SUIT FOR $25,000 DAMAGES.

Mrs. Carter Seeks to Recover for Death of Edward Carter. Ogden, Jan. 24.—Elizabeth J. Carter, administratrix of the estate of Edward Carter, has filed suit in the district court against the Utah Construction company to recover $25,000 damages. The complaint alleges that March 2, 1907, Edward Carter was employed by the defendant company as machine man, running an air machine drill used in cutting a railroad tunnel at Plumias, Cal., on the line of the Western Pacific; that the construction company neglected to properly timber the tunnel at the point where Carter was working, as a result the roof of the tunnel caved in on him, crushing him so badly that he died a short time after the accident. At the time of his death he was but 25 years of age. A judgment in the sum of $25,000 is prayed for.

HEARING IN LIBEL SUIT.

Glasmann's Motion for a Nonsuit Argued and Submitted.

Ogden, Jan. 24.—The $10,000 libel suit against the Standard Publishing company et al, brought by Mrs. Alice Lewis Richards, progressed very rapidly yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that many objections were made to certain questions and answers; however, before time for adjourning court, the prosecution had completed its case and the defense moved for a non-suit as to the defendant, Glasmann, on the grounds that the evidence introduced did not prove that he was in any way responsible for the alleged libelous articles published, and the arguments were still in progress when evidence brought out for the prosecution was the proof that Mr. Glasmann at the time the articles were published was manager of the company, but he was out of the state at the time the articles against the Richards family were published, and the defense, therefore, claim he could not be held responsible for what went on during his absence.

LEAVITT GUARDIANSHIP.

This family controversy and numerous legal battles to settle the question as to who should be the guardian of the person and estate of John Leavitt, the little orphan son of Jasper W. Leavitt, who was killed a few months ago in the local railroad yards, has been determined by the court, who yesterday afternoon appointed William C. Howell guardian. The grandmother of the child, Mrs. Mary Leavitt, and its grandfather on the mother's side, John Clark, both wanted to be guardian, but as they could not settle this matter satisfactorily, it was agreed to have someone outside the family appointed so the court appointed Mr. Howell.

SHAVER ESTATE.

According to a petition filed in the district court, Isaac H. Shaver, who died Oct. 12, 1906, at Cedar Rapids, Ia., left a small estate consisting of real property located at Ogden, valued at $2,000. The petition states that Mr. Shaver left a valuable estate worth perhaps $15,000, which was divided among his wife and children, but the property located here was not probated. The petitioners, Mrs. Besse Ely and Fred H. Shaver of Cedar Rapids ask that Thomas B. Farr be appointed as administrator.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

On complaint of Capt. of Police C. C. Brown, a charge of burglary in the second degree was preferred against John Peterson. He was arraigned before Judge Murphy and his bond fixed at $500. He is charged with burglarizing the Biel Meat Market Dec. 31, 1907. The advance sale for the appearance of the Ogden high school opera company at the Grand Opera House tonight and tomorrow night has been very good. Tonight the Burns anniversary concert and ball will be given at the Congress dancing academy.

PROVO. GRADUATING PROGRAM.

Of Classes from Garden City Public Schools—County School Money.

Special Correspondence. Provo, Jan. 24.—Crowded from pit to dome was the Opera house last night to listen to the mid-winter graduating exercises of the public schools.
