Parley P. P. Prophet Suddenly Expires After Eloquent Peroration.

AT A FUNERAL.

DANCING IN SCHOOLHOUSES.

Restraining Order Denied by Judge Rolapp - Death of Little Milton Flowers-Weber County Affairs.

One of the most unexpected deaths that has occurred in Weber county took place yesterday afternoon when Parley Parker Pratt Prophet, one of the most highly respected citizens of Blaine, Davis county, dropped dead in his seat on the stand of the South Weber meetinghouse immediately after preaching a forcible funeral sermon over the remains of Mrs. Watts, who died Friday in her eighty-eighth year. The sudden demise of Mr. Prophet was shocking to the large attendance of friends who had gathered to pay a tribute to the dead. Mr. Prophet left his home, which is only a short distance from the meeting-house, apparently in good health, and when called upon to speak was feeling well. He delivered a very excellent ser-mon, eulogizing the useful life of the deceased. He was intensely interested in his subject, but spoke with remark-able eloquence, his words rushing forth with all the force and vigor of a trained orator, instead of the rough farmer that he was. Several times in his discourse had been permitted to live until near the four-score-and-ten-year mark, and until she had completed all the work of this life that she had set out to accom-plish, and had then passed peacefully to sne.

He warned his hearers, however, that they be ready to meet their Maker at any moment, as none could tell at what hour and what moment they might be called to cross to the other shore. It was given to but few, he said, to live to such a remarkable age as had the noble woman lying before him, and he urged all within the sound of his voice to be prepared for death, and ready to render an account as all must do on the morning of the resur-rection.

rection. Time and again he expressed his en-tire confidence in the realities of the future life, when men should be judged for the deeds done in this world. His closing words were an eloquent exposition of this thought, and then came the final sentence, "Surely the dead shall rise again. Amen." He say in his chair paturally and a came the final sentence, "Surely the dead shall rise again. Amen." He sat in his chair naturally, and a moment later his life went out as sud-denly as the flame of a candle. Those who sat near could not realize for a few moments that the end had come. The immediate cause of death was the breaking of a blood vessel on the brain. When the congregation realized what had happened, they were overcome with striet. The body of Mr. Prophet was carried from the mertinghouse to his home a short distance away and laid out ready for burial. Parley P. P. Prophet was about 60 years of age. He leaves a wife, three daughters and a host of friends to mourn his sudden death. The time of funeral will be announced later. DEATH OF MILTON FLOWERS.

tural fields of northern Utah. Add to this the two condensed milk factories— at Richmond and Logun-and it will be readily seen that more intensive farm-ing will follow and in a few years will double our population as a county. NEW ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY. NEW ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY. Logan City's new officers will assume their duties Jan. 4, and it is believed will make a good record. Mayor-sleet Robinson is cenecially ambitious to complete the new city electric lighting plant and demonstrate the wisdom of the $75,000 undertaking. As to his public nolicy for the next two years, he will favor strict enforcement of city ordinances, especially as to sani-tary rules, cleanliness and improved atreets. He favors a restricted liquor business and hopes above all to see the city finances much improved at the close of two years; in all of which he will have good help in the city coun-cil. Commissioner Wilson reported that he has made a trip of inspection over the roads between Weber and Rich counties, where the $1,000 repairs are to be made and stated that the work would be commenced as soon as the weather will permit.

The B. Y. college trustees will meet this morning when it is expected Presi-dent Smith and Bishop Preston will be present.

Saved from Terrible Death.

The city council last night gave a lot to the Salvation Army, voted to raise their own salaries, turned down a veto of the mayor, approved the appointment of four new freemen, passed an ordin-apce opening a new street and transact-ed the other accumulated business of the week. Saved from Terrible Death. The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargeton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Dis-covery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought im-mediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. Its the most cer-tain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Boitles Free at Z. C. M. I. A number of ministers were present who urged the donation of a site for the Salvation Army building, but this had been already arranged and was soon accomplished. The site donated is on City Hall square, almost behind the fire station, and facing on Hidson avenue, almost in front of the police station. The army people are to erect a build-ing to serve as headquarters for their various forms of charitable work in Ogden. The matter of raising the council-men's salaries was discussed in secret session, where a report was drafted allowing each councilman $25 a year for two years' extra salary for commit-tee work an arrangement that may get around the law forbidding a direct raise.

WEDDING BELLS.

The veto of the mayor opposing the appointment of three new firemen was turned down and the extra firemen pro-vided for. Chief Graves appointed Perry Stillman, George Wallin, John McCarty and W. B. Meyer, the last named to take the place of Zed Lowe, who re-signed. All the appointees were con-firmed.

The new street, which follows the line of the old Ogden canal along the brow of the hill between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, was named Canal street and an ordinance was passed for-mally opening it.

WEDDING PELLS. Thomas R. Porter, 26, of Porterville, and May Stevens, 19, of Henefer, Sum-mit county, were married by County Clerk Robisson on the 26th. Percy B. Rice, 26, of Louisville, Ky., and Allie Thurston, 20, of Milton, pro-cured a license on the 26th and were married by the clerk. The groom is engaged in peddling medicines on the streets and giving entertainments in the small towns. The bride is a standdaughter of the late Col. J. C. Little and T. J. Thurston, is a very estimable and accomplished young lady, a teacher of the piano. The couple met for the first time on Mon-day last, and the second meeting on Saturday culminated in the marriage. The parents are much grieved at the occurrence.

stock was worth about $1,600, and it is estimated that about one-haif is lost. The insurance on the goods was $800. The stock was bought a few days ago by Mr. Cotter from Mr. Robison. Mr. Cotter was also a heavy loser in the creamery when it was burned down. Just the stock and inside of the build-ing were damaged. All arrangements have now been com-pleted by the management of the sugar company here to give their, employes an elaborate dance in the Apollo hall. American Fork, Wednesday, Dec. 30, and an excellent time is looked for.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP CUTLER. Arrangements are being made by the Bishopg of the four wards here to give an elaborate reception by all the people of the town in honor of Bishop Thos. R. Cutler, on New Year's day, on the eve of his leaving the ward and the new Bishops taking up the reigns of Church government. All the presi-dents and councilors of the Priesthood and auxiliary organizations were pres-ent at a meeting last night in the meetinghouse when committees were appointed to make this a very success-ful event. The banquet will be held in the city pavilion at 1 p. m. Yesterday the funeral of Mrs. Amy Kearney's seven-month-old baby, who died last Thursday evening, was con-ducted from her home at 1 p. m. DEMISE OF WILLIAM EVANS.

DEMISE OF WILLIAM EVANS. Wm. Evans, who died at Provo Dec. 24, 1903, was brought here for burial on Dec. 26. Deceased was an old-time resident of Lehi, held in high esteem, and was a firm believer in the Gospel. He was born near Freemath, north Ire-land, July 11, 1826. When young he emigrated to Australia, and from there to California, where he sustained an injury which crippled him for life. He next came to Utah, and Jan. 11, 1859, he married Nancy E. Goodwin, and was the father of 11 children, 10 of whom survive him. He was a miner by trade, and lived in Lehi eleven years, and also lived in Ophir, Utah.

Special Correspondence. Riverton, Salt Lake Co., Dec. 28.--Near-ly every one is keeping holiday. An event of the season was the Christmas tree of the Seth Pixton company. They distribu-ted prizes to over 700 children. The Sunday school has an entertain-ment to come off on Jan. 2, consisting of dancing, a kangaroo court, voting contest for most popular young lady, etc. This year farmers did fairly well, rais-ing fairly good erops of lucern and beets; grain and potatoes, however, were only moderate. Many of our sheepmen, who were among the very largest in the state, have met reverses, caused by the taking up or lease of the ranges, by the timber re-serves, by the two mile limit in idaho, and in some cases by unwise speculation. Some of them, who were not only known in Utah, but in all the surrounding states, are now entirely out of the business. This is a great loss to this place as formerly they had money to make improvements. And most of the nearing at that the surrounding states. They had money to make improvements. Our beautiful new meetinghouse is still unfinished, but it is hoped that if an abundant crop is reised next season, that something will be done to further its completion. It is thought that he, being intoxicated fell from the wogan. His wife probably reached for the lines, which the man dropped when he fell, lost her balance and fell in such a position as to allow her head to be caught by the wheet. DEATH OF MILTON FLOWERS.

Milton Flowers, the little nine-year-oid son of Mr. and Mrs. Claudius J. Flowers, died at 6 o'clock last evening at the family residence, corner of Madi-son avenue and Twenty-seventh street, after a lingering fliness of leekage of the heart. The little boy was the sun-shine of the household, being of an ex-ceptionally sweet, loving nature; during his long weeks of suffering he never murmered. He was beloved by all who knew him. The time of funeral will knew him. The time of funeral will announced later.

It is thought Mrs. Fannie E. Stewart, the present matron, whose resigna-tion has been accepted, will be retained by Mr. Hales and be placed in charge of the domestic department of the in firmary, although not in the official ca firmary, although not in the official ca-pacity of matron. A petition signed by most of the inmates was presented to the board, asking that Mrs. Stewart be retained and setting forth that she had been very kind to the patients. The resignation of D. A. Crandall as deputy sheriff was accepted and David Barnett appointed to fill the vacancy. County Engineer Tanner reported inding three monuments to mark the boundary line between Utah county and Salt Lake county. He had ex-amined the line with the Salt Lake county surveyor, and they would pro-ceed with the work of establishing the line, and placing permanent monu-ments as soon as the weather is less rigorous. rigorous.

A Very Close Call.

A Very Close Call. "I stuck to my engine, although ev-ery joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain." writes C. W. Bel-lamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burling-ton, lowa. "I was weak and pale, without, any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bot-tle of Electric Bitters, and after tak-ing it. I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down peo-ple always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Sat-isfaction guaranteed by Z. C. M. I. Drug Store. Frice 50 cents.

LOGAN. LEWISTON SUGAR COMPANY.

Differences Settled and Factory Will be Built Ready for 1905 Crop.

Special Correspondence.

Special Correspondence. Logan, Cache Co., Dec. 28.—A meet-ing of the Lewiston Sugar directors was held here a few days ago, at which C. W. Nibley, W. H. Lewis, Geo. C. Parkinson, Joseph Morrell, Joseph Howell, Judge Dee, H. H. Rolapp and H. H. Spencer, were present. Al-though the proceedings were not given out, it was learned that all past dif-ferences have been setlicd, and that ac-tive steps will soon be taken to get the great factory ready for the crop of 1905. This will be good news to the people of northern Cache valley. In the mean time the 1,200 acres of land which the company wisely purchased, will be leased for the express purpose of beet raising. It may be noted in this connection that the new west Cache canal will reclaim that rich but dry country west of Bear fiver run-ning north from Cache Junction and add at least 5,000 acres of valuable beet and, and 16,000 acres of valuable beet and, and us of the already rich agricul-

Special Correspondence. Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., Dec. 28.—Yesterday at 7:30 a. m., a fire was discovered in the Corner Grocery store. A fire alarm was quickly put in and the fire department was on the scene in a few moments and extinguished the flames, but not before a great deal of damage was done. However, all the goods sot a thorough socking and the wares in the back part of the building where the fire originated, were burned. The
