We will not stop to comment on the blindness or stupidity of a profemed believer in the Christian religion, who can see no good whatever in the doctrines of faith in God and in Jesus Christ; in baptism; in the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Ghost; in the efficacy of prayer; in the acts of a special providence, in Sabbath keeping; in sobriety, patience, fidelity, truth, honesty, mercy, justice, charity and unity; all of which and much more that no Bible believer can possibly object to, is taught in "the Mormon religion." We simply say his must be a corrupt and depraved heart who can see no good in all this. But we will pass on to other statements of this smooth-tongued spectable people. Presbyterian:
