(ENDORSED.)

"Dist. Court 3rd Dist. Utah.}
"United States on relation of J. M. Orr ads. J. D. T. McAllister.
"Affidavit of Relator and Commission.
"Filed March 17th, 1870.
"S. A. MANN, Clerk.

"Afterwards, to wit, on the 24th day of March, A. D. 1870, defendant by his counsel appeared and filed, with the clerk of said court, his answer, which is in words and figures following, to wit—

"The United States, by Chas. H. Hempstead, Attorney of the United States in the Territory of Utah, on the relation of Joseph M. Orr vs. John D. T. McAllister, Territorial Marshal for Utah Territory. } Territory of Utah, 3rd Judicial District Court, March term, 1870. Hon. C. C. Wilson, Judge.

"Now comes the above named John D. T. McAllister, in his own proper person, and says he admits that His Excellency U. S. Grant, at the time and in the manner mentioned in the relation herein filed, suspended Josiah Hosmer from the office of Marshal of the United States in the Territory of Utah, as alleged, and that he designated and commissioned the said Joseph M. Orr to discharge the duties of that office for the time and in the manner set forth in the relation, and that the said Joseph M. Orr took the oath and gave the bond required by law, and did and performed all other things necessary to be performed to enable him to discharge the duties enjoined on him by law as such United States Marshal. But as to the legal conclusions drawn by the United States attorney for the District of Utah he refers the same to this Honorable Court, without himself admitting or denying them or any of them. To enable this Honorable Court to understand and be informed as to such legal conclusions and rights and duties of the said Relator and of himself, he herein states and informs the Court that pursuant to the Act entitled an Act in relation to Marshals and Attorneys, approved March 3d, 1852, and of the acts amendatory thereto, he, on the 5th day of January, 1866, was duly elected by the joint vote of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, then in session, to the office of Territorial Marshal, and that between that day and the twenty-sixth day of the same month he took the oath and gave the bond required by law, and that on the said 26th day of Jan. A.D. 1866, His Excellency Chas. Durkie, then Governor of Utah Territory, issued to him a Commission as such Territorial Marshal, which oath, bond, and commission are now here to the Court shown. Afterwards on the same day he entered upon the duties of said office, and he has continued to discharge the duties and receive the fees and emoluments appertaining to the office of Territorial Marshal for Utah Territory.

"He further informs this honorable Court that on the 16th day of February, A. D, 1870, he was re-elected to said office by the joint vote of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah then in joint session. And that afterward, on the 17th day of February, A.D. 1870, he took the oath required by him before William Clayton, a notary public, and filed the bond also required by law with Wm. Clayton, Auditor of Public Accounts, and that afterwards on the 21st day of February, in the same year, His Excellency S. A. Mann, Acting-Governor of Utah Territory, issued a commission to him as such Territorial Marshal, which is still in full force and virtue; which oath, bond and commission are now here to the court shown. From that time until the filing of this relation, he has discharged the executive duties of this Honorable Court and served the process issued by it—as he lawfully may do—when this Honorable Court has been exercising its jurisdiction in cases not arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and when it has not been exercising its jurisdiction as a Circuit and District Court of the United States. And he further says he denies the allegations in relation that he, the defendant, herein assumes at this time, or at any other time he has assumed, to have the right or authority to do and perform any portion whatever of the duties devolved on the relator by reason of the premises set forth in the relation, or to receive any of the fees or emoluments of the office of the United States Marshal of the Territory of Utah. And he denies the allegation that he, this defendant, is now, or that he heretofore has been, in the exercise of any executive duty of this Honorable Court, or of the Supreme Court of this Territory, or served any process whatever which has been issued by either of said courts or any judge thereof, that could lawfully be served, or the duty could lawfully be discharged by the relator as United States Marshal for Utah Territory.
