Wall Charts Rapidly Going—The first edition of 1,000 copies of the home chart executives in Chicago for the Deseret News is now nearly exhausted. These beautiful reproductions of the portraits of the presidents of the Church, the governors of the state, and the presidents of the United States to say nothing of the accompanying maps and the educational information, complete this national chart by anything in the line of home educators. All "News" subscribers are reminded that the charts can be obtained on payment of 50 cents post paid.

Gruesome Experience—Julius F. Biles, manager of the Orpheum here, has been taken to the hospital from a severe attack of cholera, which he contracted while on a tour of the Orpheum at a table for two hours chatting pleasantly with a good looking young man who was attracted to him. After conversing on about every current topic the unknown concluded the festivities by taking the contents of a chamber pot and emptying it into the young man's face, who was returning to his room and dying peacefully.

Was It Misplaced Switch?—General Agent S. J. Seal of the International Harvester company has returned from Los Angeles where he went with the Shriners. He says it was not until Sunday morning that any of the real facts of the Coast Line disaster could be ascertained, as the railroad company seemed to exert every nerve to shut out the public from the truth.

Indignation Meeting—There will be a meeting this afternoon, in the governor's office of local manufacturers, producers, men, grocers, druggists and liquor dealers to take action on the alleged utterances of the state food and dairy inspector in a recent article published by a morning paper, reflecting on the quality of goods handled by the parties interested. The druggists in particular are incensed, as they are credited with a general habit of impure systems, when it is claimed not only by them, but by the wholesale houses that not 1 per cent of the syrups used in this city are anything but of the purest fruit origin. The liquor men are incensed at the charge that their whiskies are mostly alcohol, brown sugar and water. The meeting promises to be interesting, if not positively lively. The inspectors' denial making the statements attributed to him.

NO POLITICS THERE. Glen Miller in a Reminiscent Mood Regarding Labor Troubles.

Glen Miller is well posted on the San Francisco situation. He says the labor unions have the people of San Francisco so thoroughly cowed that the laborer is standing alone against the strikers patiently without complaint. Mr. Miller believes that Gov. Gillette will not stand much longer the way things are going, but that the governor does not care for the people, but only for the money. He says that Gov. Frank Stevenson of Idaho was made of Mr. Miller fears Gov. Gillette may do the same thing as Stevenson, but does not believe he will, even with such a prospect before him.

Mr. Miller was in the White House talking with President McKinley during the Idaho trouble, when a Republican senator, who is now in the White House, advised him that the Idaho situation, when the senator remarked that Stevenson, when he was in the White House, was sent into Idaho to preserve order.

WEATHER REPORT. Frost Quite Generally Reported All Over State Last Week.

Following is the weather bulletin for week ending Monday, May 13: Cool weather prevailed during the week, the temperature averaging about three degrees daily below the normal. The cool weather was widespread, extending all parts of the state. A brief storm, generally reported from all sections except in the extreme southern counties, beyond the mountains, but in the center of the state, a few days of the week throughout the state, which was followed by a few days of cooler weather with rising temperatures. On Saturday night and Sunday the temperature dropped abruptly and the week closed with a heavy rain. The precipitation over the state was generally heavy, being more or less above the normal, nearly everywhere. A brief stormy period early in the week caused good showers over the northern half of the state, and heavy rains over the southern half. The only other rainy period, which was just at the close of the week, resulted in heavy rain over the northern portion of the state, and somewhat lighter showers over the southern.

RIFLED THE MAIL. Henry H. Miller of Green River Behind Bars Charged With Offense.

Henry H. Miller was brought from Green River last night by Sheriff Pace of Emery county and Postal Inspector Duppard, and after being arraigned before Commissioner Charles Baldwin, was taken to the county jail in default of bail in the sum of $1,000. He is charged that Miller at various and sundry times rifled the U. S. mails at Green River. He was employed by the Rio Grande, Nevada, and was on duty at night, and it is alleged that when the mails were thrown off at the station Miller went through them and appropriated to himself whatever of value they contained. It is said that he has confessed to being guilty of the crime charged against him.

G. M. FORBES, Formerly Vice-President of the Utah Implement Company Now With the J. G. McDonald Candy Co.

Few men are better known in Utah than G. M. Forbes. For nineteen years he was private secretary to Geo. A. Lowe, deceased, but who, in active lifetime, was one of the most widely known of Western business men. For many years past, Mr. Forbes held the office of Vice President of the Utah Implement Company and was conspicuous in the up-building of that enterprise.

The J. G. McDonald Candy Company has been growing so rapidly of late that expert ability in each department has become necessary. The extensive business of the chocolate house will be under the immediate direction of Mr. Forbes. The services of other strong men have also been engaged.
