MAUSS TRIPLETS AT STATE FAIR

Murray Seven-Year-Olds Are to Be Among the Features Next Month.

FREE VETERINARY CLINICS.

To Be Instituted by Special Arrange ment With the Authorities of the Logan Agricultural College.

Scoretary H. S. Ensign of the State Fair association this morning announced that an honorary member of the Anti-Race Suicide club had come to the front with a special premium for triplets born and reared in Utah. The premium carries with it a blue ribbon and a cash bonus of $30. The iews was promptly 'phened to Murray, and the enterprising citizens of the smeller city wadied on Marshal Mauss and lewisted that his healthy seven-year-old triplets be made one of the lectures of the state fair. The marshal, after due consideration, agreed to allow the youngsters to appear and so uphold the reputation of Murray on the county records. But known that the reasus records. Be it known that the Murray triplets are an institution of that city, and no function is considered complete without their presence. Accordingly it is anticipated that Murray will be on hand to see that the Mauss triplets are accorded due homans.

homage.

The entries of pigeons have so far exceeded expectations that a force of carpenters has been put to work enlarging the poultry section. There are already about 200 entries, and as a result, instructions have been given to build more coops that will give ample accommodation to single birds, pairs and flocks.

CARRIAGES AND AUTOS.

Accommodation also has been proposed for the carriages and auto

Accommodation also has been provided for the carriages and autos. Those vehicles taking the infield will enter at the east gates and cross the race track prior to the calling of the first event, otherwise they will be excluded. The autos will be accorded apace east of the paddock.

The racing program at the coming state fair will be the biggest and best that has ever been put up on any similar occasion in the history of Utah. All entries for Utah bred animals closed for the races Sept. 18, and the program, as made out, includes many splendid. nts, for which big purses have been hung up.

The eatries include racers from various parts of the state. The best there is in horseflesh will be present during fair week, and special features have been designated for special days during the week, such as ladies day, derby day, etc. Interest is running schedule, and this derby day, etc. Interest is running high in the racing schedule, and this feature allone will draw a vost attend-ance from all parts of the state.

FREE CLINICS.

Free veterinary clinics will also be held during fair week. By special arrangement with the authorities of the Agricultural college at Logan, Dr. H. J. Frederick of that institution, will come to Salt Lake with a number of assistants picked from his more advanced students, and every day of the fair they will treat, free of expense, any animal, horse, cow, hog or sheep suffering from acute or chronic allments. The farmers of Cache valley have had this privilege for several years past, the college providing for a certain day in the week or month, for the treatment of such animals at the experiment station free of charge, it has proven a great thing for the farmers of Cache, and it is proposed to extend the same benefits, for the space of a week, at least, to the people of Salt Lake, and those who might be solourning here during fair week. sojourning here during fair week.

BALLOON ASCENSION.

The fair management has just closed censions, Prof. Abbott, the well known aeronaui. The contract also calls for three balloon races, to be run in mid air between a lady and gentleman balloonist. This feature, added to the already large list of attractions, among the foremost of which is Paine's fireworks, etc., will go towards making up a program of free amusements that has never been equalley in the history of any fair. of any fair.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.

Special premiums are being offered special premiums are being offered nearly every day for certain exhibits in special lines. For Instance Hon. John R. Winder offers $25 cash for the best Jersey eattle shown; Z. C. M. L. offers premiums, aggregating $30 for various articles of home production; the M. & M. association offers 23 blue ribbons as special rewards of merit for home manufactures of different kinds, and others are being received all the

A pleasing feature of the fair this ear will be the bench show of blooded year will be the bench show of blooded dogs. This department is in charge of Mr. F. L.
