The New York Sun suggests that he will certainly become demoralized if he continues to go on in that way, and that he should enlist as a private, and then he would be able to adjust his expenses within his income. At present the General has $4,500 a year, besides free quarters, free fuel, and the privilege of purchasing his groceries and provisions at cost price. And yet, poor fellow, he is in the depths of poverty.

-Tastes differ. The Detroit Free Press makes fun of the loose and lengthy gownish robes of the Sandwich Islands women. But t e New York Herald says, "Seriously it is the most sensible and picturesque dress in the world, consisting of a single, ample sleeved garment, buttoning at the throat and falling gracefully to the instep."

-The Southern press, especially of Virginia, is said to be bespeaking more and more clearly that the active, intelligent conservative element in politics is desirous of forming a party which will be neither democratic nor republican, but opposed to destructive radicalism, and a New York paper wishes to know if the Whig party is actually reviv-
