laws of the country admit of it. This is a duty he owes to himself, to his children, to his neighbors and the country he has chosen for his future abode. Let none who claim to reverence and love the institutions of our country who have not as yet attended to this duty omit to attend court on Saturday next.

DISTRICT COURT.—The court of the 3rd Judicial District of the Territory of Utah met this morning, pursuant to adjournment. The only business transacted was the naturalization of several foreign subjects. Shortly after noon the court adjourned until half-past two.

COMMENDABLE.—Some friends of the late Elder Griffith Roberts are interesting themselves in behalf of his bereaved family. We hope, when the subscription list is handed to those who are rich in the good things of this world that they will remember the blessings pronounced upon those who help the widow and the fatherless.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

PROGRESS OF PRESIDENT YOUNG.—We learn by Deseret Telegraph Line that President Young and party reached Tokerville from Rockville, at twenty minutes to two this afternoon. They will stop at Harrisburg to-night.

SEASONABLE.—We noticed a large new stock of goods unloading at Dunford & Sons, one month from Chicago.

PRUDENCE has our thanks for her communication. There is much that is good in it, but it is too long to admit of its being published.

NORVAL.—We have received several answers to Norval's enquiries, which we shall be happy to hand to him whenever he pleases to call at this office.

USEFUL.—This morning we were shown some specimens of the adhesive qualities of Mr. Dilley's "Chinese Grip." It makes a neat, firm mend in crystal, china, earthenware, &c., &c.

Mr. Dilley can be found at any time in the vicinity of Godbe's corner where he vends his celebrated "grip."

CO-OPERATION.—On the 11th of last November the Female Relief Society of the 15th Ward commenced the erection of a frame building, eighteen feet by thirty, to be used as a store for the sale of the goods manufactured by the society. Above the store is the workroom, in which the meetings of the society are held. The building, which has been put up under the direction of Mrs. Hyrum Kimball, the Presidentess of the society, is now finished, having cost about $2,500. The Co-operative Association of the Ward having engaged the Female relief society to sell their goods for them at this store, it was opened last Tuesday with a stock worth about $2,000, two of the ladies of the society acting as clerks. Thus far they have done a good business.

The Co-operative store of the Third Ward was opened on Monday last, on the premises of Mr. Ball, State Road. The following are the officers of the Association: Bishop Jacob Weiler, President; Thomas Maycock, Vice President; Peter Sinclair, John Wayman and James Eardley, Directors; W. Wagstaff, Treasurer and D. Moffat, Secretary.

The store presents a very inviting appearance to the purchasers in the Ward.

JUDGE HAWLEY.—The Chicago Times referring to the newly appointed associate judge for this Territory, makes the following comments:

"Mr. Cyrus M. Hawley, of this city who is Mr. Grant's nominee for associate Justice in Utah, is the law partner of Messrs. Lyman and G. Trumbull, an average lawyer and a man who has been always engaged in the 'interests of God and humanity.'"

It seems to be one remarkable peculiarity of this Utah court that its Judges should always be chosen from Illinois. And another remarkable peculiarity has been that none of these Illinois Judges have been able to live in Utah very long without getting into trouble with the Mormons, and throwing up their commissions in disgust. The trouble has been that these judicial functionaries have imagined that the duties of judge include the functions of a political and moral reformer. The appointment of Mr. C. M. Hawley in no way encourages the hope that these troubles will cease."

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—In the case of Baskin and De Wolfe, vs. Howard Livingston, Josiah P. Riley and W. S. Godbe, on promissory note endorsed by W. S. Godbe as surety, J. W. Kerr and C. W. Hempsted were examined for the defendant, Godbe. The testimony not being sufficient to sustain the defense, the same was abandoned and the case given to the jury to calculate the amount.

The case of Tootle, Leach & Co. vs. W. S. Godbe and J. M. Worley, was set for hearing this afternoon.

The case of B. L. Adams vs. H. A. Pine and others, in appeal from the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, the motion to dismiss the appeal, argued yesterday, was overruled, the Court ruling that appeals brought to the District Court, should be heard anew.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

ARRIVAL OF PRESIDENT YOUNG AT ST. GEORGE.—By Deseret Telegraph Line we learn that President Young and company arrived at St. George at two o'clock this afternoon. A detachment of cavalry under Col. Pearce, met them one mile out. On the outskirts, were drawn up to receive them, Major Platt's battalion of infantry, at the head of which, was stationed the Martial Band; next reaching towards the city, were the Saint George Sunday School children, amounting to three hundred, with appropriate banners, conducted by their teachers.

On the arrival of President Young's carriage at the head of Major Platt's lines the "Stars and Stripes" were displayed from the liberty pole on the Public Square, and from a pole on President Snow's mansion, followed by a salute from Captain Milnes' artillery, stationed on Mt. Hope, and cheering by the bands. The company then proceeded through an open line of Infantry and Sunday school children, the whole procession moving with music from the band to the residence of President Snow, on the balcony of which the St. George brass band, led by Captain Eardley, discoursed sweet music, while mutual greetings were extended to the guests and invitations to share hospitality were extended to all. The procession was then dismissed.

The semi-conference of the southern mission will meet to-morrow at 10 a.m. in the basement of the new Tabernacle, which has been fitted up for meetings.

IDAHO.—The Boise Democrat says "We learn from our farmers that the grasshoppers are showing themselves in alarming numbers. Fears are entertained that they will damage the crops as much as they did last year. We hope however that they will soon begin to travel and will let the crops alone." Bands of Chinamen, who had finished their work on the great highway were pushing into that Territory. The editor of the same paper speaking of one of these bands says "They said they were from the Railroad, and that 'heepie Melican man, heepe Chinaman' were coming to Idaho. We expect to see droves of men soon who have been discharged by the railroad companies. Let them come, all can find employment in Idaho."

MAY DAY.—To-morrow is May day. No doubt many of our young folks, tempted by the loveliness of the weather, will spend a day up in the canyons or down by the river. Others attracted by the announcement of Arrah-na-Pogue will crowd the doors of the Theatre long before the hour they should open, and afterwards fill the house with their merriment as the hours pass. We wish them all happiness, wherever they go, or in whatever way they seek to express their joy at the return of spring.

EUROPEAN MISSION.—We glean the following items from the Millennial Star: On the 21st of March a Conference was held at the Assembly Rooms, Nottingham, at which President Carrington and some fifteen elders from Utah were present. Elder L. W. Shurtliffe, the President of the Nottingham Conference, reported it in a prosperous condition, numbering 524 members. Elder J. S. Richards, E. L. Butterfield, J. M. Ferrin, W. H. Homer, R. E. Egan, J. Sharp, and President Carrington addressed the meetings.

From the Scandinavian mission Elder J. N. Smith writes "that they are baptizing slowly but steadily, and that not a great many will be able to emigrate this season without assistance."

Elder M. Holling, writing from Holland, states "that baptisms and the faith and good works of the Saints are increasing in his field, and he is rejoicing in the blessings attending his labors."

From Zurich, Elder Heber Young writes that in the Swiss and German mission "their numbers continue to increase, and the older members are awakening to greater diligence." President K. G. Maeser, himself and the rest of the Elders were well."

A new edition of the hymn book, will shortly be issued at Liverpool; it will have no alterations from the last edition.

THIRTEENTH WARD FEMALE RELIEF SOCIETY.—A meeting of this Society was held yesterday in the Assembly Rooms, at which were present, President George A. Smith, Elder Joseph F. Smith, Bishops E. Hunter and E. D. Woolley, with other Elders and a goodly number of ladies. After the usual opening services the Secretary, Mrs. George Goddard, read the report of the doings of the Society since its organization. It was organized April 18th, 1868, with Mrs. Rachel Grant, Presidentess, Mrs. Anna Godbe and Margaret Mitchell, Counselors, Mrs. George Goddard, Secretary and Mrs. A. M. Musser, Treasurer.

The total receipts, in contributions, from May 14th 1868 to March 30th 1869 amounted to $671 05; the total amount disbursed $331 42. The Society has made much clothing for the needy and held their regular meetings for work and instruction during the year.

After the reading of the report President G. A. Smith, Bishop E. D. Woolley and Elder Jos. F. Smith addressed the assembly, giving much timely advice and wise counsel, seasoned with words of encouragement to the Society; after which Sister Bathsheba Smith was appointed first counselor to the Presidentess, vice Sister Godbe, resigned. Sister Grant closed the proceedings by making several explanatory remarks on the course she and the ladies of the Society had pursued, and thanked the speakers for their encouraging counsel. Benediction by Bishop Woolley.

RIGHT.—The Omaha Herald hits the mark when it made the following remarks on Indian wars:

"The Cheyenne Argus speaks hopefully of the change that is about to take place in the conduct of our Indian affairs. It pays deserved compliments to Gen. Parker, the Indian Commissioner, and predicts a favorable issue from the change.

We agree with the Argus entirely. There has never been any need of war with these red men. To argue otherwise is to argue on our inferiority to the French, who, since the memory of man, have maintained peace with Indians by the very honest and very simple expedient of living up to bargains, and dealing honestly with them. It was wrong and robbery on the part of white men that first caused war with Indians; honesty, fair dealing, adherence to contracts and fidelity to engagements, can alone bring enduring peace."

WARNING.—We hope everybody interested, will read Superintendent Musser's advertisement under the above caption.

WHAT NEXT?—An English paper announces that "a tight rope dancer named Balleni, the great Australian Blondin, will appear at Paris, May 1st, in his great sensational fete of falling head first, from the rope, and turning in mid air." Again, the San Francisco Figaro advertises the "most wonderful and terrific sensation of the age," which consists of a velocipede ascension by a Master Siegrist, on a wire 200 feet long, across a lake, at an elevation of 25 feet. Tight rope performances on a velocipede are, as far as our experience goes, "something new under the sun." All the fools are not dead yet. What will be the next sensation?

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

CO-OPERATION AMONG THE SHOEMAKERS.—The boot and shoemakers of this city are about to take initiatory steps preparatory to entering into the co-operative movement in that branch of industry. For this purpose a meeting of the trade will be held in the City Hall on the evening of Wednesday next. See their advertisement in to-day's issue. We wish the sons of St. Crispin success in this important movement.

SEXTON'S REPORT.—Salt Lake City Sexton's Report for April, 1869.—Males, 20; females, 9. Of these, adults, 14; children 15. Causes of death as reported: bowel complaints, 5; killed by snow slide 4; fevers, 3; convulsions, 3; inflammations, 2; spasms, 2; old age, 2; still born, 1; died at birth, 1; cancer, 1; pneumonia, 1; consumption, 1; hemorrhage, 1; apoplexy, 1; assassinated, 1. Total interments, 29.

J. E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

CALLED.—S. O. Cundy, Esq., representing the firm of C. A. & C. H. Barnum, wholesale dealers in notions, hosiery, etc., Chicago, H. K. White, Esq., representing A. H. Miller & Co., importers and manufacturers of watches, jewelry, silver-plated ware, etc., Chicago, and D. S. Sanford, Esq., of Sanford & Co., wholesale dealers in fancy dry goods, New York, dropped in to see us last evening. These gentlemen are here to further the interests of their respective firms in the Rocky Mountain region and adjacent parts.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—The Court met this morning for the purpose of naturalizing Aliens. Numbers availed themselves of the privilege. The court will sit for the same purpose next Saturday.

AT OMAHA.—We learn by a letter from Elder G. W. Thurmond that Elders Orson Pratt, George Lake, Granville Gillett and himself arrived safely at Omaha on the 25th ult., all well. They all intended to leave the same evening, Elder Thurmond for Louisville, Ky., and the balance of the party for New York.

NOT VERY COMPLIMENTARY.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette discourses in the following strain about Ashley, who rendered himself so ridiculous and notorious with his infamous bill to dismember Utah Territory:

"You have heard, of course, of the row about Ashley's nomination as Governor of Montana. It was a most unfortunate nomination, but Grant is not to blame for it; Ashley played the poverty dodge. He said he had served the public faithfully for many years, and now he was out of office and a poor man. All he had in the world was twenty-five feet of a gold mine in Montana. This was given to him last summer when he was up there on an excursion; but the parties had subsequently sold the whole property without consulting him and now he wanted to be Governor in order to be able to look after that little twenty-five foot lot.

"Thus he secured the signatures of one hundred and ten members of Congress, recommending his appointment, and thus he secured the nomination. Grant said it was the only appointment he had made that did not satisfy him, but he did not like to refuse the request of so many Congressmen.

"When Ashley's case came up for confirmation in the Senate it was debated four hours, and finally confirmed by one majority. Ashley got through by the skin of his teeth, but he is disgraced. The President was strongly inclined to withdraw the nomination, and if Ashley goes to speculating too freely in corner lots out in Montana he will be removed. The way of the transgressor, after all, is rather hard."

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—Yesterday the meetings were held in the new Tabernacle. In the morning Elders G. H. Dunford, H. G. Park, G. Romney, H. Snell and J. Holmberg, missionaries, addressed the congregation, also Elders John Halsell and G. B. Wallace.

In the afternoon Elder J. C. Little occupied a portion of the time and was followed by Elder Joseph F. Smith in a discourse on the practical duties of our religion.

DARING ATTEMPT FATALLY TERMINATED.—Warden Rockwood informs us that while the Penitentiary convicts were at work this morning up Spring Canon, about six miles from the city, two of them, named George Cook and James Watson, the former of which stole some horses from Riverdale two or three weeks since, the latter some harness from Bro. Rockwood and several articles from the stables of B. H. Young, Esq., of this city, broke from the ranks and attempted to disarm the guard. The latter, however, having some mistrust of them, were prepared, and Cook was instantly shot dead and Watson mortally wounded; he died at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The guard, in this instance, are praiseworthy in having so promptly performed their duty.

FOUNTAIN GREEN.—Bro. R. R. Llewellyn, of Fountain Green, called this morning, being in the city to replenish the stock of goods for the Co-operative Institution of that place. The co-operative system was commenced there on the 12th of January last and on the 12th ult., the dividend yielded was highly satisfactory to the shareholders, although goods had been sold at a cheaper rate in Fountain Green than they ever were before the co-operative system was started.

A good many new settlers have arrived in the settlement, and more land is being surveyed on the south and west for their accommodation. A few grasshoppers have appeared in one portion of the new survey, but nothing to cause uneasiness or alarm. The prospects for crops are good and a larger quantity of the various kinds of grain will be sown than in former years.

THE UTAH MAGAZINE.—The first number of the third volume of the Utah Magazine, published by Messrs. Harrison & Godbe, of this city, has come to hand. It should be called No. 1, Vol. 1, of the new series of the Utah Magazine, for it is so thoroughly improved in the originality of its matter, appearance, quality of paper and workmanship that not the least affinity between it and the preceding volumes can be observed. Among its contributors we notice the names of E. W. Tullidge, E. B. Kelsey and Jabez Woodard, Esqrs., and others of more or less local celebrity.

The contents are varied and entertaining, and can hardly help suiting the taste of a large and varied class of readers. "Never Delivered," a complete story, is a very readable paper, as is the "Adventure on Mont Blanc." The musical department is a feature that will be acceptable to many readers. "How the World has Grown" and the "History of the World, Illustrated in its Great Characters," promise to be of considerable interest. But the most striking feature in connection with the new volume of the Magazine is a novel, entitled "The Hebrew Maiden, or Not all Dross," by Elder E. W. Tullidge, the opening chapters of which are very interesting. The fact that the author of this story is an elder of long standing, in the Church is a guarantee that in point of morality it will be unquestionable; while his acknowledged ability as a writer vouches for its excellence in a literary point of view.

The Magazine is not marred by advertisements, as is the case with the generality of magazines, and now contains sixteen pages of solid reading matter instead of twelve, as formerly, while its price per year is reduced from $7 to $4 50. It is stitched in a neat wrapper, so as to preserve it clean for binding, and, its tout ensemble is a credit to the community, and will compare favorably with serials of a similar character East or West.

Died:

Of quick consumption, at Rockville, Kane county, Esther Minerva, daughter of Edward P. and Mary A. Duzette, aged 13 years and 1 day.

Of dropsy, April 21st, at Heber City, Janet, wife of Daniel McMillan, aged 53 years, 10 months and 19 days.

She was baptized in Liverpool, in 1851, and emigrated to this country in 1863. She was a faithful member of the Church and beloved by all who knew her.—(Com. Mill. Star, please copy.)
